NOTES

SECTION IV JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS South Carolina Annual Conference

The First Day Sunday Evening
May 26, 1996

Holy Communion was celebrated at the Memorial Service at 7:00 PM in the Johnson Arena of the Campus Life Building of Wofford College. The preacher was The Rev. Evelyn Cook Middleton. Bishop Robert H. Spain was the liturgist.

The Memorial Service The Rev. Evelyn Cook Middleton Hebrews 11: 1-12

I was raised a preacher's kid in the Western North Carolina Conference, where I was involved in lots of district and conference youth activities. As soon as I turned 16, I started driving all over the conference all by myself. There were three things that gave me the security and confidence I needed to strike out on my own so often. The first is my faith in God, and I almost didn't say that tonight because it's assumed, it's a given, it's a big part of who I am.

The second thing that helped to give me a sense of security was my Visa card. I asked my father to help me get a credit card. I assured him I wouldn't use it except in case of emergency if I was out of town. So I got the card, and had it for I don't know how many years before I finally used it.

The third thing was the connectional system of the United Methodist Church. I knew that no matter where I went in North Carolina – big city or small town – there would be a United Methodist Church there. And I knew that if I had car trouble, or was involved in an accident, or got sick, that all I had to do was call a United Methodist preacher, tell him who my father was, and I'd get all the help I needed. I don't remember anybody telling me that; I just KNEW it. I knew about that bond, that connectedness when I was a little girl. I knew that bond, and I trusted that bond. That's a pretty remarkable way to grow up.

Tonight we pause to give thanks to God for that bond that continues even after death. We are still bound, in some inexplicable ways to all of the people we remember tonight, surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses. And we gather here in gratitude for their faithful service.

And so we turn to the eleventh chapter of Hebrews, which I think is one of the most beautiful chapters in the Bible. Here some of the great saints are listed. Abel, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Sarah, Moses, Rahab, for starters. I marvel as I read the many things they were able to accomplish through their faith. Great wonders that God performed through them. Events that helped shape the lives of every one of us.

As we read that great list of names, the thing that strikes me is, that in spite of the many things each individual accomplished through faith, each one is remembered in this chapter by one thing. Abel offered an acceptable sacrifice; Enoch was taken so that he did not experience death; Noah built an ark and condemned the world; Abraham and Sarah went out when they were called to go to an unknown land; Moses led his people to the promised land; Rahab protected Joshua's spies. And the list goes on.

And this evening, I turn to another list. The list of the souls who, since our last Annual Conference, our last time here together, have left this life and gone on to another one. And when I consider these precious souls, touch these printed names, I am awestruck. These are people of remarkable courage and faith, people of integrity and commitment.

I see a name here, the name of a woman who fought a terrible disease. And fought it with such courage and determination that her story will always be a part of me. The way she chose to live her life had a profound impact on those of us who knew her and loved her and will forever carry her in our hearts.

And I see a preacher's name here, a man who showed up on our door step one day right after Scott and I had finished seminary and moved to our first appointment. Moving from Atlanta to a small town in the Lowcountry, we felt rather isolated and alone. And somehow this man must've sensed that, because he made it a habit of stopping by after his Monday morning visits to the ministers' coffee at Epworth, and he'd tell us what went on there and who was there, and in a very intentional way, helped us feel connected to the bond of the Conference.

Here's another preacher's name, the name of a man who gave me guidance and support as I transferred into this Conference and began my ministry here. He taught me how to do funerals and how to prepare for Charge Conference – the things they don't teach you in seminary! He was my sounding board, someone I knew I could call in any situation and he would share his good common sense with me.

And I see the name of another clergy member of this Conference. A man I don't believe I ever met. But I have sat around the table with other preachers and listened to them tell their stories about him and the way he touched their ministry. And in that way, he has touched and helped shape my ministry.

As I look at all of these names and remember the people who carried these names, I remember also their lives. Every single one of these dear brothers and sisters has something to teach us, something to share with us, something that will help us as we attempt, in our inadequate, human way, to follow the One who demands our all.

We remember not just their names, but the impressions they made on a grateful Annual Conference.

If we go back to Genesis, we read the names of the descendants of Noah. All those "begets". Someone plopped a story right down in the middle of all those names. The story of the Tower of Babel. Do you remember what their sin was? Their sin was they wanted to make a name for themselves. They wanted to be remembered not for their deeds, but for their name. They forgot they already had a name – Children of God.

Those whose memory we honor tonight are remembered not by their names so much as by all that they accomplished through faith. Even though we know these people lived their lives in service to God, they are each remembered most often for ONE THING. If someone were to mention one of these names to you, what would be the first thing to come to mind? If you were to describe one of these persons, how would you begin? How are they remembered?

We remember countless things about these individuals, but isn't there almost always one thing in particular that comes to mind when we remember any one of these people?

That's not to discount the rest of their lives; it's just that in nearly every case, there's one thing that stands out in our memories of them. Just as there's one thing that the writer of Hebrews remembered about each person as he wrote the great role call of the heroes and heroines of the faith.

These two lists – the one in the 11th chapter of Hebrews and the one printed in our order of worship – have much in common. Most likely, there is one way in particular each person is remembered.

The same is even true as we celebrate the life of our Lord. Jesus is remembered for many things: he healed the sick, fed the hungry, performed countless signs and wonders. We remember many different things about Jesus, but the reason we've all come together tonight is to celebrate the Resurrection. The Resurrection is that one thing that outweighs all the rest, that one thing which we remember and celebrate above all else. Through the Resurrection of Christ our Lord, we are redeemed, given new life, and gathered together here tonight in his name.

Yes, even as we remember the life of Christ, there's one thing we remember above all else. One thing.

And like it or not, there's one way we'll be remembered. What is the impression people have of us? Despite the many facets of our lives and personalities, we'll be remembered for one thing. What's it going to be?

I want to invite you, challenge you, to let this list of names confront us with our own lives. How do we want to be remembered? As one who kept the faith in times of trial? As one who was a connecting force in the Annual Conference? As one who gave guidance and support to others in ministry? As one who, through faith, touched others whom you've never even met?

In speaking of Abel, the writer of Hebrews says, "He died, but through his faith he still speaks." Death is never the last word in the life of those who are righteous. When we leave this world, we leave something in it. We may leave something which will grow and spread like a weed or like a poison through life. Or we may leave something beautiful which blossoms and flourishes.

We leave an influence of good or ill; we leave an example of righteousness or of sin. Every one of us, when we die, still speaks. May God grant to us to leave behind, not just our name, but something that will become a blessing to others, deeds we've done because we're children of God.

When the people who come after us tell our story, they'll remember one thing about us. What's it going to be?

The Second Day - Monday Morning May 27, 1996

Holy Communion was celebrated in Leonard Auditorium at 7:30 AM. The Preacher: The Rev. Ethel Jefferson; Liturgist: The Rev. James O. Gilliam, Jr.; Lay Reader: Ms. Rachel Pitt. Lay Member Orientation for the 1996 Session of the South Carolina Annual Conference was led by the Board of the Laity in the Johnson Arena of the Campus Life Center, Wofford College at 8:30 AM.

The Clergy Session was held at 8:30 AM in Leonard Auditorium of Old Main building on the Wofford College campus.

The organizational session of the 1996 South Carolina Annual Conference was held at 11:00 AM. The Conference session opened with the singing of the traditional hymn: "And Are We Yet Alive." The invocation was given by Bishop Robert H. Spain.

At 11:10 AM Bishop Spain recognized Edisto Island United Methodist Church, Charleston District, and presented the church charter to Mrs. Ruth Caughman, lay member and The Rev. Norman Knight, pastor. The members welcomed our newly chartered congregation.

Dr. Talmage Skinner, Wofford Chaplain, welcomed the members of the session. Wofford students presented a cap and tee shirt to the presiding bishop. Rev. Skinner made the annual request that persons park thoughtfully and save handicapped parking for the handicapped.

At 11:15 AM Dr. Timothy McClendon and The Rev. John Warren presented the Report of the Committee on Standing Rules. The Standing Rules were revised four years ago for better reference, and to serve as guidelines for Annual Conference business not covered by The Book of Discipline. (1) Proposed additions to Standing Rule 63 combining the work of the Committee on the Conference Journal with responsibilities of the Commission on Communications were tabled on the motion of The Rev. Carol R. Cannon. (2) The proposal to delete Rule 67 was approved inasmuch as current Standing Rules 72 and 73 already address career planning and counseling. (3) The proposal to delete Standing Rule 65, the Committee on the Conference Journal, was tabled on the motion of The Rev. Timothy McClendon. (4) New Standing Rule 22, the provision of a consent calendar for the annual conference session, was approved. (5) Standing Rule 44, as amended, was approved following discussion of the linkage of stewardship, evangelism and the Board of the Laity and the report of the Rev. Charles L. Johnson that a study committee is working on specific recommendations regarding stewardship. (6) After inserting "Stewardship" following Leader Development in line 7, page 220 of the Pre-Conference materials, and after substituting "Conference Board of Laity" for "The Resident Bishop" in the last sentence of the rule, and after including Mr. Fletcher Carter's amendment: "The Board may elect task group leaders for the following program areas who will also serve as members of the Board: Lay Life and Work, Lay Speaking, Laity Convocation, Leader Development, Stewardship, and other task groups to meet emerging needs" Standing Rule 46, with 33 rather than 66 members was referred, as amended, to the Committee on Standing Rules in order to be reported later. (7) Standing Rule 58, as amended, was approved. (8) Standing Rule 61, as amended, was approved. (9) Items 5 and 6, to appropriately re-number the Standing Rules to reflect changes, and the editorial changes found in item 6 on page 2 of the Pre-Conference materials, were approved on the motion of the Committee. (10) Chairperson McClendon noted that current Standing Rule 47, Board of Ministry will comply with the provisions adopted in the 1996 Book of Discipline. (11) The composition of the Board of Ministry, Standing Rule 47, was amended to comply with the changes to The Book of Discipline made at the 1996 General Conference. (12) After agreeing with the editorial corrections of Ms. Hazel Bennett that the references to the Board of Ordained Ministry will be changed to Board of Ministry, the Proposal to delete Standing Rule 48, Board of Diaconal Ministry, was approved. (13) Mr. Harry Kent proposed the following amendment to Standing Rule 21 by addition of the following words: "After the recommended budget, with its final calculation on anticipated income, as required by Paragraph 710.1 of the Discipline, has been presented and thus has become the property of the annual conference any motion to increase the amount of a line item of the budget must include a compensating reduction in some other line item, in order to maintain a balanced budget." On the motion of Dr. Peter Mitchell, the Kent amendment to Standing Rule 21 was tabled and referred to the Committee on Standing Rules.

The Secretary, Delos Corderman, made the motions establishing the Bar of the Conference and adopting the agenda they were approved. The Report of the Laity
Mr. B.J. Pasley

Bishop Spain and members of the Annual Conference, I greet you in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ who is the light of my life. It is with mixed emotion that I bring this last report as Conference Lay Leader and this may seem an unusual approach to do this, but this is what is on my heart. I will do this in three parts: the Past, the Present, and the Future.

The PAST:

The year is 1972, I am 40 years old, 75 inches tall, weight 196 pounds, with a head full of hair and just a touch of gray. I can read without glasses, walk in a military manner, and feel as though I can do anything. I am married to Maggie Louise Mims, we have a 15 year old daughter, and I am employed as a public school teacher. I am secretary and Director of Stewardship Education of the Piedmont District Board of Laity and a Certified Lay Speaker. This is also the year of merger of the 1785 and the 1866 Annual Conferences. Ed Tullis is our Resident Bishop. It is organizational day and all of the Boards, Commissions and Committees gather for the election of chairpersons. The first session yield too few black chairpersons. The results are unacceptable to the Merger Committee. We are instructed to go back in session and try again. This time 5 black chairperson were elected: Omega Newman, Merger Committee; Hubert Manning; Ecumenical Affairs; John Curry, Sr., Minimum Salary; Newton Pough, Conference Trustee; and B.J. Pasley, Resolution and Appeal.

In subsequent organization of the CCOM these persons were elected: Judge Richard Fields, Chair of the Conference Council on Ministries; James Mack, Co-Chair with Harry Kent of the Board of the Laity and B.J. Pasley, Director of Stewardship Education of the Board of the Laity.

The PRESENT:

I am 64 years old, 74 inches tall, weighing 208 pounds with hair that is more white than black if you can find it. We have a 23 year old son, George, who is grown, gone and employed. Praise the Lord. I have been retired for 12 years, Maggie 8 years, Cassandra is pastor of the Trinity/Macedonia Charge in Camden. We have a son-in-law and 2 grandsons.

IT'S CELEBRATION TIME!

District Lay Leaders please stand.

My reporting is not by District, but a summary of reasons for celebration. We celebrate Vision 2000, we celebrate dynamic lay speaking programs, we celebrate spirit filled lay rallies, we celebrate building habitat housing, we celebrate some work in prison ministry, we celebrate caring ministries such as: soup kitchens, Triune Mercy Center, and others. We celebrate 8 black Conference Chairpersons, some cross-racial appointments, and 2 female District Superintendents. Yes, we've got something to celebrate.

District Lay Leaders, you may be seated.

REALITY CHECK:

We have some strong units of United Methodist Men, Women and Youth with much work to be done to activate units in every local church. We are, for all practical purposes, still a segregated church who resists open itineracy. Black congregations don't want white clergy, white congregations don't want black clergy and many congregations don't want female clergy. We are talking and acting like the world and seem to take our marching orders from the world in areas of budget crunch, downsizing, and playing it safe. May I remind you that Jesus said, "We are the light of the world." And as such, should be the change agent in the world. If we really are the light then we ought to shine so the world can see the light in us.

The FUTURE:

Well Brothers and Sisters, cheer up, God is not through with us! He is saying to us, you've tried it your way, now try mine. He is saying to us, you can't be my church in a society where missional opportunities are great while you discuss limited resources. He is asking: don't you know me? don't you trust me? the world is waiting for a good word from on high. So, spread the world and Let go - Let God. Matthew 6:33: "But strive first for the kingdom of God and all these things will be given to you as well." We are God's agent, God's steward if you please, asking, receiving, and giving. Asking, receiving, and giving, asking, receiving and giving. Don't be a stopper in the process.

Our vision for the future is shared ministry – shared leadership, a church quick to walk and slow to talk, a prison ministry in every district in our conference, a church committed to open itineracy, a church not afraid to be the church whenever and wherever. A church that is inviting to all of God's people, those that look like us and those who are different, a church that will love the lovely and the heart to love. A church that will feed the hungry, clothe the naked, visit the sick and the prisoners and welcome strangers. Christ's promise to us is that He will be with us at our point of need to the end of the ages.

My friends there is still work to be done. The harvest is great but the laborers are few.

Then why stand you waiting, idling, saying there is nothing I can do. When the soul of men are dying and the Master calls for you. Gladly take the task he offers, let his work your pleasure be. When he calls you, answer quickly, Here am I, send me, send me. In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, Amen.

At the conclusion of his report, Mr. Pasley asked Sara Shingler, who serves with him on the General Board of Global Ministries to make an announcement about the Global Gathering, April 10-13, 1997, in Kansas City, MO. Mr. Pasley and Ms. Shingler presented pins to Bishop Spain; Charles Johnson, CCOM Director; Jack Washington, CCOM Associate Director; William Burroughs, President of United Methodist Men; Dolly Fogle, President of United Methodist Women; and to Carolyn Briscoe, CCOM Chairperson.

Mr. Pasley also asked the Direct Lay Leaders and Associate Lay Leaders to stand. Dr. Ted Walter submitted the request that the members of the session pray for J. William Martin, lay member of Main Street Church, Columbia, and a former District Lay leader and Associate Conference Lay Leader, now in ICU at Baptist Hospital in Columbia.

Mr. B.J. Pasley nominated Mrs. Carolyn Rogerson as Annual Conference Lay Leader, on behalf of the Board of the Laity and asked that Nominations be reopened for this purpose. Bishop Spain asked that the Standing Rules be suspended. Mrs. Sara Shingler asked that the Rules be suspended for this nomination only. This was done by a 3/4 margin after Bishop Spain explained that this was in order. After lengthy discussion the nomination was made.

At 4:40 PM, Mr. Harry Kent, in presenting the Report of the Council on Finance and Administration for reference, called attention to the revised copy of Council on Finance Administration Report Number One, page 234 in the Registration Packet. This exhibit, with General Conference and Southeastern Jurisdictional apportionments clearly identified, compares the 1996 Annual Conference budget of $17,582,114 with the 1997 requests of $17,707,814 and the CF&A recommended 1997 budget of $16,914,874. Mr. Kent explained that items (3) District Superintendent Compensation, (4) Pension Fund, (6) Conference Insurance and (14) are the significant numbers the Annual Conference could do something about, but this would required reduction in clergy support or congregational development.

Dr. Peter Mitchell asked if the Standing Rules prohibited discussion on the first day of item 6 in CFA Report Number Four. Dr. Mitchell observed that the proposed item 6, a new procedure, pits one item against another. He believes the new procedure to be ill advised. Therefore, he asked that Standing Rule 21 be suspended in order to discuss Item 6, Report Number Four and delete item number six from the report. Standing Rule 21 was suspended by a 3/4 vote.

Harry Kent responded that the Discipline make it the responsibility of CF&A to present a budget based on anticipated income. The bottom line in the proposed budget is based on past history. If CF&A is to present a budget that is based on anticipated income, there is only one way to carry it out. Conference can vote it up or down.

When Bishop Spain called for the vote on the motion of Peter Mitchell to delete item 6 from report number 4, the motion carried.

The Secretary made the motion that amended report of CF&A be distributed Tuesday morning. The motion passed.

The Second Day - Monday Evening May 27, 1996

EPISCOPAL ADDRESS
Bishop Robert H. Spain
SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE
1996

PROLOGUE:

In 1993, I was asked by the College of Bishops to come to South Carolina and assist Bishop Bethea and you during the time of his recuperation. After he was again about his work, I came to your Annual Conference to assist him in the Conference session. After his death in 1995, I was once again asked to come to South Carolina.

There is no Bishop in the church that has been or could be received with more grace than you have shown to Syble and me. You have loved us, showered us with genuine hospitality, been open to our ministry and have been true friends. I am grateful to God for allowing me the privilege of serving with you.

Many of you have asked what is now ahead for me. The course of my future ministry is not altogether clear, but I do know for certain that God called me into this Christian ministry -- not for any prescribed number of years, but for as long as I live. God has given to me, as He has given to you, seeds of abilities and talents, and my ministry must not be over until every seed has been planted, cultivated and nurtured and every twig has grown to maturity. As always, God will open a new door. Please keep me in your prayers.

In September you will be receiving a new Bishop. I hope you will surround this new leader with the same love and support you have given me. Any Bishop assigned to this Area is fortunate to have such a place to work.

INTRODUCTION:

In the book of Isaiah, there is a strange sounding but interesting verse of scripture. "Enlarge the place of your tent and let them stretch forth the curtains of shine habitations; spare not, lengthen the ropes, and strengthen the stakes . . ." (Isaiah 54:2)

The Israel people had been defeated. Many of them had been killed and others walked into foreign lands as exiles. Their own homeland was then occupied by foreigners. Israel was crushed.

In the midst of this national destruction and human anguish, the prophet issues a wake-up call for them to enlarge their living space. "Lengthen the ropes . . . stretch the curtains . . . makes sure the stakes are secure . . ." The time has come to dream some new dreams, see some new possibilities and capture some new horizons.

This verse of scripture probably would not have meant much to me had I not seen the results of tent ropes being lengthened and new canvas applied. The Bedouins, that wandering nomadic group in the Middle East, have solved the problem of expanding their living quarters by simply adding some more rope, staking it to the ground and putting on another piece of canvas. Immediately, they have enlarged their quarters.

Of course, Isaiah was not calling for enlarged tents. Like Jesus, he was speaking of something familiar to reveal a need. He was saying, "Don't stay as you are. It's not over. There is more. Open the windows. Look out about you. Stretch your minds. It's time to dream some new dreams."

Years later, Jesus was to say, "I . . . have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now." (John 16:12) He knew his followers could not grasp or do everything needed in the beginning, but he was letting them, and us, know that he is not expecting us to stay where we are. His call is, "There is more!"

This South Carolina Conference has had a remarkable history. In reading and hearing some of your history, I have been amazed at some of the accomplishments here. Your past years in the Christian faith have revealed a commitment to the call of Christ that makes one stop and give thanks for those who have brought us to this day.

Your history is not the only interesting part of this Conference. You are an inspiring and stimulating people today. You have thousands of people deeply committed to the cause of Christ. You have base camps from which Christian ministries are regularly performed. You have resources, both human and material, that are being used to make a difference. You are a base for Christ's work that I find exciting.

Our colleges are a great source of pride for this Conference. Spartanburg Methodist, Claflin, Columbia College and Wofford are healthy and are staffed by able and committed leaders. These colleges have ministered to our area in ways far beyond our imagining. These higher education institutions contribute greatly to the welfare of this Conference and deserve our continuing support.

Our retirement centers in Greenwood and Orangeburg and Florence are making a great difference in the lives of many of our older citizens. They have and are providing a security and peace that many of the residents would not otherwise have. We are entering a time when more and more will be entering the ranks of the elderly. What a blessing it is to be a part of this vital ministry.

How can we say enough about our Epworth Children's Home! For 100 years you have been actively serving children who needed the care and love the church has to give. The work with children today is different from years past. It's tough work, but you are doing it with utmost care and concern.

The work done through our Conference supported camps and Conference Centers are also a part of the ministry of this Conference. Our Salkehatchie Summer Service involved 22 camps with 120 projects completed with 1,460 workers. The Summer Investment Program had 20 of our young adults ministering throughout our Conference. The work at Sewee and Asbury Hills served many of our children, youth and adults. Our Mission Projects are reaching people in need in 17 different locations. And how can we say enough about Habitat for Humanity. 30 families have decent and affordable housing today that were built by hundreds of our people in 1995. The Volunteers in Mission program has brought life and hope to thousands of people. Each year thousands of our people have their spirits revived and renewed through these programs.

While thinking about our institutions and agencies and program units of this Annual Conference, I want to express my appreciation to the hundreds of you who faithfully serve on the Boards, Agencies and committees of this Annual Conference. There is no way the work of the church could be done without you. How many hours you spend, how many miles you travel, how much work you do. I am proud of you and thank God for you.

This list could go on and on. Through our appointments beyond the local church, the ministry of this Conference is reaching into the world in what some would declare as unexpected places. People from our Conference and others supported by our Conference are serving the cause of Christ all over the world.

Even such a casual reflection of our ministry should give us cause for much rejoicing and thanksgiving.

Isaiah reminds us, however, that we must not be content with where we are. Just as dreams and visions have brought us to this place, we must now dream some new dreams and plow some new fields. The church must forever be moving out, putting down some new stakes, lengthening some ropes and stretching our tents.

My short tenure with you does not give me an infallible evaluation of where we are in this Conference. Neither does it provide me with all the answers. But I have been with you long enough to have a deep caring for what we are about. I also have a tremendous hope for what we can do and be.

Tonight, I want to share with you some of my thoughts about the church in this Conference. There is no way I can speak to every issue or cause. Some of my assessments may be wrong. Where they are, I am confident that some of you will tell me. (I've been here long enough to know some of you will enjoy doing that.) But at the heart of it, there is "a burden in my soul" that we move out with courage and commitment for a greater and stronger church.

The three general subjects which I will treat are:

- 1) Resources for ministry.
- 2) An inclusive church in an inclusive society.
- 3) A strategy for local church ministries.

RESOURCES FOR MINISTRY

When one speaks of "resources," it is generally assumed that this means "money." For sure, money is an important resource for doing ministry, but there are human resources also. I want to look at ALL our resources and see if we can use them for effective ministries.

THE LAITY

God has never called us to a task without providing the human resources. In every case where there is a mission to be accomplished, God has provided persons who were able to accomplish it.

Since being with you in South Carolina, I have been tremendously impressed with the skilled and able lay people I have met. I see highly qualified Christian people everywhere I go. I also have discovered a willingness that is a source of great joy. Even more than willingness, I sense a genuine excitement about getting on with our main task.

The church is a movement created in the mind of God and started by Christ for the fulfilling of God's dream for the world. Those who accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and commit themselves to be disciples are the members. This means that the overwhelming work force in the church is composed of lay persons – actually 99%. The renewed importance of the laity is one of the most exciting thoughts about the church today.

For the fourth time in Christian history, a new lay wave is hitting the beaches of the world. Along with the first century Christian expansion, the Reformation, the religious awakening propelling Christ across the frontiers of this nation, a new movement of the laos is again under way. I wish we would know that. The church in your life-time and mine will be a different and better church because of it. The new role of the laity in the church is not an option to be considered. It is a ringing call from God that must not be overlooked.

As the new disciples, you (the people of God) are full time players in Christ's vineyard and not spectators. As Peter, James, John and the others of the twelve heard the call of Christ and responded, you also heard that call and volunteered to be a disciple. This means that you are on the team and your place is on the playing field and no longer viewing the action from the bleachers.

The day of hiring someone to do the ministry of the church is over. The clergy are appointed to your churches to help you to be in ministry and not to do your ministry for you. If they do it for you, they are not fulfilling their responsibility. Your clergy are to teach you, to proclaim the gospel to you, to counsel you when you are in need, to administer the sacraments of the church for you, to equip you for meaningful ministries and to set you free as missionaries. You are today's disciples in your community.

The focus for this new and exciting lay discipleship must be on Jesus Christ and his mission for the world. And that focus must not become blurred by any secondary or peripheral concerns.

In our Conference we have some great lay organizations – equal to any I have seen anywhere. The United Methodist Women is a powerful work unit. The United Methodist Men is making a valiant effort to encourage the men of the Conference. The Youth of our churches through their organizations have a capacity for service that we cannot imagine. I want to tell you we have the organizations – we're experts in that category, but our organizations are only a means of ministry and not the end.

We have not done anything for the Lord when we have completed our structures and have a name for every position. We have not necessarily done anything for the Lord when we have come together in our meetings. What are we about? That's the important question. What is it that God is expecting of us? Well prepared reports and finely tuned structures are impressive, but those things will not meet the needs of today. The focus must be on fulfilling the call of God through Jesus Christ.

To keep our focus clear, we must become more mature in our Christian faith. A vague theism with a blurred anything-goes theology will not suffice for the work Christ is calling us to do. We must become spiritually transformed disciples. Some of us are at about the same place in our Christian pilgrimage as when we were baptized. We must become better acquainted with our guide book which is the Bible. We have got to be more open and sensitive to the winds of the Holy Spirit. We must become a praying people. We must set our personal priorities in order. We must become different persons than those who do not know the Lord as Jesus Christ. Only then will our focus remain clear.

As the new work force in the church, it is well to remember that you are the stewards of the church and not the owners. (The church doesn't belong to the clergy either.) The church belongs to Jesus Christ. You as laity have a responsibility for what goes on in the church, but that doesn't carry with it ownership. Occasionally we find a few self-appointed persons that have felt that the church was their own little kingdom and they could run their club any way they wanted. Lay or clergy, the church is not yours to play with and it is not yours to block the work God is calling us to do. You are the stewards of the church – ownership belongs to the Lord.

As the Lord's new disciples, propelled into the future by a new push by the Holy Spirit, the time has come to stop playing around in safe ankle-deep water. On two different occasions this year, I have heard some enthusiastic and rousing pontificating about Jesus's walk on the water. I think the point was that we need to do some water-walking. I agree, but I need to remind all of us that we will never walk on any water until we get out of the safety of the boat. Jesus said much about launching out into the deep. We must now dream some new dreams and try some new things – even if it involves an occasional risk.

There is no place in the church where our safety-net is more in place than in our financial resources for ministry. Again and again, we plan our future ministries on the basis of the money we can raise. This limits our ministry and puts everything in our own hands. Now, friends this is walking by sight and not by faith. But someone cries, that's the safe way. It is, but it is not God's way. God never opens a door without adequate resources to go through it. If God calls us to a particular ministry, the resources will be available. To often, we plan our ministries on the basis of our own limited supply rather than tapping into the unlimited supply of God. The God that can part the Red Sea and the Christ that can feed five thousand persons with a few fishes and loaves is still around.

Too many of our churches are operating with outmoded programs and with dreams that have become faded. Many of our churches are in a maintenance mode – just doing what they have always done. The local congregations must begin to think, dream, and act without waiting for somebody somewhere else telling them what to do. You are the trustees and stewards of the church. You are the new work force. Accept it and move on. God expects this from you.

In some of our churches, this kind of forward thinking will demand some new lay leadership. This involves the acceptance of all I have been talking about but also the local church Nominating Committee. Our churches must be opened up to allow some committed persons to share in the joy of Christian service. No longer can God's work be done with the same people in the same positions for life. Some of God's ministry is being held hostage by a tenured club-member mentality when God is trying to break into our day. A God-directed ministry demands mature and committed disciples, and God has same disciples waiting for an opportunity. We must have the right persons in the right places.

The place of the laity in today's church is new for us. It is different from anything that has come along in your life time or mine. It is a part of God's new wake up call to the church. The empowerment of the laity is the new opportunity for fulfilling the dream of God for a redeemed world. The time has come to awaken from our sleep and become excited about the church. We are no longer in a business-as-usual. The church is more than little community clubs all over the land – even those with nicely painted white steeples. We are God's people doing God's work. Whatever it takes, we must do.

THE CLERGY

In this Conference, we have some able and capable pastors. We don't have enough, but there is a foundation in place that should enable us to face the future with expectancy and hope. There are some concerns, however that I want to address.

OUR NEW AND YOUNG CLERGY: I am vitally interested in our new and younger clergy becoming excitedly rooted in the work to which they have been called and for which they have given long years of study. Too often, we have given them a big welcoming party, turned them out onto their charges, and left them alone. This, of course, is a bit of an exaggeration, but the beginning years of one's ministry are tremendously important. During the probationary period, we do provide supervisory assistance, but our young and new clergy deserve more attention than we are providing.

SUPPORT GROUPS: The ministry is sometimes a lonely calling. It is beset with more strain and pressures than is usually imagined. Through your Residency programs, you have made a significant step in helping all of us. These groups are important for our emotional and spiritual health and should involve all of us. We have a hard job ahead; and to do it well, we need the support of each other. Whatever it takes to involve all of us in such groups should be done.

ETHICS: Of all the callings or professions, the ministry should be the one where Christian ethics are totally expected and experienced. But that is not always the case. In this Conference, as it is in most Conferences, some problems that we have brought upon ourselves. We have allowed jealousy and unholy competition to overtake us, and in some cases it has been disastrous. Unthinking remarks have caused the downfall of some of our colleagues. Envy has brought havoc and heartache for some of our folks in their appointments. Some have tried to pastor their own flock while attending to the flock they used to have. These are the kinds of things that must stop . . . and they must stop now! Of all the groups in the world that should demonstrate love and care for one another, it should be us.

COVENANT: There are three steps into being where you are today in the ministry. The first was God's call. The second was your academic preparation. The third was the church's validation of your call and preparation through ordination. This ordination carries with it great privileges such as guaranteed appointments, retirement benefits, health plans, continuing education and housing. But it also carries some accountability.

Because of the vows you took, you are not in a free-lance ministry. You are in an accountable ministry. There is far too much "winking" at our vows to the church. We clergy have committed ourselves to full-time service, but some have become notorious moonlighters and have excused it by any number of reasons. Some attend meetings only when it is convenient. A few others turn in requested reports in the same way. Occasionally, there are a few that even dare to belittle the church that is the supporting arm of all of us. There is no one of us that doesn't have an occasional lovers quarrel with something in or about the church, I will tell all of us clergy, but this church has treated us well, and we made a commitment to it. These commitments must be kept.

We have also declared that we will exemplify a life style and embrace a value system that is truly of Christ. Instead, some of us have been following the patterns of the world. We have vowed to live totally for the Lord; and at least here and there, we see evidences that our egos get in the way. We cannot lead others into a life that we have not found for ourselves. We preach often to our people about their not fulfilling their baptism vows. We must remember that we have taken some vows too. The church will never rise above its leadership. The church is depending upon us. Better still, the Lord is depending upon us. Our covenant with God and with each other is basic to our fulfilling God's call to us and our Ordination vows.

FAMILY: It is no secret that the family is in trouble. Unfortunately, the parsonage has not escaped the crisis. Marriages are important and the children we bring into the world are important. They must not be neglected. It is no secret to those who know me that I expect much from clergy. The time is now upon us when ministry will require even more than in the past, but this must not come at the expense of the parsonage family. Good family relationships can only come with intentional work, and left-over time is not enough. Our Conference does much to support and encourage those whose lives have been affected by separation and divorce, but more should be done to strengthen the family before the tragedies occur.

PREACHING: A few years ago, we heard the mistaken cry that preaching was not important, but we have learned the error of that day. Preaching is important, and our people deserve and need the very best we can deliver. Sunday after Preaching today must communicate the absolute demands of the gospel. Now is no call for any to become tyrants in the pulpit. The Christian message must be sounded with a clear ringing call to faithfulness, but it must be done in love and compassion and caring. The apostle Paul spoke about the trumpet giving an unclear sound. Let us be certain that such unclear sounds do not ring from the pulpits of our churches.

THEOLOGICAL GROUNDING: It is a sad commentary on us that many of our United Methodist people do not know what they believe; or if they do know, they do not know why. This is our fault. We United Methodists are an ecumenical people. We are a cooperative people. We preach that we are a part of the whole body of Christ and not the whole body. We have open communion. We accept persons who have been baptized by other church groups. We are not narrow in our Christian outlook. But we have beliefs, and we have theological priorities that are important to the whole cause of Christianity. Our people need to know who we are and what we stand for and something about our heritage. We are not just another generic church.

THE NEW SEMINARIES: The local church must become the new seminaries for tomorrow. For the laity to become the ministers God is expecting them to become, they must be thoroughly grounded in the Christian Biblical faith, nurtured with Christian love and equipped for meaningful ministries. The church can no longer offer seminary-type learning for only a few chosen clergy. For those who see this as something new, hear the words of Paul from Ephesians "The gifts he gave were that some would be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry. . ." (Ephesians 4:11-12)

These new disciple producing seminaries will require a teaching ministry far beyond anything we clergy have been doing. We have some new learning to do. Winning new persons to Jesus Christ will always be a high priority of the church, but it must not end there. Too often we have celebrated their arrival into the church and we've left them there. Preparing our people for meaningful ministries is our next order of business.

For the local church to be one of the new seminaries is going to require a new focus for our ministry and a new understanding of ministerial leadership from the people in our churches. The training of our work force is not an option. It is a requirement for fulfilling the expectations of God.

LEADERSHIP: The world today is crying for leadership. It is no different in the church. The laity as the new working unit does not diminish the need. It demands it.

Leadership does not take away pastoral responsibilities. In fact, no one can be a leader that does not have a love/trust relationship with the congregation. This relationship with our people can only come through compassionate caring. Until such caring has been given and felt by a congregation, leadership is out of the question. Leadership cannot be given by an appointment. It has to be earned; and every time a clergy begins a new work, it has to be earned all over again.

Leadership does relieve one from management type duties. Management is important. There are reports to be made and policies to be formed and personnel to be employed and schedules to be kept. But as Warren Bennis and others have reminded us, management is doing things right and leadership is doing the right thing.

Leadership must set the vision for the church. The church will not only allow it, it expects it and is waiting for it. This vision must be a God-inspired direction for the church. It must be a finely tuned picture of what the church is to be. It is the responsibility of the leader to discover this vision through prolonged visits with God through prayer, communicate it in every way possible, and let nothing detour it. The church is waiting for such leaders.

SPIRITUALITY: There can be no spiritual leadership without spiritual leaders. While this may seem to be a moot question for some, it is not for those of us engaged in leadership ministries. Keeping ourselves spiritually attuned to the Lord is not easy. With the ever growing demands on our time and energy, our personal relationship to the Lord is often relegated to left over time, and that is not enough.

In an old book by Richard Baxter, published a few years ago, a book that Francis Asbury used extensively in the training of pastors, he makes it clear that leaders of the church must always take care of themselves spiritually before they are in any position to offer help anybody else. He wrote, "Take heed . . . lest you famish yourselves while you prepare food for others." He continues, "Take heed, therefore, to yourselves first, that you may be that which you want your hearers to be and believe that which you want them to believe."

It is good for us to remember the early church at Ephesus. They were known for their good works and sound doctrines. They were committed to the church, but they had become so busy doing the work of the Lord that they forgot the Lord of the work. The Lord's message was to return to their first love and that was the Lord that was calling them in ministry.

We cannot lead others into a life that we have not discovered for ourselves. Adequate personal time with the Lord is not mis-spent time. It is a must for spiritual leadership.

TEAM BUILDING: Leadership is not and has never been a loneranger type adventure. There can be no leadership if no one is following. This follow-ship comes through the building of a work team. With the laity as the new disciples, we clergy must see our ministry in a relationship with the ministry of others. This requires a team concept. It may be that we handle the ball more than some others, but it is the whole work-force that is to be on the playing field. The spot light must be shared. We're all in this together.

If we think this is a new concept borrowed from the new corporate world model, let me remind you that Moses was busy from morning to night caring for the people. His father-in-law Jethro paid him a visit and watched him doing everything for the people. He said to Moses, "What is this that you are doing for the people? Why do you sit alone . . . What you are doing is not good. You cannot do it alone." (Exodus 18). He goes on to counsel him about how he should divide up his responsibilities. Team ministry had its beginning with Jethro, and it is a model that must be used today. Ministry can not be a one person task.

ITINERACY: Going where we are appointed and whenever the need has been a cherished part of our church polity. In return for this commitment, we have been given a guaranteed place to serve, a house to live in and other basic considerations. It has served us well, but it is no secret that it is being sorely tested today. With 70% of our clergy spouses working either full or part-time, children with special educational needs, with elderly parents and personal health needs, itineracy has come upon a new day.

The question is often asked, "Do you think the day will ever come when some will fully itinerate and others will not?" My answer is that it is already here. We have it now. Itineracy is in our policy and we have all agreed to it, but it is not a fact. You know this. Some are full itinerate clergy and some are not.

The General Church is going to have to deal with itineracy; but until it does, I have no burning problem with it. I think I understand the situation that is before us. The problem for the Bishop and the Cabinet comes from those who have limited itineration possibilities and who yet want to keep their career tracks in tact. If one cannot fulfill their responsibility to go wherever they are needed, then they must accept the best that can be offered within their limited geography. We either accept such appointments or else our system is bereft with problems. Basically it's really up to us.

CLERGY SHORTAGE: This is a constant conversation. When we review our retirement schedule, it's easy to see that we are often retiring more clergy than we are receiving into our Ordained ranks. This has often been the case, and the future predicts that it will continue.

I do not fret the situation. I may be naive about it, but God has never left His world without a voice. As I study the Bible, every time there appears to be a shortage, a new remnant is discovered. God has always provided messengers, and I don't see that changing. Bi-vocational ministers, part-time clergy, local pastors, lay pastors – these will fill many of the gaps; and I predict that they will do it well. It may well be that the new day will provide more voices than we have ever had. I pray that it may be so.

THE DIACONAL MINISTRY

The Diaconal minister is a lay person that has felt God's call to serve the church – not in the ordained ranks, but through various skilled positions education, music, social services, administration etc. Their calling is recognized through Consecration into the Diaconal Order. The key word for this faithful group of persons is "Servant."

In this Annual Conference, we have an unusually fine group of this order. They are serving our local churches and other staff positions with skill and expertise which we cannot do without.

As yet, this group of able servants does not have the recognition they deserve to have from us. Our normal concept of ministry is embodied in the idea of the Pastor of a Local Church. The Diaconal minister is no less in ministry than any Ordained Clergy.

By action of the 1996 General Conference, there is a new Ordained Order of Deacons. The full impact of this upon the church is yet to be determined, but it opens new doors for a full servant ministry to the church.

AN INCLUSIVE CHURCH IN AN INCLUSIVE SOCIETY

The United Methodist Church is a church for all people. Even so, we often leave some of God's people on the sidelines . . . for someone else to pick up. This concern has nothing to do with church growth but with fulfilling the mission God has given to us. Far too often we have neglected poor people, uneducated people, down and out people, hurting people, and homeless people. There are notable exceptions to this, but enough truth remains to make it a part of our inclusive considerations.

The need is for some spiritual attitude adjustments. We must honestly want them. We can put "welcome" signs on the front lawn, print welcoming statements in the bulletin and proclaim it from the pulpit, but this is not enough.

It is not difficult for one to know whether he or she is wanted in a church. The ambiance of the church, the warmth of the congregation and the styles of worship are all reflections of the desired make-up of the congregation. The church has no right to be selective in the people it includes in its fellowship. We must pull wide the windows and doors of our churches and bid all of God's children to come.

Accepting all persons requires an understanding of the difference between a church and a club. There is nothing wrong with clubs, but we are not a club. We are a church and the church is God's chosen instrument for fulfilling the dream for the world. The only requirement for participation is a desire to be included, and the only requirement for membership is a profession of one's faith in Jesus Christ.

To be an inclusive church, our Sunday Schools and our Worship services must be planned in such a way that people will not automatically be excluded. I love the rituals and liturgies of our church. I love the great music that has come down to us through the centuries. I love and appreciate order in the sacraments. But I have not always been where I am now – and neither have some of you. To often we assume that everyone is where we are in our spiritual journey, but everyone has to start the journey somewhere.

Please do not misunderstand me. I am in no way pleading for sloppy worship. We have enough of that without my calling for it. There are some things being passed off as worship today that is hard for me to take, but we must not create barriers to Jesus Christ by our unwillingness to allow those persons who are newly exploring the Christian faith to participate in our services. John Wesley had to come to the place where some of his preconceived notions about "church" were changed. He had a deeper love and concern for people than he did for his own patterns of worship. Jesus Christ always put the needs of people above the traditions of his day. If we are going to be an inclusive church, we must put people first.

As an inclusive church, I want to now call our attention to the role of the clergy – namely women, Afro-American, and older pastors.

WOMEN:

Friends, there was a time when women were not a vital part of the employed work force in the world. That day is past. Women today are engaged in every possible area of employment; and through it, we have discovered a new reservoir of talents and skills. We have long been accustomed to women teaching our children in the Sunday school. We are now seeing more and more of them in the business arenas of life. The social service areas are filled with them. The women of the world are no longer on trial. They are fully human, fully of God, and fully capable of any work.

Most of us grew up when the persons in the pulpits of our churches were men. That is still the predominate situation. But that is changing. Women have been and are sensitive to the leading of God just as are men . . . and God is using them in marvelous ways. Now, God calls our daughters and sisters and mothers into the ministry, who in the world are we to question their right to preach and lead.

Such questions are no less than many of the Old Testament people rejecting the instruments of God because the prophets didn't fit the mold they expected. God uses all sorts of people to fulfill the dream for the world. If God used Mary to bring Jesus physically into the world, how can we not receive and acknowledge those women who want to bring the love of Christ into the world today.

The time is upon us to remove the cloak of prejudice from women who are engaged in ministry. They are not to be given preferential treatment. They are simply to be treated like anybody else. The distinctions between male and female were washed away long ago . . . and it is now time for us to get on with the business of accepting people on their own merits. There are many factors that are taken into consideration when appointments are made, but I hope that one's gender will not be a deterrent to anybody's appointment.

AFRO-AMERICANS:

When we speak about an inclusive church, we cannot but be aware of our Afro-American pastors. Along with other ethnic minority groups, they have not always been included. For more than 25 years we have officially been an inclusive church. Unofficially we are still short of our goal.

Churches with predominant black members have traditionally served by black pastors. Churches with predominant white members have traditionally been served by white pastors. In our South Carolina Annual Conference, there have been significant cross-racial appointments. This should continue. My concern is not necessarily that we see how many of these we can have, but rather our coming to the place where we can put qualified persons in any church or in any position without regard to race. God's call and use of persons in the church is not limited to color, and there should be no limiting factors for anyone to go anywhere at anytime.

OLDER CLERGY:

Some say I have an ax to grind. The inclusive nature of the church also involves the older clergy. It is a standard story that churches want 30 year old pastors with 20 years experience. What is really being communicated by these remarks is that churches are wanting and needing pastors who are still excited about the dream of God and willing to give their all to make something happen.

It is true that some of our pastors have quit before they retired. This characteristic is not just confined to older pastors, but others much younger. Age doesn't have anything to do with desire, effectiveness or love for the church. Some of the most effective leaders in the church today are older clergy. It is not age that should be questioned, but the willingness to work and to keep God's dream uppermost in their hearts.

I hope and pray for the day when all our work in the church will be totally inclusive. All persons should have the opportunity to fulfill their calling regardless of gender, color or age. Until that time comes, we must intentionally work to strengthen those parts of the church that are still hurting and that still have not reached its potential.

A STRATEGY FOR MINISTRY

A Conference strategy for ministry must encompass everything God is expecting of us. This section could and should involve many considerations, but I want to mention only 3 areas where I hope we will give special attention.

THE LOCAL CHURCH:

The local church congregation is the base for everything we do as a church. It is not the whole church but is basic to all we do. The church exists and the ministries of the church are carried out on our college campuses, in hospitals, in counselling centers, in retirement homes, nursing homes, the armed forces, and hundreds of other places; but behind it is a band of Christian disciples that make up local churches. In some way, all of us are related to such a group. It is there we baptize our babies, confirm our youth, marry those in love, and bury our dead. It is the spring from which all of us drink.

The local church, however, is not the end of our ministry. It is the beginning place. It is the equipping station. It is there that we learn our task. It is there we catch a vision of our mission. It is there we gather for study and worship. It is there we join hands with others in doing work we can not do alone. The local church is not the end of the spiritual pilgrimage. It is the launching pad. It is the base for what we do.

The Annual Conference and General church are the organizational units to coordinate ministries and provide assistance to the local churches. They are necessary to everything we seek to do. We cannot do without them. Ministries, however, wherever they take place, have their roots in local churches. It is the local church that should occupy our greatest attention. If ministry doesn't take place in the local churches, it doesn't happen.

THE SMALL MEMBERSHIP CHURCH:

We are a conference of many small membership churches. In this South Carolina Conference, we have 280 circuits made up of 658 churches. This represents 62% of all our churches and accounts for 30% of the Conference membership. These circuits are served by 290 of our pastors. A few of these churches are near to the point of closing. Some probably should be re-located, and in some other cases, mergers should be at least considered.

It is imperative that we intentionally work with many of our small membership churches to help them discover their best future. The key words in this sentence is work with them. If we do not have a strategy for the strengthening of these churches, we should at least understand the facts about them.

In our Conference, we have 9 areas involving a 5 mile radius for each of them served by 49 United Methodist churches. The population within all the whole area is 19,065. This means that each of our churches has a population base of 389 persons. One of the 5 mile population only has 219 persons. In another area involving 750 square miles, we have 60 United Methodist churches. In yet another area with fewer than 10,000 persons, we have 27 churches. With these areas being served by at least 5 or 6 other denominations, it is not difficult to see some of the problems we are facing. These churches demand our understanding and they deserve our support.

It is a fact that the large membership church today is experiencing the greatest growth anywhere in the church, but that does not detract from the fact that much of our strength is to be found out in the small communities, and they are important to this Conference. We must do everything we can not only to save those churches, but to strengthen them for ministry. These small membership churches are a part of our total ministry and deserving of our careful attention.

NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT:

The South Carolina Conference took a bold step forward when it established the Conference Committee on Congregational Development. The vision of this committee is to be fulfilled by establishing new congregations, reviewing all congregations with regard to their growth and missional potential, resourcing all congregation and encouraging innovative forms of mission. Through the apportionments to local churches, funds are and will be available for land acquisitions for new or relocated congregations, the development of new congregations, and for enabling existing congregations to respond to growth opportunities.

Through the help of the Percept organization, several areas have been identified as viable sites for new congregations. Other requests have been received for possible new Korean and Afro-American congregations. There are other known congregations where help is needed to assist them in responding to growth opportunities. With the funds we have received, it is time we get on with our work.

The greatest growth in the church happens in new congregations. The facts are clear. It is true all over the church. Most newly established congregations have a vitality that produces growth. The establishing of some new congregations is essential for the future of this Conference.

I personally have a burning desire that we intentionally work toward some new Mission Cottages and store-front type churches. Establishing new churches in growing suburban areas is a must. The growing coast area of South Carolina demands our planting new churches there. But all the people in our Conference do not live in the suburbs or on the coast. Many of them are innercity dwellers and housing project residents. Many of them are poor and marginalized and living on the edge, and I am not willing for the United Methodist church to write them off for somebody else to claim.

The establishing of such church are not expensive, but will require a different approach from what we usually adopt. These churches will demand pastoral leadership that is equipped and willing for such mission ministries. The buildings and equipment will be different from the usual church facilities, but should not be a deterrent to active ministry. There are houses and vacant store buildings that could be immediately used for such church groups. We don't have to buy land. We don't have to build buildings. We just have to do it.

In our Conference, are there not some local churches that could embark on such ministry projects – even without Conference participation. In three of my four pastoral appointments, we founded and fully supported 4 such churches. One of them did not survive. A new Interstate highway took our meeting place. The other three today are living churches. One of them, with the government making the land available, is right in the middle of a large housing project. In some of our local churches, there are persons willing and able to be a part of such adventures. Let's give them a chance.

The growing suburbs, the coast, and other areas not as attractive deserve our attention. We can do it, and I believe God expects it.

Whatever strategies we may adopt, in the areas I have highlighted and in other areas, we must be mindful of four things:

- 1) God is breaking in upon our world in some powerful new ways. It is our task to plan our ministries (whatever directions they may take) on what God is doing today.

For those with spiritually tuned spirits, there should be no doubt that something is happening today that is different from anything we have experienced in our life time. Like the ocean tide, God's hope for a new world is beating upon our shores with an almost hurricane-like force. Any new strategy we propose must recognize this and embrace it.

A colleague of mine told about a school that taught surfing. In this school, they had classes on how to surf, how to catch a wave, how to recognize a surfable wave, how to get off a wave without being killed. And of course, one class was on the right equipment to use. But nowhere in this school did they or could they teach anyone about how to create a wave.

Too many strategies for ministry today focus on trying to find a way to create a spiritual awakening – to create a wave, now friends, it can't be done. It doesn't have to be done. The new awakening is God's doing. Our task is to accept what is happening, celebrate it and learn how to respond to it.

Our first task for ministry today is being aware of and accepting what God is doing.

- 2) We must be open and flexible to new methods of ministry. The new working of God will require new wineskins.

Too often we confuse the message and method. The message must never change, but the methods we use will change in every age. The ways of making God's message clear were different with every one of the Old Testament messengers, and they were different with the disciples and Paul. They have been different with the messengers from the early church until now. John Wesley was a model for us in that he discovered that the traditional ways of doing ministry were not going to work. It was the genius of the frontier circuit riders that they did not go across this new land with the methods of the past. They responded to God's call within the culture they were given. This is what must happen today. We are not living in the 20's or 50's or even the 80's. Some new wineskins are needed. The message must not change, but it can be packaged in many different containers . . . and it will quench the thirst of a hurting people in this day.

Strategies for ministry today must recognize the culture of our day and be flexible enough to communicate the message with clarity.

- 3) Ministry today must focus on health rather than growth. Church growth is on everyone's mind. It has occupied our thoughts for the past 20 years. With the declines in membership in main-line churches, it is right for us to be concerned about it. We are concerned and must be.

The strategy for the future, however, must be on the health of the church. If the body is healthy, it will grow. Growth is always the result of health. As parents, we do not have to tell our children to grow. It's automatic. If they are healthy, they will grow. Since the church is a living organism, it will grow . . . if it is healthy.

On the entrance of the Shedd museum in Chicago are the words, "The evidence of life is growth." If a church is alive, it will grow. But yet the questions are always, "How can I get my church to grow?" The question should be, "What is keeping the church from being a healthy church?" When and if we can remove the barriers to health, it will grow.

Growth is always the result of something else. It is a by-product of the right things happening. Michael Slaughter is fond of saying that "Growth is like breathing. It is the natural result of a healthy body. Your physical body doesn't need anyone to ask, 'How are we going to breathe today?'" With health, it will come naturally.

The medical community today is focusing more on wellness than disease. Some hospitals are even referring to themselves as wellness centers. The church must become alert to this. If the church is healthy, we won't have to worry about either attendance or growth. It will come.

We don't have a right to develop God's ministry. We have to stop playing church.

- 4) All plans for ministry must include God. It is amazing how we plan strategies for ministry as if we had to do all it alone. God is crying, "What about me!" Ministry that we can do by ourselves is not of God.

I sometimes want to cry about the way we plan for ministry. Often, through financial campaigns or other means, we plan on the basis of what we can do. Where does faith come into all this?

CONCLUSION

Tomorrow's church will be different. Let me explain some of what it will be.

- 1) It will be a renewed movement. This is what it was in the beginning. Since that beginning, the movement wave has hit the church on two different occasions and now we are feeling the beginning of the fourth wave. The church of tomorrow will be less of an institution and more of a living organism.

The question often is asked, "But can it be controlled?" Movements are always scary. There are always risks and dangers. The answer is yes and no. It cannot be controlled by us. I personally don't want to control it. The church is of God. It doesn't belong to us. We are the Lord's vessels — yes, sometimes broken ones, but we are the vessels for transporting and communicating the gospel of Jesus Christ. Jesus said he would be with us, and that's enough. My hope is that we will embrace the new movement and give it everything we have.

- 2) It will be lay centered. There is no question about it. Ministry must be in the hands of all baptized Christians. At every stage of the church's life where it has exerted a powerful influence upon the world, it has been when lay persons accepted their role in ministry.
- 3) It will be Bible centered. Some may want to say Christ centered or spirit centered. That's all right. My view, however, is that we find this Christ and embrace the spirit as we are led into the word of God. It is in this rediscovery of the Bible that is helping this new God-wave to be recognized today. More and more are finding their way into God's message. It is a transforming experience.
- 4) It will be outreach oriented. The primary task of the church has four ingredients. Recruitment, nurturing the new converts with Christian love and support, equipping them for ministry and sending them out in ministry. This will ever be the task of the church. There is no one element of the task that can be neglected. Each task builds on the other.

This new thrust of the church will require some new thinking about the work of the church. For a few, it will be a radical departure from older ways. But it must be done. Both clergy and lay must wrap themselves around the call that God is giving us. It will be different for many, but it is right and it is good.

In the beginning I spoke about the prophet Isaiah. He said to the people. Don't stay as you are. There is a new day coming. Pull up your old stakes and plant them in a new place. Lengthen the ropes that you may claim some new territory. Enlarge your places. What has been will not suffice for this new day. His admonitions were a ringing call from God to live in a new day.

An old Chinese proverb says, "The flowers of tomorrow are in the seeds of today."

The seeds for a great flowering tomorrow are in this Conference. They are here friends. Let's claim some new ministries. Let's stretch our minds. Let's see the needs of our people. Let's hear the cries of the world. Let's open our ears to God's leading. Let's walk where we have never walked before. Let's spear the message that Jesus is Lord that no one can possibly not hear it. Let's become a new people. Let's be a new church.

Finally, this is what God expects of us. Now friends, we can do it. And because we can, we must. We must. We really must!

A reception for Bishop and Mrs. Robert H. Spain was held in the Veranda Room of the Richardson Center immediately following the evening session.

The Report of The Commission on Christian Unity & Interreligious Concerns, pages 139-140 of the Pre-Conference materials, was approved. The persons who had asked that it be removed from the consent calendar were not present.

At 9:37AM, The Rev. Richard Rogers-Berry gave the Clergy Report, a combined report of representative clergy from the districts of the Annual Conference.

Clergy Report to the South Carolina Annual Conference The United Methodist Church May 27, 1996

We bring this report today with a deep sense of thanksgiving for our call to ministry as well as the opportunity to live out that call in the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. At the same time, we are troubled. We are very much aware of the changing times in which we live, the dynamic upheaval in the sacred and secular environs that we simultaneously inhabit and the resulting stress.

Committed clergy and laity are yoked together in ministry throughout the Annual Conference. We are seeking to faithfully witness to the power of God's grace at work in our lives. These deep relationships produce ministry. A ministry that takes seriously the stories of our faith reminds us that we are called to mission and service in the present age while at the same time we share in the ancient promises to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. We earnestly desire to be a beacon of blessing to the world.

There are good things happening. We are fostering programs to feed the hungry, help the poor. Kindergarten and day-care centers (for young as well as seniors) are being "grown" in our communities. Church volunteers are giving many hours visiting and aiding the sick and homebound. Group gathering for Bible study (like the Disciples Series) is reportedly on the rise in many Districts. And people are still becoming United Methodists in South Carolina.

Congregations are looking into their own back yards and asking, "How can we be the Body of Christ in this place?" Subsequently, communities of faith are realizing that ministry is not done by 'professionals' but rather by all who acknowledge their call and their gifts which enable them to do the work of the church. More laity are volunteering time in and beyond the local church to share Christ's love with others. Dedicated clergy are reminding congregations through word, order and sacrament that the gospel is a force for unity rather than division.

At the same time there is a deepening realization in churches throughout this annual conference of the hurts and pain within us and around us, and the fragmentation of our society. We are troubled that this reality is increasingly being mirrored in our families and communities.

As your pastoral leaders we would be less than honest and would strain our credibility with our sisters and brothers if we did not confess that we are all too silent witnesses to - and in increasing numbers, unwilling participants in - the destructive realities of burnout and frustration, ambition and incompetence. At times it seems that the world is too much with us. Some congregations as well as their pastoral leadership are more concerned with the bottom line - money rather than human needs. When all we can talk about when we get together are apportionments and appointments, then something is wrong!

Perhaps some of us are frustrated because we are influenced by and attuned to the mood of the nation rather than the voice and will of God. Are we in danger of losing our souls in vain attempts to succeed in terms of the American culture's expectations? Downsizing the organizational structures of the church will not mask the fact that we are in a spiritual crisis. We die on the inside when we buy into the world's agenda.

We become isolated and alienated by continually trying to bear our own burdens in silence

-pretending or wishing they did not exist. In an atmosphere where trust and loyalty do not abound, we are reluctant to be part of efforts to build positive and therapeutic relationships without which we do our jobs less effectively. In a recent article in the Circuit Rider (a U.M. Magazine for clergy) entitled, "Becoming a Pastor," the following important questions were asked:

- Am I clear and am I comfortable about the rolls that I fulfill?
- How have I allowed my theology to grow - to fit my life as it is now?
- Am I using my pastoral relationships to meet my own needs rather than the needs of my people? *

These are hard but pertinent questions. They need to be lifted up in clergy gatherings and perhaps reflected on by each of us in our most private hearts. We are calling the clergy into community with one another as well as a spiritual communion with God; so that we can establish trust, and discipline ourselves to seek out communion and fellowship with each other.

We are a people of hope. It is a word of hope: that often we grow the most in times of tension, controversy, and crisis. We must not fear paradox; being aware of the irony that the church has often been at its most authentic in unsettling times of change and even persecution. Perhaps we can not survive prosperity but the church has always prospered in the face of adversity.

We want to be forward moving, envisioning new ministries, fearlessly scanning far horizons while we continue to strive faithfully to serve the present age. We want to become more articulate about our own hope and expectations for the future. We are struggling to create pathways toward and visions of our future. We affirm the General Conferences' emphasis on the issues surrounding Ordination and are excited about the possibilities they hold.

We of the clergy fervently yearn to give the church the best that we have. To do so we must develop a stronger sense of partnership with the laity. It is evident and clear that we share the work of ministry and mission. There must be new and intentional emphasis on times of reflection and renewal among the parsonage families of this annual conference. We need the help of the laity. We have found that we will not take the necessary time apart as individuals, as marriage partners, as families, if not pushed. We want to have a fresh and a vibrant word to offer, and by following the example of Christ, who spent time alone with God, we will have the best resource available for ministry. We believe that both spiritual renewal and continuing education (both, not 'either or') will best equip us for the demanding work of ministry. We need your help in seeing that we have adequate time and the requisite encouragement to do both.

The Rev. David Caughman presented the Commission on Communications report, page 75 of the Pre-Conference materials. Ms. Cheryl Edwards, the administrator was introduced and greeted the session. Ms. Edwards thanked the Conference for its hospitality, welcomed the challenge of the new communications task and introduced the Commissions video presentation. The printed report of the Commission was adopted as distributed in the Pre-Conference materials.

Timothy McClendon was recognized for consideration of Standing Rule 63, page 221 of the Pre-conference materials, that had been tabled on Monday. David Caughman and members of the Commission specifically opposed item c. (1) and (2), d. (1) and (2) On the motion of Lemuel Carter, items e. and f. of proposed Standing Rule 63 were added. The following was removed from Standing Rule 63 on the resulting vote:

- "c. The Commission shall be responsible for the publication of the Pre-Conference report(s) in preparation for the 1997 Annual Conference and thereafter.
 1. The Commission shall inform the boards, councils, commissions and committees when reports shall be due in order to maintain the schedule for the Pre-Conference Journal.
 2. No report for any board, council, commission or committee shall be considered by the Annual Conference that has not been distributed at least four weeks prior to the Conference session. Excluded from this requirement are the reports of the Board of Ordained Ministry, the Committee on nominations, the Board of Diaconal Ministry and the Statistical Reports.

- d. Beginning in 1997, the Commission shall publish the South Carolina Conference Journal in one (1) volume and shall have the journal ready for distribution at least by October 1 following the close of Annual Conference. The Journal shall include the informational reports included in the Pre-Conference report(s), the deliberations of the Annual Conference and the Statistical Report.
 1. The Chairperson of the Commission the Secretary of the Commission, and the Secretary of the Annual Conference shall edit the Conference Journal.
 2. The Commission shall let the contract for printing of the Conference Journal, and shall provide for the printing at least one year in advance.
- e. The Commission shall be responsible for the publication of the volume entitled United Methodist Ministers in South Carolina, which shall be printed every ten (10) years, and which shall feature biographical sketches and pictures of all the ministers of the South Carolina Annual Conference.
- f. The Commission shall be responsible for required audio recording of Annual Conference sessions and video recordings deemed necessary."

In response to the question of Ted H. Walter, Timothy McClendon asked that Standing Rule 65 be removed from the table. This was done.

Harry Kent asked to adopt the portions of Standing Rule 63 that remain. This was done on the motion of Timothy McClendon.

Timothy McClendon amended Standing Rule 65 by adding the following: as 65.c. (3) "One copy shall be sent to each charge and to those mandated by the Discipline. Other copies may be ordered by reservation at a cost of $15.00 each at the previous Annual Conference."

In the response to questions it was ascertained that the free copy would not be sent to the first lay member but to the charge.

Dr. Carolyn Briscoe observed, 'I have been a lay member and I have appreciated having a copy of the Journal. available to all in the office of the minister. Having a copy in the church office would make it more accessible

In response to Hazel Bennett's question, it was determined that retired members of the Annual Conference would have to purchase a journal.

The Rev. Wyatt Minton made a motion to amend: "That the conference Journal be sent to every member of the SC annual conference." The motion was defeated.

The motion of Debra Quilling, among others, was "That retired clergy members receive a free copy of the Conference Journal." This was approved. Standing Rule 65, as amended, was approved.

Report Number One with a $353 Service Annuity Rate, and a apportionment request of $3,452,422, was approved. There will be no increase in the pension fund apportionment for 1997 because over $325,000 will be withdrawn from the accumulated reserves in the Deposit Account.

Bishop Spain noted that Mr. Chaplin would end his eight year tenure on the Board, the last four years as chairman. He thanked Mr. Chaplin and the Board of Pensions members for their service.

The Recognition of Retiring Ministers was held as an order of the day at 11:00 AM The sermon, "Imitators of God," based on Hebrews 4:4-9, was delivered by The Rev. A. Clark Jenkins.

IMITATORS OF GOD
The Rev. A. Clark Jenkins
Hebrews 4:4-9

And God rested on the seventh day from all His work: There remains therefore a rest for the people of God.

(Bishop Spain we want to first of all say a word of appreciation to you for coming out of retirement to fill a void left in our lives by the passing of Bishop Joseph Bethea. You answered the call and we thank God for you.)

Let us look at retirement not in a conventional manner, but as a time of transition for new opportunities for service in the church and community. I want to suggest that we look at retirement as a beginning, rather than an ending. A time to explore everything God has placed here for our enjoyment.

The writer of the Book of Hebrews states, "And God rested on the seventh day from all His work." This letter was addressed to a scholarly group of Christians in Rome. The term rest could have been used to convey several meanings: 1. The writer could be using rest to establish a realm of existence called the Peace of God which transcends all other forms of existence, (2) the writer could be using rest to point to the land of promise which the Hebrew children journeyed through the desert, (3) the writer could be using rest to describe what God did after six days of creation. However, there are certain caution signs that we must raise as we apply this ancient material to our usage for today.

The first usage of rest should be looked at in terms of what we do for others. The danger is to feel that we have arrived at some inner peace void of our concern and outreach to humankind. John Wesley reminds us that our response to God's grace is not only an upward reach to God, but also an outreach to help others.

The second usage of rest leaves us on the slippery slopes of false success. We become arrogant and puffed up with pride because we feel we have arrived.

We equate success with the world's standard, rather than God's standards. In the early church there was not a needy person among them because they shared all things in common.

The third usage of rest is not meant to convey that God stopped. God did not stop, God rested. When you travel along the highway and pull over to a rest stop, that is not your final destination. All of you deserve a rest, but never think that your best days are over and the days of great achievement are gone. God created and rested, but re-creation is going on all the time. We are called to the business of re-creation until we die.

We want to thank you for your years of service as you enter a new category of ministry. We appreciate your years of service to the United Methodist Church. In a variety of ways we stand on your shoulders. You have seen our world and church change over the years. In your own ministries you've had some ups and downs, but we pause today to thank you for years of witness and service. There is a well of knowledge among you that can be used to further advance the cause of Christ in a broken world. I saw it in my father's readiness to continue to serve after retiring after 40 years of service. He was still willing to preach and witness.

We now face a different day. Who could have imagined that the former Soviet Union would no longer exist? Who could have imagined that Nelson Mandela would be free and the president of a New South Africa? New theologies and ideologies are emerging from the church and community. We cannot run away angry and feel that our way is the only way. We must find a way to celebrate our diversity. We must find a common ground. A ground where the wolf and lamb can dwell together as Isaiah envisioned. A ground where our differences are viewed as strengths, rather than weaknesses. A ground where all of God's children can say to one another Shalom. Jesus told us when we welcome a stranger we welcome Him. As Paul said, "Who is in a position to condemn, since it is God who justifies. Our business is re-creation. We are transformers. Valleys shall be exalted, mountains and hills shall be made low, rough places made smooth in every community and village.

How do we imitate God, We imitate God by continual participation in God's activities of re-creation. Perhaps more important to God than creating is refining, reshaping, reclaiming and restoring every individual through grace. It is so amazing. Luke, the gospel writer, paints a picture about restoration in Chapter 15, ...Which of you having an hundred sheep, if he loses one of them, does not leave the 99 and go after that which is lost, until he finds it? ...Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she loses one piece, does not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seeks diligently till she finds it? I tell you God is not only concerned with creation, but also repair and maintenance and restoration. The father said this my son who was lost has come home, God is not through with us yet. God didn't stop. God rested. Jesus then sprung forth from the God-head as the clearest expression of God. Karl Barth said, "The self-disclosure of God in Christ is significantly regarded by Christian faith as the final word which God has spoken to humankind." God's final word is Jesus, relevant for ever season and every occasion. He's too powerful to be relegated to old wine-skins.

Jesus announced his ministry as good news. He would set free the captives, open eyes to the blind, healed the sick and feed the hungry. We are called to join in like Mother Theresa and take up where he left off. As Christians, we return on stage for God. We are called to go back to the theater, go back to the arena, go back to the sanctuary whenever called. We die convinced that the foolishness of faithful acts may be wiser than all the wisdom of the world. The work is not over. We are called to always have eyes of mercy and a heart of tender compassion. Wesley said, "If your heart is as my heart, then give me your hand.

Friends, I close by saying, the greatest call to ever come to an individual is the call to ministry. It is not about our egos, rather it is being willing to say, Lord, here am I, send me and if I can help somebody as I pass along, if I can cheer somebody with a word or song, if I can show somebody where their traveling wrong, then my living will not be in vain. Continue to stand up in all kinds of weather and say there is a word from the Lord. I know every day has not been Sunday for you nor your spouses, but when you give the best of your service, weary of life and . . .

HE UNDERSTANDS, HE'LL SAY "WELL DONE"

1. If when you give the best of your service, Telling the world that the Savior is come; Be not dismayed when men don't believe you; He understands; He'll say, "Well Done."
3. If when this life of labor is ended, And the reward of the race you have run; Oh! the sweet rest prepared for the faithful will be His blest and final "Well done."
4. But if you try and fail in your trying, Hand sore and scarred from the work you've begun: Take up your cross, run quickly to meet Him; He'll understand, He'll say, "Well done"

REFRAIN:

Oh, when I come to the end of my journey,
Weary of life and the battle is won;
Carrying the staff and crown of redemption,
He'll understand, and say "Well done."

On a personal note, Bishop Spain said: "In spite of the last night's address there are still some things not said. The Church's new wave is already breaking. The next 15-20 years are crucial. You are in another phase of your ministry. Don't wait for a new wave. Ride this one as far as it will go." He also said to the members of the session: "Tonight we will have service of ordination and consecration. This is a very high moment in this conference. I hope you will be here on time tonight."

Dr. Carolyn Briscoe, Chairperson of the Conference Council on Ministries was recognized for her eighth and final report. "It is a joy to have worked with so many people who have done so much. Bishop Spain, I appreciate the spirit with which you have worked with us. Charles Johnson brings an abundant amount of energy to his task as director. During this quadrennium we have dealt with the theme Vital Congregations / Faithful Disciples. We formed a task force on moving into the future chaired by Robert McKeown. Only part of our work is referenced in the materials before us. For 1997 the Council on Ministries presents a coordinated program of 48 programs, 30 events, four publications, six grants, four awards, support of 20 Advance Specials, support for six line items, and an operating budget."

Dr. Briscoe presented the Vision Statement 1997 - 2000, pages 101-102 of the Pre-Conference materials. This was approved after members studied the expression of the vision statement found on page 102 of the Pre-Conference materials.

On the motion of Carolyn Briscoe, the Annual Conference Special Days, outlined on page 102, were approved. The resources summarized on pages 102-103 were noted.

Ms. Gabriel Mallory, a student at Bennett College, spoke to the session regarding The Black College Fund.

Africa University Vice-President for Development James Salley, called attention to the Africa University buttons members were wearing. The annual conference has contributed 29 cents per member for building Africa University. And additional 29 cents per member for scholarships is our challenge in partnership with the university. The video "Graduates in Action," a report on first fruits of Africa University, was presented.

At 2:55 PM, The Rev. Jack Washington gave the following report on Shalom Zone Ministry in South Carolina.

Shalom Zone Annual Conference Report
The Rev. Jack C. Washington

One of the advantages of living in an older community is the history and quality of the residents who live there. Many community residents have lived in their permanent neighborhood for 20, 30, and even 50 years. They stayed through the good and bad times. These residents are the ones who add quality and richness to life that newer development can't provide. Their love and caring for each other and the area in which they live puts true meaning in the word "Neighborhood".

Deterioration of older neighborhoods bring crime and a sense of helplessness that cause people to abandon the very values that they cherish. Residents who learn how to work together to improve the conditions of their neighborhood find that those trends can be reversed. By organizing communities of Shalom, residents can share information and elicit the interest and action from churches, schools, local political representatives and city officials.

The communities of Shalom initiative seeks to empower congregations, community leaders, and residents to achieve the Shalom that the Bible incisions, a state of completeness and wholeness in which people experience health, prosperity, oneness, security and spiritual renewal.

What is consistent among Shalom communities in South Carolina and around the world, is that they use a mission evangelism strategy to work toward the same four goals.

1. Restoration - to help people restore their livelihoods, neighborhoods, and spiritual vitality.
2. Listening stations - to provide opportunities for people of diverse racial and ethnic, language, and economic communities to listen to one another.
3. Saving stations - that establish places where people receive emergency assistance, tutoring, help in finding jobs, substance abuse counseling, and spiritual nurture.
4. Economic development - to invest in small businesses and training programs that give inner city, urban and rural people alternative to unemployment and social alienation.

The Shalom Zone experience teaches us that mission and ministry must be sensitive to cultural diversity. At the same time, Shalom Zone provides a model for how the United Methodist Church can coordinate mission resources to address critical realities, economics neglect, poverty, substance abuse, violence and despair.

It is my hope that we, the United Methodists of South Carolina will live out the true meaning of those historic words penned by the 1992 General Conference when they wrote, we, in solidarity and consultation with indigenous people and local churches in selected neighborhoods, commit ourselves to the creation of Shalom Zones.

If we are true to our commitment, we all will benefit from the improvement of our neighborhood. As churches and communities work together to rebuild and renew community life styles.

At 3:50 P.M., Mr. Richard Wilhite gave report of the Task Force on Ministry With the Poor. This was established in 1995 to give immediate and long range help to the poor. We are talking about ministry with the poor. We have embraced the following goals: (1) To support groups serving the poor; (2) Promote quadrennial emphasis on poor; (3) Disseminate information; (4) Develop recommendations to this conference. The report concluded with a short video presentation.

Gene Austin Norris, Harris Hartwell Parker, Jr., Jerry Max Price, Buford Hayes Robertson, Robert Hance Robinson, Lindsey Eugene Rivers, Thomas Glenn Rogers, Clarence Burton Sheffield, Davis Burris Spivey, George William Watson, John Hildon Watson, Robert Daniel Way.

The report concluded with a short video presentation.

Dr. Gordon C. Goodgame, Executive Director, spoke briefly on training activities and leadership initiatives at Lake Junaluska following his introduction by Bishop Spain. "As you align your ministries with the will of God, we are here to help you," Dr. Goodgame said. "We can not operate without your participation and support. Let us help you do it." The report of the SEJ Administrative Council, pages 151-153 was received.

The Bishops Awards in Scouting were presented by Mr. Will Burroughs, President of United Methodist Men, and United Methodist Men's Scouting coordinator, Paul Wiliford. After explaining the seven criteria for earning this award. Awards were presented to: Pinopolis UMC Troop 381; I. DeQincey Newman UMC, St. John UMC, Florence District Troop 103; Trinity UMC, Orangeburg for the 12th consecutive year; Kings Mountain Chapel Girl Scout Troop,

The Report of the Conference Youth Council, page 149 Pre-Conference materials, was given by Ms. Lanecia Rouse, Chairperson. Bishop Spain called attention to the Youth Annual Conference, special training events, and thanked the youth for their contribution to the Youth Service Fund.

Dr. Briscoe called attention to the CCOM Accountability Reports and gave special thanks to Charles Johnson, Jack Washington, Jim Arant, the support staff and the officers of the Boards and Commissions and Committees. The presentation was scheduled to end with a video, however, Charles Johnson presented a desk clock and pen set to Carolyn Briscoe. The members of the session stood and thanked Dr. Briscoe with their applause.

Special presentation: The Rev. Clyde Calhoun, on behalf of the Committee on the Episcopacy, presented an angel to Mrs. Hazel Colcock, the administrative assistance in the episcopal office. He thanked Mrs. Colcock for tremendous assistance. Ms. Colcock responded that the bishop thinks annual conference is heaven, but that she does not. She has, however, met a lot of angels at Annual Conference.

The Rev. Thomas Brittain announced that Bishop Edward L. Tullis had been in an automobile accident, but was doing well.

The session recessed at 4:12 PM and resumed at 4:34 PM.

The Rev. George M. Riser, Chairperson of the Commission on Group Insurance, called attention to the reports beginning on page 63 and following in the pre-Conference Reports. He announced that Mr. Stephen LaPierre of the Health Care Division of the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits was present to answer HealthFlex related questions. We entered the managed care program as of January 1, 1996, and as with other managed care situation, things are in flux and we are all still learning.

There are no changes in Reports Number One, Three, Four, Five, Six and Seven. The recommendation in Report Number Eight is $100,000 greater than the Insurance Fund Apportionment amount recommended by CF&A. He observed that in the past four year period we have cut the reserves of the Commission in half. The Commission on Insurance had found and implemented the most significant reductions in apportionments of any annual conference agency. This has not been the case in some other areas.

Bishop Spain asked dollar difference between the recommendation of the Commission and CF&A. George Riser responded that the difference is $100,000. Ted Walter asked how the costs were determined. Chairperson Riser responded that the Commission had used the figures provided by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits.

Bishop Spain determined that the reports of the Commission, except the budget figures that differ from the CF&A proposal could be adopted today. With those exceptions, the reports of the Commission on Group Insurance as a whole were adopted on the motion of George Riser.

The South Carolina Annual Conference HealthFlex Adoption Agreement, pages 68-73, was adopted on the motion of George Riser.

On behalf of the Commission on Group Insurance and at the request of the Board of Pensions, George Riser thanked Delos Corderman for twenty years of service as the administrator of the insurance and pension programs of the annual conference.

Dr. James Gadsden and Ms. Leila Carter, the Cokesbury Bookstore manager, brought greetings from the United Methodist Publishing House, reported on the New Interpreters Bible, Disciples Bible Study and thanked the session members for support. He presented the annual Publishing House Distribution to the Board of Pensions.

The Rev. Timothy McClendon moved adoption of the entire report of the Committee on Standing rules. The Rev. Anthony Gavalas reported on further corrections to the nominations previously made. The tellers were called to distribute corrected nominations. Rev. Gavalas reported on two additional lay nominations replacing clergy as chairpersons of the Committee on Deaconesses and the Board of Education. This leaves the balance of lay and clergy at nine lay and eleven clergy, six female and ten ethnic minority. The Secretary has prepared ballots, easy to cast and easy to count for the contested elections. They will be distributed when the vote is taken Wednesday morning. Rev. Gavalas spoke briefly on the nominating process which is begun in local churches and involves consultation with the district superintendents and finally is made by the Nominating Committee as a whole.

Dr. Carolyn Briscoe and The Rev. Sheila Rogers recognized Charles Johnson and Ted Walter, the episcopal nominees of the South Carolina Annual Conference. They were officially endorsed.

The session watched a short video on the 1996 General Conference. Bishop Spain dismissed the session at 5:35 PM after announcing that the Clergy Choir would begin singing at 7:00 O'Clock this evening, a half hour prior to the service.

The Third Day - Tuesday Evening May 28, 1996

The Order for Consecrations and Ordinations was observed at 7:30 PM, in the Benjamin Johnson Arena of the Campus Life Center, Wofford College, Spartanburg, SC. The Clergy and Diaconal Ministers' Choir. Mr. Carter Breeze was organist. The Covenant Winds provided additional music.

Six Diaconal Ministers were consecrated.

Twenty-five Deacons were ordained. Three persons elected to Probationary Membership had their Deacon's Orders recognized. One deacon was to be ordained at the Kentucky Conference in Lexington, Kentucky.

Fifteen Elders were ordained.

Bishop Robert H. Spain based the sermon: "Entrusted With The Gospel," on I Thessalonians 2:4: "Just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not to please mortals, but to please God who tests our hearts."

The Service of Ordination and Consecration

Bishop Robert H. Spain

ENTRUSTED WITH THE GOSPEL

I Thess. 2:4 "... we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the message of the gospel ..."

These words are almost more than we can stand. "Approved by God ... to be entrusted ... with the message of the gospel." The words of the hymn ask the question, "How can it be?" The answer is that this is the trust that God has placed in us. It sounds unbelievable, but it's true.

You who are the center of our thoughts and prayers tonight have been approved to have a trusteeship of the gospel – the good news of Jesus Christ. Through your call, this trust was given. Tonight, the church validates God's call of you for church-related ministries.

There is no way I can treat all the criteria needed for ministry in any one sermon, but I want to hold before you a few thoughts about your ministry as you begin this new phase of service to the Lord and to the church.

First, I want you to remember that ministry is not something you decided to do. You were chosen! Don't ever forget it. The fact that God chose you ... and me to be His ambassadors to the world is one of the unsolved mysteries of all times. It is beyond my comprehension as to how this came about. The God that put this whole world together, the God that worked for centuries to bring his people into a loving and right relationship with himself, the God that sent his own son into the world that his dream could be fulfilled - that same God put his hand upon us. I have never doubted it, but I have never understood it.

There is a world of difference between choosing the work of full time ministry and being chosen for it. This work is not something you have decided to do. The words of John remind us, "You did not choose me. I chose you." Your decision is a positive response to God's call. The initiative came from God. The response came from you. For some today, professionalism has become more important than calling. We must be professional in all we do but a calling is something more.

You did not choose the ministry. You were chosen. There is a world of difference.

Second, I want you to love the people that will be in your charge. Loving people is basic to any ministry. You may have all the skills in the world and be one of the great preachers or leaders; but if you do not love your people, your ministry to them will not be effective.

When a minister moves to a new congregation, the number one priority is to establish a love/trust relationship with the people. There may be a thousand things that confront you even as the moving van is being unloaded (and it usually happens this way) but establishing a caring relationship with the people is the first order of business.

Loving your people means responding to their needs, standing with them in times of stress, being with them in their times of sorrow, joy, success and failure. Being with them is more important than having the right words to say. Loving your people means accepting them where they are - not leaving them where they are, but accepting them where they are. Many of them are not where you are - or where you are supposed to be in your spiritual journey. If all of them are where you are in your faith pilgrimage, they would not need you.

I saw a movie on TV a while ago that dealt with a pool full of piranha fish being turned into the river and the havoc that came from it. The piranha is South American species of fish that attacks humans with a vengeance and rips them to pieces with their razor sharp teeth. Well . . . there are a few of those that are not in the rivers . . . and you will probably encounter one or two of them along the way. But all of God's people are worth loving - and even human piranha's can be transformed by God's grace if expressed by loving pastors and religious leaders.

Third, I want you to proclaim and live the gospel with unmistakable clarity. In Corinthians we read, "If the trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself for battle."

There are two parts to communication. First, you must have something to say. Second, it must be said with unusual ability. Phillips Brooks rightly said, "Preaching is truth given through personality." Research tells us we communicate just 7% of our feelings and attitudes with words. 38% comes from the tone of the voice and a whopping 55% comes through non-verbal signals. You have passed the test of what to preach. It is now your task to learn to convey what you have learned with clarity and power. Believe me! How to do this will be your life long quest.

It is not enough, however, just to proclaim the gospel from pulpits and classrooms. A huge proclamation comes from living the gospel, being a living expression of the faith.

The old story about the man who worked in the flour mill has often been told. Everywhere he went after work, he left his mark on others. The white flour on his clothes rubbed off on everyone he touched.

The church is looking for leaders who will "rub off" on others. You are to infect others with the gospel - not just tell them about it. You must be so contagious that people will catch what you have.

I like the story of Peter in the courtyard after the betrayal of Jesus. They were declaring that he was one of them and he was denying it. But they continued, "I know you are one of them - you talk like one of them." In the book of Acts, we read, "When they saw the boldness of Peter and John, - they recognized they had been with Jesus."

The church wants to see Jesus in you. Be contagious! Rub off on them! Infect them good, and preach the word with such clarity that no one can misunderstand.

Fourth, I want you to be excited about the future. There is enough doom and hopelessness being passed around to last throughout the next century. For the life of me, I will never understand how anyone called of God could be anything other than excited about what God is doing. The words of Jesus were and are exciting. "The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand." We have read these words so often that we have lost the importance of them. God's reign of the earth is coming, and we are to prepare our people for it. And it matters whether or not our people are ready.

God called you to be the herald of something new - to help usher in a new day. If this doesn't excite you, nothing will. The pastor or church leader that is not excited and motivated about the future of God's work in the world has no right to a pulpit or a place of leadership in the church. Today, God is giving a wake-up call to the church as we have never experienced it before in our lifetime. Something is happening. It's time to get excited about it.

Fifth, I want you to maintain a positive attitude. There is little outside the spiritual dimensions of your life more important than your attitude. The words of Paul are a solid reminder. "Be transformed by the renewing of your minds." Your attitude is the catalyst that unleashes all the other power units within you.

During your long years of preparation for ministry, you have been engaged in Biblical studies, church history, ethics, biblical and systematic theology, church polity and numerous other courses. These studies are important. You cannot be faithful to your task without them.

It is interesting, however, that the Carnegie Institute analyzed the records of ten thousand persons in leadership positions and concluded that fifteen percent of success is due to technical training and basic skills. The other 85% of success is due to personality, and the primary personality trait identified by the research is attitude.

Your attitude is a crucial ingredient for your ministry.

Sixth, I want you to honor the connectional church that is tonight validating your call to ministry and giving you a place to serve. As followers of John Wesley, we are a part of a Methodist movement that reaches around the world. Our branch of this Methodist tree numbers nearly 9 million members in more than 35,000 churches. - most of them in this country but rapidly growing in other parts of the world. Our ministry is a cooperative ministry with all of them. We are together in our outreach to the world.

Our connectional system offers many opportunities but also makes many demands upon us. Some of them at times seem overpowering. A United Methodist lay person from Africa summed up some of my feeling one day about our church when she said it is suffering from complexification. Like you, I grow a bit weary with some . . . and especially with some of the meetings. The Harold Beck, in speaking about our church, used to quote the little rhyme:

"Mary had a little lamb
Who wouldn't become a sheep.
She joined the United Methodist Church
And died for lack of sleep."

But... this is our church. We are not autonomous congregations. We are united in a common ministry that no one of us can do alone. Our source book is the Bible. Our administrative organization is found in the Book of Discipline. There are directives for all of us. If I could, I would change some of them. You probably would also. But in as democratic a way as possible, decisions are made. As ordained clergy and consecrated diaconals, we are to keep the rules of the church. You will be asked tonight about keeping those rules. You will no doubt answer in the affirmative. I will expect you to keep them. A ball team has to have everyone pulling in the same direction - and it is no different in a church. Connectionalism is a part of the genius of our church. I want to see it honored by all of us who are the recipients of its blessings.

These are but a few of the things I want you to do:

Remember, you were chosen for this.
Love your people
Proclaim and live the gospel with clarity and boldness.
Get excited! The dream of God is something to be excited about.
Work on your attitude. It must be kept positive.
Honor the church that provides a place for your ministry.

Matt Prince, in his book, Winning Through Caring, tells about one of the great events in American history – the Super Bowl. The quarterback is one of the classic heroes of this event. His team is behind ... 23 to 21. The ball is on the hero's own 25 yard line – 75 yards to go. The two minute warning sounds. The quarterback begins his history-making jog to the coaches on the sidelines. The crowd is tense. The cameras follow him.

Waiting in the huddle for the quarterback's return are ten of the best offensive players in the world. On the other side of the scrimmage line are eleven of the world's best defensive players.

The quarterback jogs back to the huddle. His team mates wait..... confident that he brings with him the precise set of plays that will move the ball 75 yards in less than 2 minutes and assure victory.

The camera focuses on the huddle. 75 million sets of eyes wait. With ten expectant faces surrounding him, the quarterback looks up and quickly says, "Men, I'm not sure that football is what I want to do."

You, you who are being ordained or consecrated here tonight, had better be sure that ministry is what you want to do. This is no game. What you are about is life and death. I pray God's richest blessings upon you.

Malcolm Muggeridge wrote, "It's virtually impossible to present an authentic message through an unauthentic medium." The Christian gospel is often rejected, not because its ideas are incorrect or unreasonable, but because those who profess the ideas fail to live them.

Harry Emerson Fosdick had this warning for preachers: "The best sermon ever written can be murdered by a preacher spiritually unqualified to present it." I suppose none of us are ever spiritually qualified to preach the gospel; nevertheless, we know that the sermons we preach cannot be divorced from the lives we live.

A copy of the resolution in appreciation of the late Chancellor of the Annual Conference will be presented to Mrs. Barnes. The resolution was found on page 72 of the Pre-Conference materials.

The Resolution On Church-Burning In South Carolina sponsored by the South Carolina Jurisdictional delegation was amended by the motions of The Rev. Gene A. Norris and Richard Allen and approved as follows:

The Resolution On Church-Burning In South Carolina

WHEREAS 23 Churches in South Carolina have burned since 1991, 13 of which are historically African American,

WHEREAS many more in other Southern states have also been burned,

WHEREAS African-American churches continue to experience threats of arson,

WHEREAS we the members of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church are saddened and outraged by the burning of African-American churches in South Carolina, along with threats of violence against other congregations, we therefore:

1. Offer our prayers, our human and material resources and our voices of loving Christian solidarity with our sisters and brothers in these congregations,
2. Renew our commitment to lead our state in eradicating the sin of racism, to repent of our silent complicity which has in any way contributed to the current climate of racial animosity, and to work for racial justice in our state,
3. Encourage all local, state and national law enforcement agencies to be diligent in the investigation of these crimes and the prosecution of those who are responsible for these acts of violence and intimidation against our churches.

5. That the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate print the names and addresses of the churches in South Carolina damaged or destroyed by arson since 1990.

The following Resolution of the Lowell Street United Methodist Church, delivered by pastor David Templeton, was referred to the Council on Finance and Administration. by the motion of the Committee.

Resolution of the Lowell Street United Methodist Church

WHEREAS, the small churches are struggling to maintain property presentable to incoming families; support of ministers with a decent salary; and Educational and Music Ministry to attract new families, and

WHEREAS, the small churches TRY to keep up, in spite of deteriorating property, to keep their churches from closing her doors, and

The following resolution was referred to the Board of Church & Society:

RESOLUTION ON LIBERIA

Whereas, the on going civil war in the West African country of Liberia has resulted in the loss of hundreds of thousands of lives, the displacement of families, and the destruction of the infra-structure of the country; and

Whereas, Bishop Arthur Kulah, Bishop of the Liberian Annual Conference, has had to flee Liberia for his safety and that of his family; and

Whereas, the United States has had historic ties to Liberia in that the United States government was instrumental in the establishment of Liberia as a refuge for freed Africans who were formerly enslaved in the United States; now

Therefore, be it resolved that the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church write to President William Jefferson Clinton requesting that the United States government support the sending of a United Nations peace-keeping force to restore order and to facilitate negotiations between the warring factions in Liberia.

The reports of the Commission on Equitable Compensation were given by Chairperson Richard F. Murphy.

Report Number One, page 57-58, was moved to record without reading.

Report Number Two, pages 58-62, with special attention to the note at the bottom of page 58 and the top of page 59. At this point, Mr. John Baxter, Sumter, SC, made the motion; "To change the Equitable Compensation Guidelines in 1997, to 85% of the Annual Conference Average Compensation." Citing the figures $36,515 for the 1996 Conference Average Compensation and the 1997 figure of $37,524, calculated by the Board of Pension and Health Benefits, Mr. Baxter urged adoption of the measure. In response to the query of Ted Walter, Mr. Baxter responded that the salary for full time local pastors and probationary members would be the same. The Rev. Edgar H. Ellis, Jr. moved that the Baxter amendment be referred to the Commission on Equitable Compensation. This was done.

Report Number Two, Section A was approved on the motion of Richard Murphy.

Mr. Murphy made an editorial change in the last line of Section H page 60, changing "...Guidelines under Section I to J." He also explained that Section L deals with utilities allowances. With these corrections, Report Number two was approved.

Report Number Three was ordered to record without reading, and this was approved.

The reports of the Commission on Equitable Compensation were approved as a whole on the motion of Richard Murphy. Bishop Spain noted: "I am delighted to use equitable compensation to foster any ministries that have possibilities. I am opposed to using them simply to let people stay. What you pay is higher than what most annual conferences pay. When some small membership churches pay pastor and building there is nothing left for ministry. I appreciate what you have done with equitable compensation."

The Rev. Delos Corderman called attention to the Report of the Committee on the Annual Conference found on page 76 of the pre-Conference Repors. He announced that the presiding bishop had set the available dates Sunday, May 25 - Wednesday, May 28, 1997. On his motion the session approved Wofford College, Spartanburg, SC as the site of the 1997 session. (In discussion it was acknowledged that it would be helpful to avoid the last week of public school if possible.)

The business session recessed at 11:00 and resumed at 11:20 AM. The tellers distributed information of United Methodist Volunteers in Mission.

The Rev. Harrison Ervin, presented the report of the Board of Church and Society, pages 118 - 121 of the Pre-conference materials.

Racism and Prison Ministry were emphasized in the report. The proposals in "Beyond Racism: The Local Church at Work," were adopted as printed.

The Proposed Program for Prison Ministry was adopted as printed.

The Rev. Calvin Harris, on a point of personal privilege, requested the distribution of information regarding Youth Serices Programs. Bishop Spain asked that the materials be distributed at the exits.

Dr. Carolyn Briscoe moved acoption of the report of the Board of Church and Society as a whole and thanked Harrison Ervin..

Bishop Spain called for the scheduled Report on General Conference. Dr. Briscoe asked that we accept yesterday's showing of the video on General Conference as the report. She also announced that members of the delegation were available to visit local churches and discuss General Conference.

The Rev. Angelin Simmons introduced Ms. Elaine Jenkins, and associate general secretary of the Geneal Commission on Religion and Race. The Rev. Samuel Johnson, Charleston District Superintendent, on a point of personal privilege asked that the Annual Conference acknowledge the work of Mr. Earnest Godwin and Mr. Luther M. Lee, the donor of the site for church. Although Mr. Godwin had been diagnosed with cancer, throughout his treatment he worked to build the Edisto Island Church. The thanks of the Conference will be sent to Mrs. Vida Godwin.

Mr. Harry Kent, President of the Council on Finance and Administration called attention to the report found on page 234

Bishop Spain observed that this is the point where we would make the decision on the Insurance Fund apportionment and consider other financial matters brought in reference.

The Rev. George Riser, Commission on Group Insurance Chairperson, observed that the difference in the request of the Commission and the recommendation of CF&A is $100,000. The only ways to deal with this are to increase participant premium or reduce benefits or to reduce the reserves. When we pass the recommended budget be aware that there may be a hefty increase in the Insurance Fund apportionment down the road.

Mr. Richard Wilhite moved to amend Report Number One by substituting the column requested for the column recommended. After Anderson Grant, William C. Reid, Rhett Jackson, John Smiley, Sinclair Lewis and others spoke to the motion.

In response to a question about increasing the Senior College Fund, John Smiley noted that the request should not be increased until payment of apportionments begins to match the request. In 1995 the apportionment remained level and the payments of apportionments increased.

Dr. Arthur Hartzog asks that the reduction of federal education funds be recognized. The apportionment funds go directly to South Carolina students for scholarships and that is important. Otherwise students may have to drop out. There are mutual benefits and responsibilities.

Wiley Cooper, William McNeil and others spoke in favor of increasing the Senior College fund and the Spartanburg Methodist College apportionment. As we look at the whole ministry in South Carolina, education has been one of our greatest missions. How can we ask others to support our colleges when we are about to vote out the very small amount that we give?

Mr. Kent was given the floor for the final word from CF&A. "...To increase apportionments without a corresponding effort to pay apportionments is irresponsible. Of those churches who have paid 100% over 100 have said if we do not reduce apportionments they can no longer continue to pay 100%."

Bishop Spain announced that the Wilhite motion would take a 2/3ds majority and put the question. The amendment failed.

At 12:30 PM, Dr. Peter Mitchell proposed: "4 % cut from the Conference Benelovences portion ($1,360,463) of line item 1, World Service and Conference Benelovences. Cut 4% from 1996 apportionments line items #8 District Administration, #9 Senior College Scholarships, #10 Spartanburg Methodist College, #11 Campus Ministry, #12 Methodist Homes Residents' Assistance, #13 Camps & Retreat Centers, #14 Congregational Development for the 1977 budget." After questions, and a response of Charles Johnson that we ought to consider personnel as well as schools. The Rev. Paul Wood called attention to the 17.2% reduction already made in line item 14, Congregational Development. The Mitchell motion failed.

In reference to Report Number One, Talmage Skinner and Paul Wood made statements. When the question was put, CF&A Report Number One with a 1997 recommended budget of $16,914,874 was approved.

CF&A Report Number Two was approved.

CF&A Report Number Three was approved following a separate affirmative vote on the district superintendents 1997 compensation of $59,582.

CF&A Report Number Four was approved with the deletion of item B.6: "That a budget recommendation from the floor during annual conference to increase an item in the budget for a new item must also contain a recommendation for a corresponding reduction in some other budgeted item."

In CF&A Report Number Six, Becky L. Buie was elected treasurer of the annual conference.

CF&A Report Number Seven was adopted.

The Rev. Debra Quilling: a member of the Council on Finance and Administration, moved "funding of pension and insurance benefits for the Rev Clarence Padgett who has been granted Sabbatical Leave." This was done.

Dr. George Fields asked if the Analysis of Giving 1982-1996 Report on page 39 of the Pre-conference material did not indicate that in any year since 1982 has the conference not voted for college support, and that the members of the Annual Conference increased support each year until 1996.

Mr. Charles Appleby: moved reconsideration of the Senior College Scholarships Fund. That was not done.

Dr. Lemuel Carter, point of personal privilege: "I believe in paying 100% but what this is not about is paying 100% of apportionments and I hope we never hear that word again. If we ask for less we will still not get 100%. We need to understand that all before us is a mission. It is about stewardship. It is about helping those who have less. It is about taking risk. It is about receiving and accepting a challenge. It is about expectation. I challenge lay leaders to go out and interpret and explain the missional arm of this church.

Mr. Harry Kent: "I second what Lem said and challenge every church in this conference to pay in the same amount that they have been apportioned in 1996. And to those who are not paying, if we will go back to our own churches and give a report that says we are the connection, we may not meet budget but we can be a part of the ministry of Jesus Christ in this conference."

The Secretary made the Omnibus Motion: "All reports distributed in the pre-conference materials and the registration packet not previously acted upon be moved to record." This was done.

On a point of personal privilege Delos Corderman thanked Talmage Skinner and the Wofford staff; James Lane, Alice Linder, Timothy Rogers, the assistant secretaries; Roger Gramling the parliamentarian, the tellers from the districts for especially hard work; Frank Buie, Don Hatton, Bill Cross and Steve Rast for audio and video recordings. Thanks to Nelson Stokes for coordinating the exhibits and to Walt Forrester in the information desk and the registration workers from the Spartanburg District. Thanks to Jeanette Mack, Pat Mack and Newell Howard in Print Media Services. Eddie Huss, Thom Jones, Debra Quilling, the ministers choir and others who provided our music. And thanks to Bishop and Mrs. Spain for all they have done.

On the motion of Dr. Carolyn Briscoe, the Conference Council on Ministries Reports as a whole were adopted.

Dr. Peter Mitchell moved to "Reinstate the committee to advise CFA on all line items except those mandated by General Conference." Mrs. Clelia Hendrix proposed the following substitute for the Mitchell motion: "That the Bishop and cabinet appoint a task force to work with the Council on Finance and Administration in bring a plan to the 1997 Annual Conference to recommend a creative system for raising apportionments and encouraging sacrificial giving to the mission and ministry of the United Methodist Church." After Harry Kent, Charles Johnson, Mickey Fisher and others spoke, the Hendrix substitute became the main motion and was approved.

At 1:12 PM Bishop Spain recessed the session for lunch. We were asked to reconvene at 2:30 PM.

The Fourth Day - Wednesday Afternoon May 29, 1996

Bishop Spain called the session to order at 2:38 PM and offered the invocation. "The Hymn of Promise" was sung. Bishop Spain acknowledged that his faith in South Carolina United Methodists had been increased. He thought half of the session would not return from the lunch break. The bishop recalled his first appointment and the anticipation at the fixing of pastoral assignments.

Becky Buie added Panola Church, Greenwood District, to the listing of churches paying 100% of apportionments.

The Rev. Ted H. Walter announced that an annual conference cannot change the date of a court hearing unless the decision is appealed.

Delos Corderman nominated James C. Lane, Alice Linder and Timothy Rogers as assistant secretaries of the Annual Conference.

Ms. Dolly Fogle, president of the United Methodist Women thanked Mary Alice Williams, John W. Culp, Delos Corderman, Roger Gramling and Timothy Rogers for assistance in disposing of some property near Wallace, SC.

While the District Superintendents assembled and the tellers distributed the listing of the appointments, Mr. B.J. Pasley, the retiring Conference lay leader, thanked Bishop Spain for his service to South Carolina and thanked the members of the session.

Bishop Spain said: "For those of you who have never served on the cabinet, I am not trying to convince you of anything. These people who stand here with me have struggled hard. Those of you who make appointments outside the cabinet don't have to make real decisions. Over and over I have heard District Superintendents say 'I never thought it would be like that.' We probably cry more and hurt more over appointments than anything else. I appreciate this cabinet family of mine. We live in a time when all leadership is questioned. In your local churches pastors you who are leaders are questioned. We are all in this together."

The Rev. George W. Watson, Sr. was thanked for his service and Clark Jenkins was welcomed to the Spartanburg District.

After some corrections were made in appointments, it was announced that Thomas

Campbell's appointment not complete pending action by the Board of Ministry.

The Rev. Samuel Johnson thanked Bishop and Mrs. Spain for coming to work with us when we were experiencing grief and some difficulties. Bishop Spain said: "There is no way that we can adequately respond to your expressions of appreciation. We came gladly and have enjoyed our stay. We would like to have you for eight years but I am past the age of getting an appointment. The seeds of everything that is needed you have. I sense a restlessness in our souls to hear God's wake-up call. We can not stay where we are. Be open to the winds of the Spirit. If you don't feel the winds of the Spirit your antennae are pointed in the wrong direction. I guess I won't ever preside over another annual conference in my life. I have become reasonably acquainted with you and I love you. I want to read somewhere along the line that you did."

At 3:07 PM Bishop Spain led the Covenant Service and at 3:15 the 1996 session of the South Carolina Annual Conference adjourned.

We probably cry more and hurt more over appointments than anything else. I appreciate this cabinet family of mine. We live in a time when all leadership is questioned. In your local churches pastors you who are leaders are questioned. We are all in this together."

The Rev. George W. Watson, Sr. was thanked for his service and Clark Jenkins was welcomed to the Spartanburg District.

After some corrections were made in appointments, it was announced that Thomas

Campbell's appointment not complete pending action by the Board of Ministry.

The Rev. Samuel Johnson thanked Bishop and Mrs. Spain for coming to work with us when we were experiencing grief and some difficulties. Bishop Spain said: "There is no way that we can adequately respond to your expressions of appreciation. We came gladly and have enjoyed our stay. We would like to have you for eight years but I am past the age of getting an appointment. The seeds of everything that is needed you have. I sense a restlessness in our souls to hear God's wake-up call. We can not stay where we are. Be open to the winds of the Spirit. If you don't feel the winds of the Spirit your antennae are pointed in the wrong direction. I guess I won't ever preside over another annual conference in my life. I have become reasonably acquainted with you and I love you. I want to read somewhere along the line that you did."

At 3:07 PM Bishop Spain led the Covenant Service and at 3:15 the 1996 session of the South Carolina Annual Conference adjourned.

- A. The compensation for the District Superintendents for the year 1997 will be $59,582, including $1,500 health insurance.
- B. The Council on Finance and Administration of the South Carolina Annual Conference, The United Methodist Church, hereby designates up to 15% ($8,937) of the district superintendent's salary for the year 1997 as allocated for parsonage utilities and maintenance, not including maid service and such expenses as paid by the district.
- C. The District Administration Fund will be handled as follows:
1. The item "Office Expense" in the District Administration Fund will be for the operation of the District Office to pay such items as secretary, postage, and supplies and will be set at $17,500 per district.
 2. Exception: Inasmuch as the Columbia District Office must be in The United Methodist Center, one-half of the rent of that office will be paid from the Conference Expense Fund.
 3. The funds for program in each district are based on the membership of the district, beginning with a base of $3,000 for the smallest membership district and adding $100 for each one thousand (1,000) members, or major fraction thereof, above 15,000. The schedule for 1997 will be as follows:

	Membership	Amount

 5. There will be no shifting of funds between travel, program, and office expense.
 6. Vouchers for continuing education must be approved by the District Committee on Continuing Education prior to payment. The unused portion of the Continuing Education allowance may be carried forward from year to year during a district superintendent's tenure, not to exceed a total amounting to three year's Continuing Education allocation. Not more than fifty percent of accumulated funds shall be used for travel expenses. The accumulation is cancelled in full when a district superintendent leaves the superintendency. It does not carry forward to the new district superintendent. However, by application to the CF&A in advance of leaving the superintendency the district superintendent may within a reasonable length of time use the unused portion of the Continuing Education allowance to take training which would assist in his/her return to the parish ministry or other appointment. For the year in which there is a move, one-half of the Continuing Education allowance will be available for each superintendent.
- D. Each District Board of Trustees shall elect a treasurer from the elected trustees of the district. The treasurer shall administer all funds for the District Parsonage Fund, writing all vouchers for parsonage payments, repairs, insurance and furnishings (not to include parsonage utility payments). Report No. 4

- A. We call attention to the "Special Days" designated by the Book of Discipline and recommend that they be observed with appropriate free-will offerings and that the following special observances be a part of the program of each local church.

Golden Cross Sunday	February 2, 1997
One Great Hour of Sharing	March 9, 1997
Native American Awareness Sunday	April 13, 1997
Peace With Justice Sunday	June 1, 1997

Mothers' Day	May 11, 1997
Work Day	September 14, 1997
Church school offering first Sunday each month
World Communion Sunday	October 5, 1997
Missions in South Carolina	November 2, 1997
United Methodist Student Day	November 30, 1997

- B. An offering may be taken to support the Bessie Parker Memorial Scholarship Fund as a part of the observance of Women in the Pulpit Sunday. March 16, 1997.
- C. We offer the following recommendations:
1. That all boards, commissions and committees receiving funds from the conference treasurer shall submit with each voucher adequate supporting data.
 2. That boards, agencies and conference institutions which are allowed to withdraw lump sums from the conference treasurer shall submit an annual audit, with management letter, by a certified public accountant to the Council on Finance and Administration, along with evidence of fidelity insurance coverage.
 3. That all boards, commissions and agencies of the conference pay a standard rate of 24 cents a mile when a representative travels on church business. In order to encourage car pooling, we recommend that if a car contains two persons traveling on church business, the mileage rate be increased to 29 cents; if a car contains three persons all traveling on church business, the rate be 32 cents; and if a car contains four or more persons all traveling on church business, the rate be 34 cents per mile. We recommend that other expenses for travel on church business be paid; also, that the maximum paid to a person for meals shall be $4.00 for breakfast, $6.00 for lunch and $10.00 for the evening meal, or no more than $20.00 per day.

4. That each church place in its budget an amount of at least $500 per year to be used by the pastor as a continuing education fund, and that if the full amount is not used in a given year, the unused portion may be carried forward from year to year during the tenure of a pastor, not to exceed a total amounting to three year's continuing education allowance. Not more than fifty percent of accumulated funds shall be used for travel expenses. The accumulation is cancelled in full when there is a change of pastor. It is also recommended that the health insurance premium be paid by the local church directly to the Office of Ministerial Affairs, even if it is done on a salary reduction basis, and that if this is done, the amount be included in the charge conference worksheet which itemizes compensation and benefits for 1997.
5. That the balance held for each board, commission, committee or agency on the books of the conference treasurer shall be carried forward from one year to the next and that this shall be taken into consideration in the subsequent budget request.
6. That conference boards and agencies may not spend in excess of funds received on budget for the given conference year. Any expenses beyond anticipated receipts (based on previous-year percentage of payment) will not be paid by the treasurer.
7. That "average net funds" as used in the calculation of 1997 apportionments shall mean for each church the four-year average of net funds in the years 1992, 1993, 1994 and 1995. When a church has declined for two years in "net funds," the term "average net funds" shall mean the average of the last two years only. Newly organized churches will be treated in the same manner as other churches of the conference. A four-year average of net funds will be used, but for the years prior to the organization of the new church, the net funds figure will be zero.
8. That "net funds" be defined as the total of figures reported on lines 64 through 72 (inclusive) of Table II.
9. That once the apportionments are calculated from Table II statistics for any given year, those apportionments cannot be altered. Needed corrections can be made on Table II reports for use in future year calculations.
10. That the funds received on the apportionment for Methodist Homes Residents' Assistance (item 14, Report No. 1) be divided 55% to Orangeburg Methodist Home, 30% to Greenwood Methodist Home, 15% to Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee; that the funds received on the apportionment for Senior College Scholarship Fund (item 11, Report No. 1) be divided in three equal parts, one third each going to Wofford College, Columbia College and Claflin College; that the funds received on the apportionment for Methodist Camps and Retreat Centers (item 15, Report No. 1) be divided 60% to Asbury Hills Methodist Camp and 40% to Sewee Coastal Retreat Center.
11. That the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration be authorized to grant amounts up to $7,500 from the Conference Contingency Fund to meet any individual emergency or unanticipated need.
12. That the salaries and fixed essential expenses of the Conference Council on Ministries (section C of the Conference Benevolences budget) be funded up to 100% of budget by using funds from the Contingency Fund; the remainder of that budget will be funded at the percentage paid on the line item.
13. That the salaries and benefits portion of the Campus Ministry budget be funded up to 100% of budget by using funds from the Contingency Fund; the remainder of that budget will be funded at the percentage paid on the line item.
14. That local churches of the conference incorporate, as recommended in The Discipline. A packet of materials prepared by the Conference Chancellor and the Cabinet is available from the district office to assist in this process. After incorporation, churches should take care to maintain with the Secretary of State, an accurate, up-to-date record of the name and address of their registered agent.

THE BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

No matter which term is used to identify diaconal ministry, we rely on biblical truths to guide us. Thus, we understand diaconal ministry and the role that diaconal ministers take to be the following:

Diaconal ministers are called to specialized ministries of service, justice and love within local congregations and in the wider world. Servant ministry must always involve a concern for justice as well as love for persons. Diaconal ministers focus their service through a variety of ministries, such as administration, education, evangelism, music, health ministries, and community development - to the local congregation and the wider community Christ's service to humankind and the church's responsibility for continuing that service in the world are both symbolized and enabled especially, but not exclusively, in diaconal ministry. Diaconal ministry exists to intensify and make more effective the self-understanding of the whole people of God as servants in Christ's name (Book of Discipline, Paragraph 109.).

Because we have been intentional in strengthening our relationship with our brothers and sisters from the board of ordained ministry, we will be able to dialogue any concerns or needs related to any changes in our respective ministries. We continue to hold a regular meeting with the Bishop, the Cabinet, and all the diaconal ministers so that mutual concerns, needs, and ideas can be shared. By gathering together we recognize and bless the tie that binds.

A Procedures Manual has been finalized that will establish continuity as membership changes on the board. We are close to finalizing a document that will present guidelines for employing local church lay employees which include but are not limited to diaconal ministers.

With expectation and anticipation we look forward to the challenges that a new quadrennium brings. We remain faithful to our task as advocates for ministries of love, service, and justice.

THE BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

- I. REVISION OF POLICY GUIDELINES

The Board of Ordained Ministry proposed the following changes in the South Carolina Conference Policy Guidelines Board of Ordained Ministry:

Proposed Policy Guideline Changes

Section III.B.2 (New)

Applicants for Associate Membership in the South Carolina Annual Conference must serve at least one year in a full-time appointment before being approved as an Associate Member.

(Renummer - present B.1 to become B.2, and the new recommendation to be B.1 in Policy Guidelines.)

Section VIII.D.9 (New)

426.2 transferees will be required to complete a course in Methodist Policy at a University Senate approved seminary prior to approval for service.

(Renumber: make present D.8, number 9; and this new recommendation number 8 in Policy Guidelines.)

Section VIII.G. Sabbatical Leave

Application for Sabbatical Leave (par.446) requires a Board interview unless waived by the Board after examination of the submitted written plan for study or travel. Sabbatical leave will be granted only for study or travel for the purpose of returning to ministry after the leave ends. The 1984 Annual Conference amended the Standing Rules by adding Miscellaneous Rule No. 95 which reads: "Persons applying for Sabbatical Leave who are requesting funding for pension and insurance benefits shall apply to the Board of Ordained Ministry for funding prior to February 1 preceding the Annual Conference session."

II. RESIDENCY II

Residency II is now in its sixth year as a Continuing Education option for clergy. With active groups in eleven districts, Residency II has 96 participants. It is hoped that in the 1996-97 Conference Year new options will be provided through the Residency II Program and that it will continue to respond to the varied needs of the clergy of The South Carolina Annual Conference.

III. CONTINUING EDUCATION ENDOWMENT FOR EFFECTIVE MINISTRY

A permanent endowment fund has been established to assist Clergy Members of the South Carolina Annual conference in pursuing extended programs of continuing education. Grants are provided by the Board of Ordained Ministry, using guidelines adopted by the Annual Conference.

The endowment is funded by voluntary contributions. Every active Clergy member in full Connection or Associate Member of the South Carolina United Methodist Annual Conference is asked to contribute 1% (one percent) of total compensation received the first calendar year following his or hers admission. Full members and Associate Members of the Conference admitted prior to 1991 are asked to contribute 1% (one percent) of total compensation for the year 1991. This contribution can be paid over a period of no longer than five years.

Full Members and Associate Members are eligible to apply for extended study leave funds through the Board of Ordained Ministry. Funds are received by the South Carolina United Methodist foundation.

IV. A WORD OF APPRECIATION

The work of District Committees on Ordained Ministry and the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry is often not seen, and as a result, often not understood or appreciated. Generally these bodies are primarily understood as adversaries for persons seeking to enter ordained ministry. This is truly unfortunate since the efforts of these bodies are so very significant for the life and future of the church. For example, our twelve District committees on Ordained Ministry carry the crucial responsibility of being the first committee beyond the local church with which a candidate meets. Their care and support of candidates are vital. Those across our conference who sit on these committees are to be commended for their efforts.

It is with a profound gratitude to the members of the Conference Board of Ordained ministry that close this report. The incredible commitment of time to the duties of the board, and the required physical and emotional energy expended by the members over the past year, often under extremely adverse circumstances, is greatly appreciated. I am especially mindful of the care and compassion the members have exhibited in the work of the board and the attention given to painful matters by the members in this process. As I come to the end of my association with this board, I do so with a renewed appreciation for all those who serve and those who previously have served this conference as members of this significant board. Thanks to all of you who have gone before us in this service to God and the United Methodist Church.

THE BOARD OF PENSIONS

Report Number One

- A. The Board of Pensions requests that the South Carolina Annual Conference fix $353.00 per service year as the rate for annuity payments to retired ministers, which shall include approved supply time prior to admission into full connection. In the case of Special Conference Claimants, the rate shall be 100% of the rate for full conference members. The Board requests that the service annuity rate for a surviving spouse be 75% of the minister's service annuity rate.

- B. The Board of Pensions requests that an appropriation be made that will give the Board of Pensions (The Pension Fund) $3,452,422.00 for the pension program of the South Carolina Annual Conference for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1997 and that this sum be apportioned to the charges of the South Carolina Annual Conference on the basis established in continuing resolutions.

C. RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed, and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service; and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the South Carolina Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference:

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the years 1996 and 1997 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the South Carolina Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability.
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rule. 71-280, 1971 C.B. 92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as a 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities."

D. Each institution, organization or district to which a minister is appointed shall pay to the South Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pensions an amount equal to sixteen and four-tenths percent (16.4%) of the Denominational Average Compensation as determined by the General Board of Pensions for the year 1996-1997. Such payments shall be made for each minister so appointed and paid monthly in equal payments each month during the year 1996-1997 or in advance for monthly crediting in twelve equal installments from deposits made in the Deposit Account of the South Carolina Annual Conference with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits by the treasurer of the South Carolina Annual Conference. In the event that monthly credits to the minister in special appointment's Church Account exceed the funds deposited for the minister in special appointment, and the Deposit Account is overdrawn, an interest charge made at the current monthly rate of interest credited to the STIRA investment program shall be made. This interest payment is due the following month with interest charges on a daily factor until the institutional account of the minister in special appointment is current.

II. The fiscal year of the Board of Pensions shall be the same as that of the South Carolina Annual Conference.

III. We recommend that the Annual Conference approve the distribution which the Board of Pensions has made to claimants during the year as set forth in detail in our Report No. Two, Payments to Annuitants and Beneficiaries during the year 1995.

THE COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

Report Number 1

Mission

The Commission on Equitable Compensation exists for the support of ordained ministers and local pastors, both full-time and students, in the charges of the South Carolina Annual Conference. (See The Discipline, Par. 722.2: "It is the purpose of the Commission on Equitable Compensation to support ordained ministry in the charges of the Annual Conference by (1) recommending conference standards for clergy support; (2) administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and (3) providing counsel and advisory material on clergy support to district superintendents and Committees on Pastor-Parish Relations.") The Commission on Equitable Compensation supports the overall ministry of the local church, especially in situations in transition. The Commission on Equitable Compensation is the usual means whereby the Annual Conference support a variety of local church missions through providing pastoral support which cannot be provided locally.

Implications

1. The Commission on Equitable Compensation supports parish ministers, both ordained pastors and local pastors. It is through this support of the clergy that the Conference also supports the overall mission of the church, through giving flexibility to the appointment of pastors. But our primary task is to encourage churches to provide a minimum base of compensation for ordained ministers and their families. Where local churches temporarily are unable to provide this support the Annual Conference enables pastors to maintain their focus on their tasks, not their own support, through the Equitable Compensation fund.
2. The Commission sees its function as supporting all Clergy in the SC Conference. Clergy include ordained ministers, but also include Local Pastors and Student Local Pastors. The Commission has in the past included such persons in its support, and intends to do so in the future. We affirm the calling and the ministry of such persons.
3. The Commission on Equitable Compensation is especially important in ministries in transition, where the local church or charge is temporarily unable to bear the full load of pastoral support. The Commission on Equitable Compensation seeks to foster the growing independence of churches and charges, and an interdependence between local congregations and the Annual Conference. Our ultimate goal is for each charge to sustain fully its own ministry at no less than a minimal, equitable level. Some of the many examples of ministries in transition might include: a situation where there is no church but one is being started; a community where a small church might reach a larger population under full-time ministry; a church in decline that needs support for full-time leadership while it explores options for its long-term future; a church in a changing neighborhood that is willing to risk a new "style" of ministry or different ethnic leadership. It is the Commission on Equitable Compensation's hope that even these transitioning situations will find ways of supporting pastors on their own, and that the conference will be called on for temporary support, not perpetual dependence. This list is not meant to be exhaustive or exclusive, but an example of kinds of ministries in transition.
4. The Commission on Equitable Compensation affirms that appointment decisions rest with the Bishop and the Cabinet. Making appointments is inherently complicated, and many factors must be considered. The Bishop and the Cabinet alone determine appointments of clergy, and clergy, once assigned, have the right to expect no less than equitable compensation. Once an appointment of a pastor is made, the Annual Conference, through the Equitable Compensation fund, is obligated to support that pastor at the minimum level if that pastor's charge cannot provide compensation.

Total Compensation for Clergy

1. The Commission on Equitable Compensation reminds churches and charges that salary is only one portion of total compensation, and churches and charges are urged to consider dispersing compensation in ways that will assist clergy and their families to retain as great a portion of their income as is legally possible. Churches and charges are reminded to consider total compensation and not just think of salary when thinking of clergy family needs. Likewise, clergy are reminded that they are supported in a variety of ways, and total compensation most often exceeds salary.

2. In light of recent IRS and court rulings, churches and pastors are urged to keep informed of their income tax responsibilities and rights. Pastors are advised to seek qualified assistance in making decisions that will affect their income tax liabilities.

A. MINIMUM BASE COMPENSATION SCALE

In accord with the mandate of the DISCIPLINE, the commission recommends that the South Carolina Annual Conference fix the following as its minimum base compensation scale, effective January 1, 1997, and continuing until changed by the Annual Conference. The Commission on Equitable Compensation requests that a line item apportionment of $200,000.00 be made to fund the base compensation support required and/or provided under these recommendations.

FOR FULL-TIME APPOINTMENTS:

Category	Amount
1. Effective Members	$ 28,900.00*
2. Probationary and Associate Members	$ 26,000.00*
3. Local Pastors	$ 24,300.00*

[Please note that this recommendation is the same as for 1996 to continue to enable and to encourage churches whose pastor's salary is at or near these levels to provide for the pastor's business expenses to be paid no longer from salary, but from the administrative budget of the church. This should in every case increase the pastor's effective "take home" pay and decrease his or her tax liability, while giving churches a more accurate picture of business expenses and salary. Please see sections "T." and "U." below, entitled "Reimbursement for Travel and Professional Expenses" and "Reimbursement as Administrative Cost."]*

[Note also that compensation may be allocated within these amounts by each church as it sees fit, but in no case should the total of "cash salary" plus "Tax-Deferred Annuity" fall below $18,000, as per CPP, or the pastor risks losing CPP benefits.]*

FOR STUDENT APPOINTMENTS:

Each person serving a local church student appointment shall receive the compensation for his or her category, proportional to the percentage of time serving in a pastoral charge. (i.e., One-half time service would receive one-half the Equitable Compensation for that person's category.) The percentage of time serving the charge shall be determined by the Cabinet.

B. Charge/Church Visits

When a church or charge is initially being considered for Equitable Compensation supplements and at the beginning of its third year of receiving such supplements, the Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that the following representatives of the larger covenant connection shall meet with the Administrative Board(s) or Administrative Council(s) of the church/charge: (1) the District Superintendent, (2) a representative from the District Board for Congregational Development, (3) a member of the District Board of Buildings and Locations, and (4) a member of the Commission on Equitable Compensation. The meeting will be convened and chaired by the District Superintendent. The purpose of the meeting will be:

- (a) to discuss the current mission of the local church or charge;
- (b) to hear the needs of the church or charge; and
- (c) to help develop a plan for the church's or charge's future outreach ministry.

C. Length of Time for Equitable Compensation Support

Effective January 1, 1994, churches or charges receiving Equitable Compensation support shall be limited to four and one-half years. Such churches will in no case receive more than 35% of total compensation from the Equitable Compensation fund. Assistance will be provided over a 4-1/2 year period and will decrease by 25% each year after the first year and a half.

D. Mission Statements and Growth Goals

Churches or charges receiving or applying for Equitable Compensation support shall submit annually to the District Board for Congregational Development and to the Commission on Equitable Compensation its Mission Statement specifying its understanding of its unique ministry and a statement of membership growth goals for the coming year, with ministry plans for reaching these goals.

E. Experience Merit

A pastor who has served for 5 or more years in full time service, in the South Carolina Annual Conference, shall receive, in addition to the minimum base, a supplement of $100.00 per year of service for up to 10 years of service.

Example: Year 5: Equitable Compensation base plus $500.00;
 Year 6: Equitable Compensation base plus $600.00;
 Year 7: Equitable Compensation base plus $700.00;
 Year 8: Equitable Compensation base plus $800.00;
 Year 9: Equitable Compensation base plus $900.00;
 Years 10+: Equitable Compensation base plus $1,000.00.

F. Housing Allowances

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that all money given to the pastor for housing by the charge he/she serves be considered income if the pastor is not a resident in the charge which he/she serves.

G. Application for Equitable Compensation Support

The District Superintendent shall request the base compensation assistance required by each charge, which must be approved by the Commission on Equitable Compensation before payment can be made. This request from the District Superintendent shall be accompanied by an application form provided by the Commission on Equitable Compensation and completed by the pastor, the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, and the District Superintendent, indicating income from all sources.

H. Cross Racial Appointments

If the Bishop and Cabinet, in making a cross racial appointment, find it necessary to request equitable compensation supplement, special consideration will be given on an individual basis. Guidelines under Section J. will apply.

I. Cooperative Parish Ministries

Directors or Coordinators of Cooperative Parish ministries which have been approved by the Board of Missions, and application made by the District Superintendent to the Commission on Equitable Compensation by January 1 preceding the appointment in June of the same year may be eligible for funds not to exceed $7,000.00. No pastor shall be eligible to receive funds unless the charge he/she serves agrees in writing to release him/her for these added duties. Assistance will be provided over a 4-1/2 year period and will decrease by 25% each year after the first year and a half.

J. Missional Situations

Missional Situations are when areas - rural, inner city, transitional or engulfed neighborhoods, or areas where new churches are organized, demand an effective ministry but are not capable of providing such ministries without Equitable Compensation assistance. To be eligible for Equitable Compensation assistance the following procedure must be followed:

1. The District Board for Congregational Development shall be the authorizing body to project a new missional situation.
2. The District Board for Congregational Development will refer this to the Conference Committee on Congregational Development for verification that it is indeed a missional situation, and its priority rank among conference needs.

3. It will then be referred to the Cabinet for approval. The Cabinet will then designate a pastor with at least 4 years experience and request an appropriate base compensation for that particular missional situation.
4. Each missional situation will be reevaluated annually by December 31st each year.
5. Each step of the above procedure must be documented in writing to the Commission on Equitable Compensation by January 1st.

Other provisions:

If known at the time, the District Superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation of a potential missional situation a year ahead of the time it is expected to be effected. In all cases where a new missional situation is to be effected, the District Superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Compensation by January 1st preceding the Annual Conference at which an appointment is to be made providing, at that time, the projected base compensation cost to be incurred in June.

Decreasing Support: Equitable Compensation assistance will be provided over a 4-1/2 year period decreasing 25% each year after the first year and a half as follows:

First Year and a Half: The amount of Equitable Compensation support will be according to the pastor's category.

[Special Note: The District Superintendent may apply to the Cabinet for a compensation that is more in keeping with the amount received by this pastor in his or her previous appointment. If this previous compensation is less than the conference average for that year, the compensation may increase by no more than $2,000.00, to an amount not more than the conference average. (See Section Q. for definition of amount.) If this previous compensation is more than the conference average, the compensation will be no higher than an amount equal to the conference average compensation plus 1/2 the difference between the previous compensation and the conference average.]

Second Full Year: The grant depends on amount received the first year and a half. At the beginning of the second full year, the church must assume one-fourth of the pastor's compensation.

Third Full Year: The grant depends on amount received the second full year. At the beginning of the third full year, the church must assume one-half of the pastor's compensation.

Fourth Full Year: The grant depends on amount received the third full year. At the beginning of the fourth full year, the church must assume three-fourths of the pastor's compensation.

After the first year and a half, an annual "cost of living" increase will be added at the beginning of each calendar year to the amounts paid from the Equitable Compensation Fund in missional situations. The amount of this increase will be determined by the Commission on Equitable Compensation at its June meeting each year. The total amount of Equitable Compensation support, including the cost of this "cost of living" increase, to be provided in the following year will be communicated to each church by September first for use in the budgeting process for the new year.

During the time the pastor in a missional situation receives any salary from the Equitable Compensation Fund, his or her mileage and business expenses shall be reimbursed by the Equitable Compensation Fund as outlined below. When the church assumes all salary support, the church will also be responsible for these business expenses, just as other operating expenses. (A) Travel reimbursement. Travel costs will be reimbursed at the current IRS rate (30 cents per mile in 1995) by voucher to the conference treasurer, and will be paid up to 12,000 miles per year. (B) Expenses. Business expenses, including books, educational materials, subscriptions to journals, dues to professional organizations, or other expenses will be reimbursed by voucher and receipt up to $600.00 per year. When the church assumes these costs, it will also be responsible for setting amounts.

Note 1. No base compensation funds will be granted to a church after the fourth full year.

Note 2. The local church's share of this base compensation schedule is interpreted to mean all sources of income from the local church or from any other source.

Note 3. In all cases where a missional situation is attached to an existing charge, these become charge figures.

Note 4. The moving expenses for pastors assigned to newly set-up congregations will be paid out of the Equitable Compensation Fund.

K. Disbursement

Equitable Compensation Funds shall be disbursed monthly, and shall be given only to the pastor involved.

L. Utilities Allowance

The Commission on Equitable Compensation requests that the South Carolina Conference designate 15% (or actual expenses) of base compensation support funded by this commission as parsonage utilities allowance. This request is made to satisfy the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service.

M. Charge Lines Adjustments

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that any charge receiving Equitable Compensation assistance for three consecutive years or failing to pay more than 65% of the minimum base compensation shall be studied by the Commission on Equitable Compensation for the purpose of making recommendations regarding a realignment of that charge.

N. Investment of Reserve Fund

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that all funds held in "reserve" be invested.

O. Interpretation

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that an interpretation of its task and policy procedures be given as a part of the District Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee Workshops. It is further recommended that this interpretation be done by a member of the Commission upon invitation by the District Superintendent.

P. Compensation Guidance

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that District Superintendents assist churches and charges in setting appropriate compensation and work load packages in accordance with Paragraph 523.3 of The Book of Discipline 1992.

Q. Ineligibility

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that the following not be eligible for Equitable Compensation support:

1. Retired supplies;
2. Part-time local pastors;
3. Pastors on leave of absence except as provided in Standing Rule 144;
4. Special appointment categories within the itineracy of The United Methodist Church as defined in Paragraph 443.1. a, b, c of the The Book of Discipline 1992.

R. Equality and Inclusiveness

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that, beginning on moving day of 1996, Equitable Compensation funds not be used to supplement the base compensation of pastors serving separate charges in the same geographic area.

S. "Grandfather" Clause

Any pastor under appointment in the South Carolina Annual Conference, serving churches and receiving Equitable Compensation support on December 31, 1993, may choose to continue to receive support under the policy set forth in the 1992 Conference Journal's

"Equitable Salary" policies, for as long as that pastor is in that same appointment.

T. Reimbursement for Travel and Professional Expenses

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that each church set up a reimbursement account for travel and professional expenses incurred by the pastor in performing pastoral duties. Reimbursement for non-commuting church-related travel shall be at the IRS rate (currently .31 per mile). The pastor(s) shall submit a voucher and a log each month for reimbursement. For reimbursement for actual professional expenses (books, subscriptions, periodicals, etc.) the pastor(s) shall submit a voucher with supporting documentation for reimbursement. The amount set by the charge as reimbursement for travel and professional expenses should be determined after consultation with the pastor(s) (and the District Superintendent, if desired or needed) by the Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations Committee. Each charge should annually evaluate the local needs and expectations of its pastor(s) and set an amount for reimbursement accordingly. Also, the procedures for reimbursement should be clearly stated. The Commission expects that in most cases, $4,000.00 should be the maximum necessary for Reimbursed Church-related Travel and other reimbursable business expenses.

U. Reimbursement as Administrative Cost

The Commission on Equitable Compensation recommends that, beginning January 1, 1996, the reimbursement for travel and professional expenses be a part of the administrative cost of each local church and not considered or reported as part of the pastor's compensation.

Medicare Benefits

The South Carolina Annual Conference elects Plan 1 (Carve Out) as the Medicare Supplement Plan Option.

Medicare is a Federal health insurance plan, administered under the Social Security Act, for the benefit of persons 65 years of age or older. The Medicare Program consists of two parts: (a) hospital insurance, designed to pay for physicians' service and related medical services. Under the terms of the Medicare Program, hospital insurance (Part A) is provided for all persons under the plan. The medical insurance (Part B) is an optional feature for which the insured pays a stated monthly premium.

The Conference Insurance Program is so designed that it provides certain benefits which begin at the point where Medicare coverage terminates, and in addition, makes provision for some benefits not covered by Medicare at all. Therefore, it is required that all retired participants and/or dependent spouses aged 65 or older shall enroll in Medicare Part A and Part B and, in any event, benefits for retired enrolls and eligible dependents who have attained age 65 shall be computed as though the enrollant or eligible dependent were enrolled in Medicare Part A and B.

Inasmuch as the insurance coverage for normally retired ministers and their eligible dependents who have attained age 65 is provided for them by the Conference, all persons who are or who could be covered by Medicare Part A and Part B shall have their benefits computed by the Benefit Reduction method; and each insured or dependent age 65 or over should be positive that any hospital he/she enters is one which participants in the Medicare program. Our plan does not pay benefits which are, or could be, paid by Medicare.

Eligible retired enrolls and their eligible dependents as well as participating active enrolls and their eligible dependents who have attained age 65 shall have benefits calculated by the Carve Out approach with the same deductible(s) applicable and the same co-insurance as those enrolls under age 65. This assumes Medicare Part A and Part B participants the same co-insurance as those enrolls under age 65. This assumes that the active age 65 and over enrollant and dependent shall be enrolled in Medicare Part A and Part B immediately upon reaching the age or status for Medicare eligibility.

A handbook explaining the provisions of Medicare is available from any district office of the Social Security Administration.

Report Number 5 Administrative Procedures

Billing: The Office of Ministerial Affairs sends a quarterly statement to everyone enrolled in the Conference Insurance Program. Statements are mailed in January, April, July and October. Although statements are mailed quarterly, payments for premiums may be made on monthly basis.

Cancellation of Coverage: It is imperative that each participant in the Conference Insurance Program keep this premium payments current. The Commission on Insurance has instructed the Administrator of Ministerial Affairs to cancel the insurance coverage of any participant who does not pay his/her premium by the end of the quarter for which he/she has been billed.

Ministers Serving Beyond The Local Church Appointments: For the purpose of proper cost analysis, it is required that all Conference Boards and Agencies, served by ministers and others eligible for group insurance, pay for the "institutional share" of the insured's premium. This provision shall apply to the District Superintendents, Conference Staff and those serving United Methodist agencies directly related and accountable to the South Carolina Annual Conference, should they elect coverage under the South Carolina Annual Conference Insurance Program. In every case the full cost of coverage must be paid by the insured, the employer, or through the combined payments of the insured and the employer.

Premium payments: Premium payments shall be made in accordance with the instructions printed on the quarterly "Statement of Account".

Application for Insurance Coverage: Eligibility for enrollment begins with recognition as a probationary member, full-time employment as a local pastor or student local pastor, or as a transfer from another Annual Conference, and so noted in report of the Board of the Ordained Ministry. Enrollment at any other time classifies an applicant as a "late entrant". Enrollment for local church employees under the provisions of section 10 of Report Number One may be made only in the months of January and July.

Applications for enrollment in the Conference Insurance Program are available from the Office of Ministerial Affairs. If not completed and in the hands of the Administrator within 31 days from the date of eligibility, the applicant will be classed as a "late entrant". It will then be necessary for a health statement to be furnished, and in most instances, a physical examination will be required at the expense of the insured.

Claims Procedure: The cost of medical care continues to rise, therefore, the Office of Ministerial Affairs and the carrier audit every claim with great care. Conference Insurance Program participants can render valuable assistance in the claims process by:

1. Making certain that they have received all the services for which they are requesting payment.
2. Supplying the documentation required to validate the claim.
3. Refraining from asking for reimbursement for services clearly excluded under the terms of the insurance program.

Claims should be submitted at least quarterly, but not more often than once a month.

The Commission on Group Insurance is charged with oversight of the group insurance program of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the benefits of which program are outlined in the reports of the Commission submitted to and approved by the Annual Conference. The budget of the Commission on Insurance is approved by the Annual Conference and the Commission is authorized to negotiate and contract with carriers or the Health Flex plan administrator to maintain the level of benefits approved by the Annual Conference for the eligible participants as defined by the Annual Conference.

Report Number 6 Coverage for Conference Lay Employees

The Commission on Insurance receives from time to time requests from conference boards and agencies for insurance coverage for lay employees. Accordingly, the Commission has adopted the following policy in this connection.

Conference insurance coverage is available to all employees of the United Methodist Church directly related to the South Carolina Annual Conference and working within the boundaries of the Annual Conference, including fully employed diaconal ministers fulfilling the requirements of Paragraphs 302-315 of the 1992 Book of Discipline and recommended by the Board of Diaconal Ministry of the South Carolina Annual Conference, provided the insured and the agency concerned bear their full share of the cost of the insurance.

Coverage under the major medical insurance shall be the same as for all other persons covered, and all provisions governing eligibility for the Conference Insurance Program shall apply.

Life Insurance Coverage for eligible Conference Lay Employees shall be as follows effective January 1, 1981:

|--|--|
| 1. Less than age 60: | $15,000.00 |
| 2. Age 60 but less than age 65: | $13,000.00 |
| 3. Age 65 but less than age 70: | $13,000.00 reduced by 8% for each active employee's birthday until the 70th $ 4,000.00 (additional care) |
| 4. Age 65 and over for those retiring before June 1, 1975: | $ 4,000.00 (additional care) |
| 5. Age 65 and over for those retiring after June 1, 1975: | $ 5,000.00 (additional care) |

Report Number 7 Coordination of Benefits

The purpose of health care insurance is to help meet actual expenses. In line with that purpose, the Conference Insurance Program contains a nonprofit provision which coordinates our plan with other plans under which an individual is covered so that the total benefits available will not exceed 100% of the allowable expensed. Under this plan, if a dependent, employed spouse is covered by another group plan, application for insurance benefits should first be made under the employee's own policy, then application may be made to the Conference Insurance Program for any additional benefits that might be due.

Strict adherence to this policy is essential if we are to maintain good benefits under our program at a reasonable cost. A detailed explanation of the "coordination" provision is contained in the Health Flex plan summary.

Report Number 8

The Commission on Insurance makes the following recommendation for action by the 1996 South Carolina Annual Conference.

1. That the Council on Finance and Administration apportion to the churches the sum of $ 3,221,576 for the Conference Insurance Program to be used as follows:
 - a. $ 92,888 for administration of the program.
 - b. $3,128,688 for the Conference's share of the cost of the insurance program in providing coverage for eligible enrollants of the South Carolina Annual Conference.
2. That enrollant premium payments be set as follows:
 - a. Categories 1-10 of Report Number 1. shall be $75.00 monthly for single coverage and $50 monthly for dependent coverage.
 - b. Premiums for retired ministers 65 and over be fully paid by the Annual Conference except in cases where the spouse is under age 65; in which instance the premium shall be $ 50.00 monthly.
 - c. Premiums for the surviving under age 65 spouse will be $ 50.00 monthly.
 - d. Premiums for the actuarially retired member under age 65 with dependent shall be $ 75.00 monthly and $50.00 monthly for dependent coverage.
3. Participants in the Conference Insurance Program shall pay their premiums in advance. All coverage shall be subject to cancellation if payments are not made prior to the end of the quarter for which the insured is billed.

4. Every participant in the Conference Insurance Program shall become familiar with the provisions of the program as outlined in the plan summary copies of which are available from the Office of Ministerial Affairs, P. O. Box 11284, Columbia, SC 29211

A RESOLUTION CONCERNING SEXUAL ABSTINENCE BEFORE MARRIAGE

WHEREAS: Teenage pregnancy presents an enormous problem morally, emotionally, and physically to the youth of America, and
WHEREAS: Our Christian faith teaches us that sexual relations outside of marriage are not compatible with the will of God and the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and
WHEREAS: The so-called "safe-sex" solution is a disaster in the making, with condoms failing to be foolproof in preventing pregnancy in many instances, thus resulting in unexpected and unwanted pregnancies, and
WHEREAS: Findings of the Centers of Disease Control survey reveal that extremely high percentages of teenagers have had and continue to have sexual relations, and
WHEREAS: The rate of heterosexual HIV transmission has increased at an alarming rate, and
WHEREAS: Since 1970, the government has spent billions of dollars to promote contraception and safe-sex, and
WHEREAS: Since the federal government began its major contraception program in 1970, unwed pregnancies have increased and the number of abortions have continued to rise, and
WHEREAS: Our beliefs as Christians hold that abstinence from sex before marriage is the only morally right and safe means of sexual behavior, and
WHEREAS: TRUE LOVE WAITS and other similar Christian groups have influenced thousands of young people to pledge themselves to sexual abstinence before marriage, now
THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church in its 1996 session reaffirm its undergirding support of sexual abstinence before marriage, and
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the South Carolina Conference commend TRUE LOVE WAITS and other groups which work diligently to encourage our youth to abstain from sex before marriage, and
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the South Carolina Conference, from the conference level to the local church level, support and encourage the stand for sexual abstinence before marriage in its teachings and implementation.

TRUSTEES OF THE UNITED METHODIST CENTER

The work of the Trustees of the United Methodist Center continues to move forward as we meet the challenge of providing the necessary and adequate facilities needed by those who carry on the work of the South Carolina Annual Conference within the Methodist Center.

Since our last report at the 1995 Annual Conference we have been involved in several projects among which are the following:

- (1) There was a thorough study of the heating and air conditioning system during the year with the result that we now have a new company handling our heating and air conditioning needs very effectively.
- (2) There has been additional outside lighting installed for security purposes.
- (3) In October we welcomed to the staff of the Methodist Center, Ms. Bettye F. Rivers as receptionist-switchboard operator, filling a vacancy created by Ms. Sharron Pickle's move to the Council on Ministries' staff.

We handled several other maintenance concerns during the year and continue to keep a close check on the facilities through the services of our on-site Business Manager who works closely with the employees of the Center.

THE COMMITTEE ON THE EPISCOPACY

Since last Annual Conference, the Committee on the Episcopacy has held two meetings - September, 2:00 p.m. at the Methodist Center and December 7, 12:00 noon at Columbia College Dining Hall. The next meeting is scheduled for May 7, 1996 at 2:00 p.m.

The chairperson reported that a request was made to Council on Finance and Administration for additional funds for the remaining of 1995. Also a request was made for an increase for the 1996 budget. These requests were made because of insufficient funds due to extra meetings (mileage) following the death of Bishop Bethea and preparation for Interim Bishop Spain.

A representative from the Episcopacy Residence Committee reported recent activity at the Episcopal Residence. We are glad to welcome Bishop and Mrs. Spain to the house on Ivy Hall Drive and hope they will enjoy their stay there. An effort has been made to make them comfortable and to feel at home.

The Neighborhood Rangers have done a good job overseeing the property during the time when there has been no one staying there.

A Committee has been named for planning the Welcoming of the new bishop in September 1996.

The Committee on the Episcopacy commended Bishop Spain for his strong leadership as head of the South Carolina Annual Conference.

THE COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church makes it very clear that what are called "historically significant records" must be preserved. The truth, however, is that many local churches, district and Annual Conference offices can sadly relate horror stories of records trashed by unthinking, uncaring individuals and groups.

It is a leadership responsibility to know what ought to be considered "historically significant," and it is also a part of demonstrated leadership to know how to locate and how to preserve those items that deserve the attention and care of the Church.

This brings us to a problem that many in the Church, and in many areas of the secular world, do not yet anticipate. We live in the age of computers and this means we are moving swiftly from paper records to computer records. This is fine ... if! And the "if" is that we must understand how difficult it is to deal with the rapid obsolescence of computer records.

Most computer users assume that everything tucked away within that awesome machine can always be recalled. It is right here that problems arise that few computer users currently realize. An example of the potential tragedy awaiting unwitting computer users was the dilemma faced by the U.S. Census Bureau. The 1960 census records were the first to be totally computerized. The Census Bureau computers were the very latest hardware and software available in the early 1960's. The surge of new computing equipment soon rendered that of the 1960's as obsolete. Before anyone in authority at the Census Bureau was aware of the problem a whole decade's census data was almost lost.

What can happen to the census records can happen to church records embalmed in computer files. Computer disks have less than a decade of guaranteed useful lifetime. Computer experts are advising archivists to devise a near constant program of review of their computer records to deal with the fact that such physical material is less than permanent.

Having raised this warning, we need to be aware that our paper records can be equally at hazard. There is a special type of material known as "archival paper." Archival paper has a minimum life expectancy of 350 years. Most of you are aware that for more than three fourths of a century, beginning before 1900, most of the paper used in correspondence and in publishing books was not archival quality paper. As a consequence books and records from that period may crumble if handled.

All of this is to advise everyone related to this annual conference who is responsible for "historically significant records" to examine carefully what constitutes the precious documentary trail for which the individual is responsible. With careful attention, records can be preserved at a level as near to available permanence as is technically possible. In this way later generations will bless you for your care of the documentary story of our history.

THE COMMISSION ON COMMUNICATIONS

This year has been rewarding for us as we have made great strides in accomplishing the exciting task of consolidating communications and looking forward to the potential of "putting a face on the United Methodist Church" through different avenues of the media. The members of the Commission have worked hard to create a solid foundation for the future.

Just as in any new endeavor breaking ground can be difficult, yet we are now at a point where exciting things will be happening in the S.C. Annual Conference at a fast pace. Within the first and second quarters of the year we will be airing television commercials and getting the Electronic Network on-line established. The on-line network will be evolving as the year progresses, as the Office of Communications chooses the best possible directions for the conference and for local churches.

We have hired a talented professional from the Missouri West Conference, Cheryl Hahs Edwards. Cheryl comes to us with a wealth of knowledge and experience in the area of communications. She was recommended by many professionals who work with United Methodist Communications (UMComm). Cheryl has worked diligently since January 1, 1996 to see the Office of Communications moving at a fast pace. She is excited about the potential within our conference and looks forward to the challenge.

The Advocate has had a wonderful year under the editorship of Allison Askins. The newspaper's new look has generated letters of positive support for its design, information and its readability. The Advocate has won an award this year for its design. The award was third place in the South Carolina Press Association's Best Newspaper Format for Associate Members. This was the first time associate members were allowed to participate.

I would like to thank the members of the Commission for their long hours and hard work this past year, and we look forward to continued success.

We would also like you to know that the S. C. Annual Conference is being watched by United Methodist communicators and other officials throughout the church, as the Office of Communications begins its work. We have received many telephone calls and letters wanting updates and information about our process and our progress.

We look forward to a wonderful year to come with numerous possibilities for spreading the Good News of Jesus Christ. Thanks to the support of the annual conference, we are making great strides in communications.

K. David Caughman, Jr., Chairperson

THE COMMITTEE ON THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The presiding bishop and the 1995 session returned Annual Conference to a Sunday-Wednesday schedule, May 26, through noon May 29, 1996. Dr. William Mallard will lead study at 8:30 AM on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings. Dr. Mallard is well remembered from his teaching at the 1984 session.

The Rev. Evelyn Cook Middleton will be the preacher at the Communion/Memorial Service held at 7:00 PM, Sunday, May 26th. The Conference will organize at 11:00 AM, Monday, May 27th, following the 8:30 AM Clergy session in Leonard Auditorium and the Lay Orientation session in the Johnson Arena of the Campus Life Center.

The episcopal address will follow the awards presentations on Monday evening. A reception for Bishop and Mrs. Spain will be held in the Richardson Building following the Monday evening session.

The consecration of Diaconal ministers and the ordination of deacons and elders will take place at 7:30 PM, Tuesday, May 28th. Bishop Robert H. Spain will be the preacher. Holy Communion will not be celebrated at this service. An outdoor reception will follow the benediction.

If the session approves the proposed consent calendar, we will move to record the distributed reports which do not require action by the session. Every attempt will be made to do the business of the session efficiently, with opportunity for discussion, openness to new ideas, commemoration of those who are no longer with us, recognition of retiring leadership, and celebration of new leaders willing to do the work of Christ's Church.

The available dates for the 1997 session of the South Carolina Annual Conference are Sunday, May 25 through Wednesday, May 28, 1997. The session must determine if Wofford College, Spartanburg, South Carolina will be the site of the 1997 session.

Finally, the Committee wishes to express gratitude to President Joab Lesesne, Chaplain Talmage Skinner, the staff of Wofford College, The Rev. George Watson, Mr. Walter Forrester and the Spartanburg District Council for their hospitality and hard work this year and in other years.

- a. Increase the price of the Journal.
- b. Purge the distribution list.
- c. Print fewer Journals in 1996.
- d. That in addition to the United Methodist Ministers in South Carolina Book published every ten years' a supplemental picture booklet be compiled with a church photo directory company.
- e. It is further recommended that the content of the Journal should include those items mandated by the Discipline, but the additional material should be limited. There has been no deaths chronology for over 20 years.

In order to consolidate organization and reduce costs to the Annual Conference, the Committee on the Journal recommends that the tasks of the Committee on the Conference Journal be given to the Conference Commission on Communications. This would mean that the journal would be published by the Commission on Communications along with the ministers book. It makes sense to consolidate all communications functions in the work of the Conference Commission on Communications.

In order to contain costs and transfer the communication functions and responsibilities of the Committee on the Conference Journal into the full time, professional hands of the Conference Commission on Communications, it is also recommended that:

- a. In 1996 the Committee on the Conference Journal shall be dissolved.
- b. Ask the Council on Finance and Administration to zero out any budget deficits relating to the Conference Journal rather than pass them on to the Committee on Communications.

THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Nazareth Church (Anderson District) was sold for $7,500 with the net proceeds being distributed according to the directions of the 1988 South Carolina Annual Conference.

The Board of Trustees has addressed or is in the process of addressing inquiries and requests on sixteen different pieces of property. There are probably many pieces of property belonging to the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church that are not known to the Board of Trustees. Almost every year property is discovered that belongs to this conference mostly when land transactions are attempted.

A checklist including "check off" or "fill-in-the-blank" forms for the discontinuance or abandonment of local church property was updated and distributed to the district superintendents to aid them in efficiently and completely accomplishing this task if the need arises.

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY Dean's Report to the Annual Conference

Candler School of Theology of Emory University is committed to preparing effective and dynamic leadership for The United Methodist Church. It seeks to do this by maintaining close ties with clergy and laity. Based on conversations with these constituent groups, the Candler faculty has reviewed and revised its degree curriculum to assure a solid biblical foundation and strong preaching background for its graduates. Required one-year Old and New Testament interpretation classes taught by Candler's internationally recognized Bible faculty and a foundational class on the basics of vital preaching will prepare students for a lifetime of study in these two important disciplines.

Candler faculty, stay abreast of concerns of local church members through preaching, teaching, and leading workshops for churches and conferences. During 1995-96 Candler faculty traveled to 25 states to participate in lay theology academies, pastors' schools, Christian educators' fellowships, revivals, laity retreats, and other church events. Through the recently instituted Avary Program in Church Leadership, customized workshops will be presented by Candler free of charge to churches, districts, and annual conferences interested in revitalizing clergy and lay leadership.

The educational program available at Candler has been strengthened this year by the addition of three new faculty members. Dr. Nancy Eiesland, a Candler and Emory, University graduate, teaches in the area of sociology of religion. One of her specialties is the study of how congregations respond to community change. Dr. Timothy Jackson teaches in the area of Christian ethics. He will also offer courses in medical ethics, using insights he has gleaned from his service on the ethics board of a denominationally affiliated retirement home. Dr. Neal Walls, an Old Testament professor, is interested in the religious traditions of ancient Israel, especially as a context for understanding Hebrew texts found in the Old Testament.

As the largest of the thirteen official United Methodist seminaries, Candler is looking toward the future of the church as it prepares students for faithful and creative ministries. The school recently received a $3.3 million grant from The Pew Charitable Trust to support a program to develop Hispanic religious leadership by promoting Hispanic participation in theological education. Candler's administration of this program will help prepare persons to proclaim the Gospel in an increasingly diverse church.

Just as Candler seeks to support local churches, the seminary continues to benefit from the support of local churches for theological education through the Ministerial Education Fund (MEF), as well as the generosity of faithful individuals. We are grateful for these gifts and for the prayers of the conference for our students, faculty, and staff. We give thanks for the partnership Candler has with this conference in preparing future leaders of the church.

THE GENERAL BOARD COMMISSION ON COMMUNICATIONS

For the past eight years I have served as a member of the executive committee of this Commission. In order to accomplish our mission, "We Help the Church Tell Its Story," the agency must share, listen, interpret, promote, create and market communication resources for United Methodists, the wider Christian community and the general public.

The Commission organizes itself into three functional areas: Production and Distribution; Program and Benevolence Interpretation; and Public Media. It has been my privilege to chair the Production and Distribution Committee for the past four years. Our responsibility deals with the oversight of the production and distribution of communications resources for the United Methodist Church. The Program and Benevolence Committee is responsible for the promotion and interpretation of the benevolent causes and special days of the denomination. The Public Media Committee is responsible for the strategies by which information about the denomination is provided to the public media. We are pleased that the number of positive articles and programs that are placed in the media continues to increase. The committee also was responsible for the home page which the church now has available.

My involvement in this Commission has caused me to view communications in a different manner. It is absolutely essential that the story of the ministry of the United Methodist Church be shared with both our constituency as well as with the general public.

THE GENERAL COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

My eight years of service with the General Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns heightened my appreciation for the diversity of Christ's Church and the many ways the earth's peoples relate to God, the Creator of all.

I enjoyed working as a liaison with commissions in South Carolina and Tennessee as each of the General Commission Directors worked to keep the channels of communication open with our various United Methodist Annual Conferences.

Opportunities to dialogue with other faiths and work for unity and understanding among our COCU churches and Wesleyan heritage churches abounded. Through GCCUIC I grew as an ecumenist and as a Methodist. It is wonderful how knowledge of other traditions enhances and deepens love and commitment to one's own tradition. John Wesley's own openness to ecumenism and dialogue with other faiths is found throughout his sermons and writings.

The General Commission met twice a year in various parts of our country and persons from around the world were invited to share and inform us giving us insights into the efforts toward unity world-wide.

One of the most significant of the accomplishments made was the development of dialogue facilitating statements particularly for inter-faith dialogues such as the Jewish Christian statement received by our 1996 General Conference.

I was deeply impressed with the leadership given by Bishop Grove, the General Secretary, Bruce Robbins, and the entire staff. I served for eight years on the finance committee of the Commission and marveled at the care with which budgets and assessments of need and program were made.

This relatively small Commission was a microcosm of our church-racially and gender inclusive in the most visible way, it served the United Methodist Church faithfully and with fine stewardship with our United Methodist resources. I am proud and thankful to have had such a heart and mind expanding experience serving and learning of Christ's boundless love for all.

THE GENERAL BOARD OF PUBLICATIONS

I am on the General Board of Publication which has responsibility for providing direction to the United Methodist Publishing House in its publishing and distribution services for the United Methodist Church and the ecumenical community. In discharging this responsibility, the full Board meets twice a year and the Executive Committee meets four times.

The work of the Board is accomplished through four standing committees: Production Development, Sales and Service, Human Resources/Affirmative Action, Public Church and Board Relations, and Finance on which I serve. This committee structure corresponds with the management system of the United Methodist Publishing House and serves to provide effective participation from members of the Board.

In addition to its responsibility of overseeing the general operation of a huge business enterprise, the Board spends countless hours reflecting on its own commitment and dedication to God and his church, defining the Board's mission, reviewing the criteria and priorities for missional opportunities, annual examination of management's strategic plans, looking at new developments likely to impart missional and business direction, developing and directing the Board's vision statement and reviewing guidelines for the reserve fund.

James S. Gadsden

WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

I do not serve on a UMC board or agency, but I represent the UMC on the Central Committee (board of directors) of the World Council of Churches. I am one of four United Methodists from across the church (one being from Angola) who serve in this capacity. This requires that I attend meetings about once a year, not counting various ad-hoc committee or other responsibilities for the Central Committee that arise from time to time. For example, in 1995, I headed the World Council of Churches delegation of five people to the United Nations' Fourth World Conference on women in Beijing, China (September) and led the delegation of 70 people to the UN's Nongovernmental Forum in Hairou (outside of Beijing) in August.

Furthermore, I carry substantially greater responsibilities in the World Council of Churches in that I also serve as a member of the Programme Unit III (justice, Peace, Creation) commission, an advisory body helping to shape and implement programs. I also chair (am Moderator in World Council of Churches language) a program advisory group under Programme Unit III in international affairs, i.e. I am the Moderator of the CCIA (Commission of the Churches in International Affairs). These duties entail attending one or more meetings a year, writing reports, correspondence, etc.

THE REPORT OF THE GENERAL BOARD OF GLOBAL MINISTRIES

The General Board of Global Ministries is the mission arm of the United Methodist Church. It is a responsibility of the Board "To discern those places where the Gospel has not been heard or heeded and to witness to its meaning throughout the world, inviting all persons to newness of life in Jesus Christ through a program of global ministries." (1992 DISCIPLINE, paragraph 1402.1).

We appreciate this opportunity to share some information about the work of the GBGM. The primary tasks of Directors are to develop, write/rewrite policies for the delivery of programs and projects to fulfill the work assigned to the General Board of Global Ministries by the United Methodist Church.

Varied assignments afford us an opportunity to be closely involved in the mission and ministry of the Board. The Board has three major Divisions: World, National, and Women's. There are a variety of other committees or units. B. J. serves on the Committee on Nominations of the Board, the Executive/Long Range Planning and Finance Committees of the World Division, the Finance and Audit Committees of the Women's Division, and as the Secretary of the Asia/Pacific Region. Sara serves on the Administrative Committee of the Board and as the Chairperson of the Committee to Eliminate Institutional Racism, as the Secretary of the National Division, on the Executive/Long Range Planning Committee, the Appropriations Committee, and as the Chairperson of the Spiritual and Theological Development Committee of the Women's Division.

This partial listing of our assignments shows we both stay very busy and we look forward to working under the new simpler structure which has been being developed since 1992. Included in this new process is the response to the information obtained in the Conference Dialogue sessions in the Annual Conferences in the United States and around the world. We believe the new way of functioning will foster a global approach to all mission.

One of the highlights of the GBGM meetings is the consecration of missionaries. The United Methodist Church can rejoice that there are 715 missionaries serving within their own countries, and 436 missionaries serving beyond their national borders. Of this total of 1151 missionaries, 748 are from the United States.

The Board's executive staff is drawn from across the Church and around the world. With such rich diversity, the Board is reflective of the entire constituency of the United Methodist Church and is able to respond appropriately in all places and cultures. As of April 15, 1996, there is a total executive staff of 184 listed by jurisdiction: Northeastern, 33.2%; Southeastern, 17.9%; North Central, 15.2%; South Central, 12.0%; Western, 7.6%; and other, 14.1%. Of the 47 executives who are major program-related staff, 27.7% are from the Southeastern Jurisdiction.

The GBGM Report to the 1996 General Conference shows that the Consolidated Statement of Income for the year 1994 was $133,173,640. The stories of how these funds are used around the world are wonderful.

Evangelistic efforts are underway in a host of new settings such as Russia, Lithuania, Kazakhstan, and in the United States with Chinese, Cambodian, Vietnamese, and Russian immigrants.

A first class of 27 persons graduated in 1995 from Africa University in Zimbabwe, a new United Methodist institution to which the Board assigns mission personnel.

The Goma United Methodist Village D'Enfants moved from concept to reality--initially serving 40 Zairian and Rwandan street children. Located on three and one-half acres on a hill overlooking Lake Kivu, this village of love was built in two and a half months. The construction team was composed of Board staff, a community center director, four students from Clark University (Atlanta), Zairian United Methodists and 100 Rwandan refugees. The United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, UNICEF and other agencies lent assistance. The village is designed to serve 100 children.

The GBGM Annual Report for 1994, "A Sign of God's Presence in the World," reports the total support for mission through the Women's Division was $34,878,017, the largest single source of support for United Methodist Missions.

The October 1994 issue of the United Methodist Women's Magazine, RESPONSE, has maps indicating the places where Women's Division Mission Outreach is occurring around the world. Serving women, children and youth through a great variety of ministries, there are 17 projects located in the Caribbean, 122 in the Asia /Pacific, 96 in the United States, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, 67 in Africa, 5 in Europe, 10 in the Middle East, 20 in South America, and 16 in Central America.

We are proud of the work being done with the GBGM mission dollars and invite you to read about the programs and projects in the Annual Reports made each year by the General Board of Global Ministries. These reports can be ordered from the Service Center, GBGM, 782 Reading Road, Cincinnati, Ohio 4522-1800, telephone 1-800-305-9857.

THE REPORT ON THE GENERAL BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS

Basic pension and welfare documents changed slightly in 1994. UMCare, a mandatory group health plan, was the primary legislative action four years ago. The exculpatory clause in UMCare was judged to be an illegal delegation of legislative authority, therefore, a voluntary plan, HealthFlex, was created. I served on the HealthFlex design team. Currently there are seventeen annual conferences in HealthFlex. Only the Hawaii District of the California - Pacific Conference remains in H.M.E.P. The health care plan is still in the creative stages of expansion, as are most others. It includes limited managed care, comprehensive behavioral health, a managed pharmacy plan, and flexible spending accounts.

The General Board of Pension and Health Benefits has become even more user friendly in the past four years. A benefit officers group actively participates in operations enhancements. HealthFlex has a similar users group. The total number of board members will be reduced from 36 to 32 directors, and the at-large-committee members from 14 to 9 members in the next quadrennium.

The Board of Pension and Health Benefits recent year end asset totals (in 1000s) have been as follows:

1993:	$5,748,535
1994:	$5,721,986
1995:	$7,299,707

This ranks among the top 100 pension funds in the United States. There are 31,760 active participants in the Ministerial Pension Plan and 25,160 retired clergy and dependents. The Staff Retirement Benefits Program serves 1,702 lay employees of United Methodist general agencies. There are 10,424 lay employees enrolled in the Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund.

In addition to the pension and health care plans, the Board of Pension and Health Benefits administers the Comprehensive Protection Plan for clergy and dependents as well as the Basic Protection Plan, which provides death and disability benefits for lay employees; plus additional death and disability benefits for clergy.

The 1996 General Conference enhanced Comprehensive Protection Plan death and disability benefits with significant increases without any increase in costs to the annual conferences. Enhanced Basic Protection Plan benefits costs will be plan sponsor specific.

The Diversified Fund may no longer be an option for clergy accounts beginning in 1998. A similar mutual fund with socially responsible investment policies will be available instead. The Diversified Fund will remain available to Annual Conferences and will continue as our primary vehicle to fund past service liability.

THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES

Throughout this quadrennium all the CCOM boards and agencies, working with the professional staff, have sought to make real the vision adopted by the Annual Conference in 1992: "We affirm God's call to experience new life in Christ for the creation of more vital congregations and more faithful disciples."

As we approach another quadrennium, a new vision statement is proposed to challenge us. Under the leadership of Dr. Robert McKeown the CCOM Committee on Planning and Research has worked diligently, and the vision before us is the result of their work. We are indebted to the many members of the laity and the clergy who have provided feedback through "hearings" in the districts. Your participation helped the committee to "shape" this vision.

In planning for the first year of the new quadrennium, the Council on Ministries presents a coordinated program for 1997 of 48 programs, 30 events, four publications, six grants, four awards, support of 20 Advance Specials, support for six line items, and an operating budget. Each church is urged to participate in programs of training and leadership development, in observance of special days, and in sharing in ministry in and beyond the local community.

We are grateful to the many persons who have served long and well on boards, committees, commissions, and agencies during this quadrennium. The CCOM is composed of individuals representing local churches, districts, boards, agencies, committees, and members-at-large. Women, men, youth, young adults, older adults, clergy and laity serve in this racially inclusive body as representatives of all the constituencies of the conference. They volunteer their time, talent, service and prayers. Without these dedicated persons and the leadership skills of chairpersons and CCOM staff, this program body could not function.

Both the professional and the support staff of CCOM have given the very best of themselves in service, dedication, and commitment. In June 1995, Charles L. Johnson, Sr. was appointed as Council Director. We celebrate the gifts, graces, and abundant energy that he has brought to this position in his first year of service. He and the Associate Directors are prompt, efficient, and committed to their work. We also affirm the efficient work of the support staff and publicly thank them for the excellent work that they do.

We are especially grateful to Bishop Spain for the inspiration and support he has so freely given us during the past year. We could never adequately thank you for so willingly accepting this "new appointment" in your retirement. You have provided for us a living example of "servant ministry."

I comment to you for your prayerful consideration the additional Council Reports: The S.C. Conference Council on Ministries Vision Statement, the Proposed Coordinated Program for 1997, and the 1997 Proposed Budget. You are urged to give careful attention to the annual accountability reports of the boards, commissions, committees, and agencies. The quality, and quantity, of their work and their service to the church is reflected through these reports.

Finally, the CCOM recommends the formation of a Task Force on Annual Conference Structure:

The Conference Council on Ministries recommends that a Task Force on Annual Conference Structure be established composed of the following: the Chairperson of the Committee on Standing Rules and two additional members elected by the Committee on Standing Rules; the Conference Presidents of UMW, UMM, and Youth Council; the Conference Lay Leader; the Chairperson and Director of CCOM; two District Superintendents; and three members at large designated by the Bishop. The members of the task force shall elect its chairperson. This task force shall make a thorough study of the organization and structure of the Annual Conference as it relates both to program and administration. A progress report shall be given to the 1997 session of the Annual Conference. A structure, taking into consideration the mandatory structure requirements from the 1996 General Conference legislation as they pertain to Annual and District Conferences, will be presented to the 1998 session of the Annual Conference to be implemented in the year 2000.

Carolyn Briscoe, Chairperson
S.C. Conference Council on Ministries

Vision Statement
South Carolina Conference
1997-2000

Commentary on the Vision

The vision statement stresses the nature of the church as a covenant community in Christ, who is our peace, who has reconciled us and who has created "in himself one new humanity." (Ephesians 2:14-15) The divisions which threaten the community - the walls which must be dismantled - include, but are not limited to, racism. Mistrust and indifference characterize alienation from God as well as from each other on the basis of ethnicity, nationality, sex, education, economic status, class, political affiliations, even theological beliefs.

Shalom is the Biblical vision of peace understood not only as the absence of conflict but also as the presence of harmony and wholeness. The vision encompasses justice and prosperity (the well-being) of the community.

Action: In order to make this vision a reality we commit ourselves to:

- Listening to God and to each other;
Responding to God's calling and the world's need;
Proclaiming God's word of grace and peace (Shalom);

The proclamation of God's Word of salvation and reconciliation, in word and deed, can be said to be the central task of the church. Proclamation requires that we listen to God's Word for us, that we listen to both the joy and the pain, the hope and the need of others, and that we respond both to Jesus' invitation to follow and to the need of all our sisters and brothers.

- Loving God and each other in God's Spirit;
Communing with God's children in all circumstances.

The heart of Christian faith and practice is the incarnation of love that is gracious, inclusive, unconditional, and redemptive. This love of God and neighbor translates into active fellowship (communion) that embodies gracious acceptance and belonging and vital participation in healing the divisions in our world.

- Learning from God's Word, from our tradition, and from each other;
Teaching the world and one another what it means to be faithful disciples of Jesus Christ.

We are a church committed to the Word of God as revealed preeminently in Jesus Christ and primarily in scripture. With our faith "illuminated by tradition, vivified in personal experience, and confirmed by reason," (Book of Discipline, p. 76) we commit ourselves to learning about the Word and how it speaks to our world today. We also want to learn how to become more effective disciples, and how to strengthen our ministries to the world. Our learning carries with it a mandate to teach each other and the world.

- Leading our churches to establish communities of Shalom, as we are led by the Holy Spirit into new relationships with God and one another;
Serving God by representing the servanthood of Christ in the world.

We are called and equipped to lead others to become faithful disciples of Christ and to create a more peaceful, just, and humane society (a society of Shalom). We are called by Christ to demonstrate that leadership in servanthood, serving individuals who suffer and a society torn by divisions.

THE BOARD OF CAMPS AND RETREATS

Asbury Hills Camp

Bound together by the theme, "We Are Called to Discipleship," 828 summer campers enjoyed the beauty of the mountains, the healthful air, the physical challenge, the company of friends new and old, and the spiritual refreshment and growth offered and shared by the staff and volunteers at Asbury Hills Camp last year. In addition to our active summer campers the facilities of Asbury Hills were used by church retreat groups, a conference Singles Retreat, older adults taking in the breathtaking splendor of the fall leaves, and South Carolina United Methodists who sought a day away from the rush of everyday life, finding rest and new focus in the solitude of the forest.

This past year has been a year of improvements in the facilities of Asbury Hills. The Staff Retreat Building has been completed and furnished, providing staff housing in the summer months and a wonderfully complete retreat setting for the rest of the year. The Board wishes to express its heartfelt gratitude to the UMVIM volunteers who did every bit of the excellent construction of this building. Rice Lodge also now invites guests to enjoy the beautifully refurbished main meeting room. Funds continue to be raised to do further renovation of the Lodge. In 1995 a group from Rock Hill undertook the construction of a new Registration Building, to be completed in time for the 1996 camping season. Wes Voigt and his staff also put the finishing touches on the little known individual retreat cabin nestled in a valley, affectionately called by one board member, "The Hermitage Hut." Remaining in the vision of the Board and friends of Asbury Hills is the dream of a Conference Center to be constructed in a striking natural setting above the present camp.

A significant new relationship was begun in 1995 with the Divinity School of Duke University as Asbury Hills employed an Duke Intern, Ms. Betty Brown. Ms. Brown was an outstanding addition to our summer staff. It is hoped that this is the beginning of a long relationship with the Duke Intern program.

As the program Committee continues to plan and evaluate in order to expand the offerings of the camp and become more utilized by all persons across the Conference new programs are being added each year. Of particular note is the addition of Outdoor/Environmental Education programs being offered to churches and schools through out the year. Working in cooperation with Dr. A. B. Marshall of Clemson University, Asbury Hills now is available as a significant provider of this type of programming for our state. The Board is also very pleased to announce the addition of a Summer Program Director, Ms. Carolyn Brashear. Carolyn brings a wealth of experience to the our camp and will also be available as a retreat leader for church groups using the facilities.

A word of gratitude must be expressed to Wes Voigt and the Asbury Hills staff, and to the many, many volunteers who work as camp directors, counselors, chaplains, builders, painters, fixers, and friends. Without their dedication we could not have the ministries and facilities that we do.

Sewee Coastal Retreat Center

Though the eye can still see some of the reminders of Hurricane Hugo in the surrounding forests Sewee Coastal Retreat Center is now the eye of activity. In the past year caretaker John Baker has hosted more than 6,000 users of Sewee's facilities. The new lodging units, dining area, swimming pool and bath house, fishing lake and pier have been the meeting place for church groups, Scouts, local government agencies, Emmaus communities, Salkehatchie workers, and Shalom Zone day campers. 1995 marks the first year of summer programming at Sewee as well. An equestrian camp was offered as well as swimming lessons for the community. Response was gratifying and signups have already begun for the five program offerings for the summer of 1996. We are pleased to announce that Mrs. Laura Gerber has been retained to serve as Summer Program Director. Her expertise and dedication give us great strength.

Volunteers are playing a large part in the rebirth of Sewee. UMVIM workers are working on the manager's residence as this report is being written, hoping for a late spring completion. Groups from a good number of churches have taken a large part of this project also. Volunteers are being utilized in conjunction with local contractors in the renovation of the recreation building, the lone survivor of Hugo. It is hoped that by the summer of 1996 this facility will be available as a screened shelter for groups to use. The spacious front porch will provide a comfortable setting in which to rock and think and talk and watch the traffic on the Waterway.

A group of United Methodist workers known as NOMADS did a great deal of work this winter, including the addition of an outdoor chapel, erecting a cross on our pier, electrical work at our tent camping and RV sites, the addition of shelves and curtains in our lodging units, and the construction of new picnic tables.

The Board of Camps and Retreats invites South Carolina United Methodists to come out and see their beautiful property at Sewee, to celebrate its rebirth, to use its facilities, and to experience the Creator's blessings in this unique setting.

Paul Frey

THE BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

"Where there is no vision," writes the ancient sage, "the people perish. . ." (Proverbs 29:18a, KJV). But vital as is a vision, so is a realistic plan of implementation. The biblical tradition gives eloquent witness to the place of vision in the life of a community of faith. Visions, though rarely realized in their fullness, yet provide the stars by which a people shape their lives and destiny. Israel's prophets and sages dreamed of a world characterized by peace, justice, and mercy. Jesus spoke of a coming age when the ways of God would become the ways of God's people: as in Heaven, so on earth.

And so in spite of all our failures and human frailty, as a people of God we dream still and shape our lives by a vision more lofty than the reality within which we daily live. We dream, pray, and work toward the highest approximation of our grasp of goodness.

Two Emphases

Believing that it is better to do a few things well than attempt a multitude with limited effectiveness, the Conference Board of Church and Society deliberately selected two current issues for special focus: Racism and Prison Ministry. We are challenging the local churches of this Conference to deal constructively with these issues and providing specific program suggestions for consideration as each local church develops its own unique strategies for responding to what we believe are two matters of compelling and immediate concern.

Beyond Racism: The Local Church at Work

The Vision

We, as United Methodists, affirm that it is God's will that the church be open to all persons. If anyone is discriminated against, the essential nature of the church is violated. Reminding us of our common parentage, the writer of Malachi writes: "Has not one God created us?" (Malachi 2:10b, RSV). Clearly, the stance of the United Methodist Church, with respect to race, requires nothing less than an inclusive church in an inclusive society.

It is our judgment that persons of all faiths and beliefs, working together in a spirit of cooperation and understanding, can achieve a society that is free of the existing barriers of inclusiveness which include racial prejudice, fear, stereotyping, and the failure to provide equal access to employment, health care, education, housing, justice, and power.

The Program

Each church is unique; and, therefore, no single design for confronting the issue of racism is universally applicable. The following are offered as suggestions to the local churches of this conference as they attempt faithfully in the spirit of the caring Christ to work toward the elimination of racism in our midst.

- 1) Every new United Methodist Church started in South Carolina should be intentionally multiracial from the beginning.
- 2) A monthly praise service might be developed by each cluster or sub-district to bring persons of different backgrounds together in the joy that unites us all. This service might well include sermon, music, personal testimony, and opportunities for personal renewal and commitment. In most instances, a time other than Sunday morning would probably be preferable.
- 3) Structured, ongoing cooperative efforts between ethnically diverse churches or small groups within churches (e.g. Children's Ministry, UMYF, UMM, UMW, etc.)

might be encouraged. Among activities which might be shared by such cooperative groups are the following.

- a) visitation in nursing homes,
 - b) attending football games, Halloween projects, and participation in Salkehatchie Summer Service,
 - c) participation in Habitat for Humanity or some form of prison ministry,
 - d) volunteer work with literacy efforts, tutoring, or participation in the Drug Abuse Task Force, and
 - e) pulpit and choir exchange.
- 4) Bible studies which envision the multicultural nature of the Kingdom of God are suggested. The exchange of teachers between churches is encouraged.
 - 5) In a given cluster, each church might start an Adopt An Adult program in which an adult volunteer from one church is "adopted" by another church representing a different ethnic background. This volunteer would become involved in worship and other activities of the adopting church for a limited time so that he or she can share the life experience of that community.
 - 6) Within the District Council on Ministries or other appropriate formats, churches will be encouraged to share information about successful programs in the area of racial fellowship. These reports could in turn be shared with local churches through district newsletters, the Conference Council on Ministries, and the Advocate.
 - 7) Resources for combatting racism will be identified and made available to local churches. Resources for combatting racism are available from the General Church and from other sources such as the Palmetto Project, the NAACP, etc.

The Procedure

- 1) The Board of Church and Society will draft a letter for distribution to each church in the Conference citing the elimination of racism and racial prejudice as a chosen program priority by the Board. Each church will be asked to designate a committee, a work area, or a person who will assume responsibility for implementing this priority. Program suggestions will be included.
- 2) Drafted by the chairperson of the Conference Board of Church and Society, this letter will be sent to each pastor and to the Council on Ministries chairperson in each local congregations. A copy of the letter will be provided to each District Superintendent. In addition, members of the Board will be encouraged to write supportive letters to the local churches in their specific districts.
- 3) Members of the Conference Board of Church and Society will be available to meet with the District Councils on Ministry to explain the Board's recommended program and to promote strategies for overcoming racism.
- 4) Those persons who have received Facilitator training through the Office of Congregational Development should be made available as resource persons to local churches.
- 5) Cross-racial parings with churches of other denominations is an option when locally indicated.

A Proposed Program for Prison Ministry

One of the greatest opportunities for intentional Christian ministry is found within the thirty-two institutions presently operated by the South Carolina Department of Corrections and among the more than 18,000 persons who are incarcerated therein. Our Lord continually affirmed the worth of all human beings and taught that God's saving grace and the redemptive power of forgiving love are available to all persons. He called upon us to visit those in prison, saying, "Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me." If we as practicing Christians are content to adopt an "out of sight, out of mind" approach to those who populate our correctional facilities, we deny our shared humanity, and we forfeit the opportunity to bear witness to the love of God for all people.

The Board of Church and Society has chosen prison ministry as one of its two program priorities for 1997, believing that this is an area in which we who call ourselves United Methodists can have a profound effect, not only on individual lives, but also on a society which is increasingly fearful of a perceived growth in crime and disposed to respond in ways which emphasize punishment and revenge under the guise of justice. In the report to follow, we have identified a number of recommendations which we believe, if implemented, will help to mobilize the church as a powerful force in making our prisons places of healing, redemption, and transformation.

Any recommended program for prison ministry is founded on certain key assumptions. The Board commends the following:

- 1) To be effective, a program must exist at the level of the local congregation. It cannot be implemented by a board, committee, or task force at the conference level. Our task, then, is to sensitize, inform, and empower local congregations to develop their own models for prison ministry.
- 2) Ministry to individuals in prison, and to their families who remain in the community, can follow one of two models. The first is avowedly evangelical, one which aspires to bring the unchurched into a personal relationship with Christ. The other, which might be described as the "servant" model, seeks to minister to any man or woman as a reflection of God's love for all. Both are authentic Christian responses. In reality, we believe that prison ministry will exist on a continuum with specific activities falling somewhere between the two models. It is not so much the model as it is the ministry that matters.
- 3) While our thrust is on encouraging local United Methodist churches to engage in organized prison ministry, it does not follow that such ministry must take place within strict denominational boundaries. There are a number of interdenominational ministries in which United Methodists are presently involved. Among these are the Kairos Prison Ministry and Prison Fellowship.
- 4) It is impossible to engage in ministry to individuals in prison without becoming aware of larger systemic issues. Prisons play a key role in our society, a role which must be continually questioned and examined. A recommended program for prison ministry should also encourage congregations and individuals to address those systemic issues which ultimately determine the quality and character of our penal institutions.

With these as its underlying assumptions, the Board of Church and Society has prepared a series of recommendations for implementation in the 1997 church year. Taken as a whole, we believe these recommendations constitute a program through which United Methodists can serve as God's instruments in the transformation of both individual lives and social institutions. Although the recommendations which follow do not necessarily appear in priority order, the first recommendation, which focuses on informing and empowering local congregations, is absolutely critical.

- 1) The Board of Church and Society will assemble and distribute to all pastors in the Conference a prison ministry resource packet. The packet will include, but not be limited to, the following:
 - a) a list of all prisons in the state with the name and address of the warden and chaplain for each facility.
 - b) a list of identified needs and specific suggestions for ministry developed in concert with prison chaplains and representatives of major interdenominational prison ministry groups.
 - c) a description of those major groups now engaged in prison ministry, e.g., the Alston Wilkes Society, Kairos Prison Ministry, Prison Fellowship, together with local contact persons for each.
- 2) The Task Force on Prison Ministry, appointed in 1995 and reporting to the Board of Church and Society, should be retained at least through the 1997 church year to monitor, evaluate, and modify as necessary, the Board's recommended program.

- 3) Financial support in the form of grants not to exceed a combined total of $1550 shall be made available to the Kairos Prison Ministry and to Prison Fellowship. While neither organization has sought funding from the Annual Conference, the Board believes the strong interdenominational thrust of each organization warrants our support. These funds will be included in the Board's 1997 program budget.
- 4) A representative from the Board of Church and Society should be named to represent the Annual Conference on the Criminal Justice and Mercy Ministry Executive Committee of the Southeastern Jurisdiction.
- 5) Local congregations should be encouraged to plan and implement study groups to examine the role of prisons in our society. An excellent resource for assisting in such an endeavor is the South Carolina Corrections Alternative Network (SCCAN) operating under the auspices of the South Carolina Christian Action Council.
- 6) The Board asks that the Bishop consider calling a statewide convocation on prison ministries to be held during the latter half of 1997.

To support its recommended program, the Board has proposed a budget of $2350. This is inclusive of the $1550 in grant monies referenced in item 3 above, $600 for printing and dissemination of materials referenced in item 1, and $200 for the cost of convening the Task Force referenced in item 2. Please note that the cost of the recommended statewide convocation would have to be supported elsewhere in the conference budget.

The Board believes that, despite its modest cost, this proposed program will stimulate local churches and parishioners to become more involved in a vital area of Christian ministry. We urge its adoption by the Conference Council on Ministries and by the Annual Conference.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education has continued to provide important expression to the growth of persons in the dedication of their minds, along with their hearts, to Jesus Christ. Following our Wesleyan heritage, we continue to have education as a strong focus for the entire Conference. One important development this year is our recommendation to the Committee on Standing Rules to make the Chairpersons of the Age Level Councils to be participating members of the Board. We hope that you will support this recommendation, which should appear in the Standing Rules report to the Annual Conference. Another significant development is that the Disciple Bible Study will be held again in Columbia in June to provide intense Bible study for adults, young adults, and youth. Special efforts are being made to recruit persons from smaller churches with limited financial resources. A pilot project in Basic Christianity will be held in November. This will be a training event by our General Board to help us instruct newborn Christians in the faith, along with many twice-born in the Faith!

Twenty-eight Christian Education workshops were held during the past year in the Districts. One thousand nine hundred and ninety-six persons attended these training sessions, reflecting a forty percent increase in participation over 1994. The workshops were held in Teacher Training, Curriculum, Human Sexuality, and Vacation Bible School. Fourteen local churches in five Districts receive Christian Education grants.

We deeply appreciate the hard work of many persons in helping us grow dedicated minds to the cause we all love.

John Stapleton, Chairperson

THE COUNCIL ON SINGLES MINISTRY

The purpose of the Council is to be an advocate for single adults on the Conference, district and local church levels. The Council, through various events, is establishing channels of communication between single adults throughout the South Carolina Conference.

During 1995 the Council sponsored two weekend retreats, which were held at Springmaid Beach and Asbury Hills. In addition, we also sponsored a one day event in Anderson and a picnic at Billy Dreher Island. We vary the location of the events in order to appeal to single adults in all areas of the State.

The Council meets quarterly to plan these events. Committees are formed as necessary to plan specific events.

Robin Roland, Chairperson

THE COUNCIL ON OLDER ADULT MINISTRIES

The Council on Older Adult Ministry in South Carolina is alive, active, exciting, and encouraging.

During the current Conference year we have provided for older adults in South Carolina:

A Happening at Columbia College in June

A Spiritual Retreat at Springmaid Beach in February

Finally we reached "big numbers" with nearly 200 participants at the Spiritual Retreat under the leadership of the Reverend Jan Brittain.

In addition to these three annual events, we continue to provide a ministry to local churches and be blessed ourselves through the Senior Adult Caravan program. We have had Caravan consultation visits at six churches and have additional ones planned for the fall. We continue to believe that this program will tremendously affect the effectiveness of older adult ministry in our Conference and welcome inquiries for all our local churches and charges.

We were pleased to have had older adult sessions included in many district leadership training events, and we welcome such opportunities at any time.

Visit the Board of Education table in the Display area to secure brochures, including registration information, for upcoming events for South Carolina older adult Methodists.

THE FAMILY COUNCIL

1995 was the first year that the South Carolina Family Council acted as a programming unit. The first full Council meeting was held January 11, 1995 with each district assigning two representatives. No funding for programs/events was available in 1995 so emphasis was on training, organizing and communicating through flyer and Advocate articles. A training event was planned and held to equip district leaders to promote the use of the study book, Family: Drawing the Circle Wide on February 28, 1995.

August 15, 1995 - Full Council meeting to organize subcommittees to carry out the approved proposals for 1996. The Committees are as follows:

- 1) Communications: Task is to provide printed articles for publication in the monthly Advocate, prepare bulletin inserts and mailings for local churches;
- 2) Intergenerational Workshops: Task is to plan for the trainings for intergenerational learning settings. Focus is on participating with the Conference-wide Soul Training Event in Columbia in September 1996 by providing workshops and speakers pertaining to family ministry.
- 3) Leadership Training for Local Church Use of the study, Family: Drawing the Circle Wide. A tri-district event for Orangeburg, Charleston, and Walterboro districts was held November 5, 1995 in Summerville.
- 4) Vision and Goals for 1997: Task is to provide program planning to include emphasis on Marriage Enrichment, Human Sexuality, Drugs/Alcohol, and Parenting and to incorporate resource networking for family helps.

At the close of the first full year as a Conference Family Council, the decision has been made to downsize to one representative (rather than two) from each district, and three officers. The Chair of the Family Council will be a member of the Board of Education. Each district representative will be provided training and resources to assist their districts with the Leadership Orientation Meetings and other programming needs in their districts.

THE CHILDREN'S COUNCIL

The purpose of the Children's Council is to equip local churches to share the gospel with all children, calling them to be disciples of Jesus Christ.

To carry out this purpose the Children's Council is organized with an Executive Committee and five subcommittees. The five subcommittees are: Advocacy, Health and Family Issues, Training, Weekday Programs, and Worship. The subcommittees are organized as area committees and carry out the functions of the Children's Council.

The Children's Council has worked hard to establish goals and vision that would enable children to be a focus point in the South Carolina Annual Conference.

Laura Gerber, Chairperson

THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

Evangelism is that ministry of the church that supports and undergirds all other ministries of the church. Evangelism is spreading the "Good News." Evangelism is a vital ministry of the Church.

The Board of Evangelism strives to work with the local churches where evangelism takes place; and to encourage an all out effort to start evangelistic projects in churches where there is no real or non-working projects in Evangelism, thereby clearing up misconceptions about evangelism, creating self-esteem within the church and the community and having members caring and sharing for as well as with one another.

The Board of Evangelism is presently looking at the feasibility of "ministry with the poor," ie, to establish a unified plan for immediate ministry and long term ministry with the poor.

Another program again this year will be ministry to the unchurched, "hard living people." This program will help people witness beyond their comfort zone, helping open the church doors to the poor, offering alternative worship opportunities that attract community (especially the young people), and models for ministry in the community. In 1995 district workshops were encouraged. The Bishop's School of Ministry, designed for lay and clergy, attracted many participants.

The 1995 Bishop's B.A.S.H. (Becoming A Sharing Heart), drew nearly 500 confirmands from around the state. The Board of Evangelism continues to support two awards: The Harry Denman Award and The Five Star Church Award.

The Board of Evangelism continues to be concerned about membership trends in South Carolina and supports the effort to continue to print a recapitulation of net gain/loses for each church.

The Board of Evangelism welcomes ideas of what worked "for you" in your congregation so that it could be share with other Christians throughout South Carolina.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE

This year Golden Cross allied health scholarships have been awarded to six young persons for a total of $2150. Medical assistance has been granted to eleven individuals for a total of $6,891.52.

A grant of $12,000 was given to The Methodist Home in Orangeburg to help the home provide an additional duplex for a retired Methodist minister. Currently there are three duplexes at The Methodist Home in Orangeburg and three apartments at The Greenwood Methodist Home for ministers.

In lieu of offering another AIDS seminar, the board contributed $1,000 to PALLS and $1,000 to the Christian Action Council for AIDS education and training members in local churches for AIDS ministry.

Mr. David Buckshorn has been named Executive Director of the Greenwood Methodist Home. He has been the administrator at the health care center and is a licensed Health Care Administrator. Dr. Gareth Scott will return to the pastoral ministry in the South Carolina Conference.

The Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee has completed two new wings, one with apartments for assisted living and an infirmary. The first patio homes are in the final planning stages.

The Rev. Burt Sheffield, Executive Director of the Methodist Home in Orangeburg, retired in March after ten years in which he has given extraordinary leadership. He will be succeeded by Mrs. Johnnie Bench who has served on the Home's Board of Directors and was Administrator of the Oakwood Health Care Center in Walterboro. Under Rev. Burt Sheffield the home has added additional property, built the Stringer Chapel, the Walsh condominiums, and the nursing medical facility as well as renovated much of the existing buildings. The new medical facility will be named The C. Burton Sheffield Nursing-Medical Center in his honor and as a token of gratitude for his service to The Methodist Home.

Under the leadership of Dr. Richard Hodges the services of Epworth Children's Home continues to expand both on campus and in the community.

More details of the work of the individual institutions is found in their respective reports.

The Older Adult Council and the Board of Health and Welfare jointly sponsored a seminar in Columbia for Older Adults. Another seminar is being planned for this year at Ashland United Methodist Church, June 12th and 13th.

Ms. Joanne Johnson, a member of Bluff Road United Methodist Church has been trained as a health consultant by the Board of Global Ministries' Board of Health and Welfare Ministries Department. She is available to churches to assist in developing health related ministries within the local church.

THE GREENWOOD METHODIST HOME

The past two years have been a time of transition. During these months, we have studied our structure as it compares to other institutions similar to the Greenwood Methodist Home. We have discovered there are some things we are doing very well, some things we are not doing well, and some things we don't need to be doing at all. In response to these findings, we now operate under the following structure.

The Heritage Foundation, chaired by long-time friend and supporter Boykin Curry, Jr., has the responsibility of funding and managing our Endowment Fund. Already our Endowment fund has more than doubled. The Foundation also has the responsibility for future development of our campus. Plans are being made for additional cottages and an Assisted Living Wing. The Foundation consists of some of Greenwood's most capable leaders and will play a vital role in the future development of the Greenwood Home.

A Management Advisory Committee consisting of two members of the Board of Trustees of the Foundation and two members of the Board of Trustees of the Greenwood Methodist Home meets with the Executive Director at least monthly to offer guidance in the management of the Home. The experience and wisdom of this committee will assist the Executive Director in making sound business decisions from a much broader perspective.

Banyan Retirement Services, Inc. of Greenville is available as Management Consultants to the Foundation, the Management Advisory Committee, and the Executive Director to provide information, guidance and make recommendations which will enable the Greenwood Home to remain competitive in the very complicated and highly competitive health care field.

Newly appointed Executive Director, David Buckshorn, is providing excellent leadership of the Greenwood Methodist Home as it moves into the future. We have been greatly impressed with David's deep and abiding commitment to the ministry of the Greenwood Home. This along with his maturity and knowledge of the health care industry will enable David to lead the Home into a time of growth and renewal.

Take all of the above along with a wonderful and caring staff and build upon the solid foundation laid by the dedicated work of Dr. Ted Morton and you have all of the ingredients for success. And that is what we see ahead for the Greenwood Methodist Home. Success will be in the continued ministry of service for the elderly which was only a dream in the late 1960's. Success will be in a sound financial base and good business practices. Success will be in growing in the ability to meet the needs of the growing number of elderly persons. Most of all, success will be in remembering who we are and why we are here.

The office of president will be eliminated. By his own request, Gareth Scott will return to the parish taking an appointment in June. The structure we now operate under in more in keeping with other facilities similar to the Greenwood Methodist Home. We believe this structure will enable us to be more competitive in health care as we practice good stewardship with all that is given us in this ministry.

UNITED METHODIST MANOR OF THE PEE DEE

Ministry takes a variety of forms and at the United Methodist Retirement Homes in South Carolina the number of persons taking part in that ministry and benefiting from the ministry is growing. As more people move into the category of being over-65, there will be even more need for the services provided by these ministry agencies. To help meet some of the need, and because United Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee has again filled the spaces presently available for residents, a second building expansion program will begin in mid-1996. Additional space will be available for The Wesleyan Suites (assisted living) to include an enlarged dining/activity area, more resident rooms, and a 16-bed special care unit for persons affected by dementia/Alzheimer's disease. The Health Care Center will have 22 additional beds for residents needing skilled nursing care.

The community life at Methodist Manor will be enhanced by the addition to the campus of a chapel. Though the generosity of a donor who desires to remain anonymous, The Chapel at Methodist Manor will be begun also in mid-summer, 1996. The Chapel, connected to the present building by a weatherized walkway, will house a worship setting to seat about 170 people, including special provisions for persons with handicapping conditions, as well as space for formal programs and small-group meetings. An adjacent Chaplain's Office will be part of this addition. There will be opportunity for the designation of memorial/honoring gifts for furnishings.

A new component of The Methodist Manor neighborhood is the patio home community currently under development. Offering choices of 1- or 2- bedroom homes, the first phase of development will contain 12 homes. Residents in the patio homes will enjoy the security and comfort of being part of United Methodist Manor while also enjoying the benefits of private-home living.

We are grateful for the opportunities we have to be involved in a positive way in the lives of our 170+ residents and their families. It is with a sense of privilege that we look forward to continuing in the name of The United Methodist Church in South Carolina the ministries of care and compassion provided through Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee.

EPWORTH CHILDREN'S HOME

The Wesleyan tradition of providing care for neglected, abused and orphaned children of South Carolina was continued by Epworth. Referrals to us are mostly high-risk children - meaning that they are from dysfunctional families and are difficult to reach. We are taking some degree of risk in caring for them but we remain committed to protecting them and helping them to develop their God-given potential.

We are privileged to be the vessel through which this Annual Conference can provide a broad range of services to children, youth and their families. Deeply rooted in the traditions of the church and dependent upon the United Methodist of South Carolina to sustain its life, Epworth has completed 100 years of ministry.

The Epworth Learning Center is a wonderful asset. "At-risk" children who cannot live at home become "at-promise" children who succeed academically, socially, and emotionally. Richland School District One refers some day students who are not having success in the public school system. Children in this program read and passed tests with 80% mastery on over 2500 books. Standardized CTBS tests given in October, 1994 and again in May 1995 showed an average gain of 15 percentile points over the national average. The Arts-in-Education Program through the South Carolina Arts Commission and the Joseph Miller Foundation provided grants to produce, with the assistance of The Southeastern Players of Columbia, the musical, "Wizard of Oz". All of the students in the Epworth Learning Center participated in the production, playing the various roles, learning sound and lighting technology, set and costume design. The Epworth Learning Center has participated in the 5-year review by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and passed. The Media Specialist is now full-time which allows greater use of the library. A class for students with learning and emotional disabilities was opened in the Special Care Unit with a certified teacher, instructional aide, and therapeutic assistants.

Three students graduated from high school and matriculated to higher education. Five students are currently enrolled in higher education.

The self-study for reaccreditation by the National Council of Accreditation continues. The arduous self-examination involves staff, trustees, service users and referral sources, and is followed by a peer team review. Epworth is the only church-related agency in South Carolina which holds this accreditation and is a full member of the Child Welfare League of America.

There were no major additions to any existing buildings. We continue to make improvements to interiors of buildings by painting, replacing carpet, curtains, and pictures. Several roofs were repaired. The Health Center building was painted and the north wing improved to house the Visitation Center. Underground computer cables were installed from the Learning Center to the Special Care Unit. New underground cables are also installed for an updated telephone system. Handicap access ramps to two cottages and the church were completed. Two new vans were purchased to upgrade our fleet of vehicles.

Plans were drawn up for the church to house the program for Children with Disabilities and special Needs. It is presently located across town from campus. We are presently soliciting funds for this much needed relocation project.

During the year 173 children were served in residential group care, 9 in foster family care, 62 in in-family care, and 5 in higher education. 705 referrals were received, 330 applications were processed. We had 274 exploratory visits, and 79 children were admitted into care. We provided 66,430 days of care in direct services with an additional 22,630 days of in-family care, for a total of 81,060 days of care in fiscal year 1995. In some ways, Epworth has increased its outreach approximately 20% since last year through programs such as residential group care, foster family care, higher education, family preservation, family-counseling and mental retardation services.

Epworth's ministry continues to depend on the support of the churches through First Sunday, Mother's Day and Work Day offerings. We must always stand firm that we are the church without apology, providing the best possible services. Without strong church support, Epworth will not only be in a serious financial situation, but would lose some of its closeness to the churches. It is essential to maintain this strong tie. We never want to say "no" to a hurting child. The Board of Trustees continues to be committed to providing as much service as our supporters are willing to underwrite.

Dr. Richard E. Hodges, a highly regarded professional in child care services, was selected by the board of trustees to steer this ministry into a new century.

We covet your continued prayers and support.

THE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

During 1995 the South Carolina Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry committed itself to the work of strengthening the connectional relationship between the local church and its ministry with college students through its own United Methodist colleges and Wesley Foundations. Recent years of decreased giving through apportionments have threatened the vital ministry accomplished through these significant ministries. During 1995, however, the Board invested in several interpretative resources and programs that have experienced some success. The apportioned funds received through the Campus Ministry line item and the Senior College Scholarship Fund in 1995, while slight, represented a renewed commitment to ministry through our Wesley Foundations and colleges.

It is crucial to the future of ministry to young persons in our state, that we continue to increase our support to them, not decrease it. Our Board is unanimous in recommending to the 1996 session of the Annual Conference that local churches not be asked to abandon or reduce their mission and ministry through higher education and campus ministry by being asked to pay less apportionments than the previous year.

Our Board met on January 7 and October 28, 1995. The Board's work was strengthened by the commitment of its members and by the effective resourcing of Jim Arant, who became our CCOM staff liaison during the year. A task force was formed to explore the best way to promote and interpret higher education of the S.C. Conference. Because in 1997 the total histories of the United Methodist Colleges will represent 500 years of Christian higher education in South Carolina, the Board is requesting the Committee on the Annual Conference to focus on Christian Higher Education during the 1997 Annual Conference. The Board finalized its policy and procedures for selecting a recipient of the Francis Asbury Award. This award recognizes significant contributions made by an individual who fosters the church's ministries in higher education at the local, district or annual conference level of the church. The board continues to support the Annual Student Day offering, which make Merit Scholarships possible to some of our brightest and neediest students. The United Methodist Foundation Scholars program continues to award one $1,000 scholarship to a student each year. On May 3, 1995, the Janie Robinson Thomasson Memorial Scholarship Fund was established as a memorial to the late Mrs. Thomasson by her son, Dr. Frederick Y. Thomasson. Beginning with the 1996-97 academic year, the Scholarship Committee of our board will select a United Methodist Student to receive the $1,000 scholarship.

The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry continues to support the proposal to fund full time Wesley Foundation Directors at 100% of their salaries approved by the Board. College Bound and Youth College link-up continue to be strong programs designed to acquaint young people with the opportunities provided them through our United Methodist Colleges. The S.C. United Methodist Student convocation, The Student Forum, and the Sea Islands work project offer students challenging life-changing experiences.

Local church support is critical for ministry to continue in Higher Education through the Africa University Fund, the Black College Fund, the Senior College Fund, and Campus Ministry.

CLAFLIN COLLEGE

For the second consecutive year Claflin College enrolled more than 1,000 students, confirming the stability of recent growth. To provide residences the college has purchased and rented houses nearby, as well as renovating existing dormitories. Claflin plans to expand the campus as real estate becomes available and to construct a 200-bed living/learning center as part of the next capital campaign.

Claflin this year rehabilitated Trustee Hall, began a massive renovation of James S. Thomas Science Center, resurfaced campus paving, erected a marquee at the Jonas T. Kennedy Center, and planted dozens of decorative trees.

Academics added a major in mass communications, employing a partnership with Jones Intercable which broadcasts a weekly hour-long program from Claflin's campus TV studio with students operating the equipment. The Center of Excellence in Science and Mathematics received a 300 Mhz nuclear magnetic resonance spectrometer from the Ethicon Division of Johnson & Johnson Companies; this equipment, valued at $300,000, puts Claflin among a select few South Carolina colleges with such resources. The Concert Choir released a compact disc, A Tradition of Spirituals, and made its debut European tour before enthusiastic audiences.

Marking the 125th anniversary year Claflin published two books: On A Hilltop High: The Origin and History of Claflin College to 1984 by Dr. Blinzy L. Gore, and Men of Vision: Claflin College and Her Presidents by Ms. Vivian Glover. Claflin also figures prominently in Freedom and Justice, a book by alumnus Cecil J. Williams covering four decades of the civil rights struggle as seen by a black photographer.

In October 1995 Claflin inaugurated 1965 alumnus Henry N. Tisdale Ph.D. as the eighth president. Dr. Tisdale has announced the goal of making Claflin one of the premier liberal arts colleges in the southeast. An active United Methodist layman, he intends to strengthen the college's ties and service to the Church.

COLUMBIA COLLEGE

The 1995-96 academic year has been extraordinarily exciting, productive, and spirit-filled. In September U.S. News and World Report rated Columbia College among the Five Best Liberal Arts College in the South for the second consecutive year. Over the past two years eight of our faculty have been chosen as the best in their discipline for the state and Ann Fleshman was selected the National Outstanding Developmental Educator. In February, Columbia College was one of five colleges and universities across the country to receive the Theodore Hesburg Award for Faculty Development. The Hesburg award, sponsored by the Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association, was presented at the American Council of Education national meeting. The impact of our regional and national recognition on recruitment has been phenomenal with applications up over 25%. Even more impressive, applications with SAT scores above 1,000 are up 48%.

The calibre of student continues to improve as evidenced by a increase of 26 points in the average SAT of the current freshmen, in addition to the 49 point gain last year. In addition to standardized test scores, students choosing Columbia College have stronger high school grades and leadership experiences in school, church, and community. The combination of challenging academic coursework, leadership development, and a strong emphasis on moral and spiritual growth creates a unique environment for Columbia College students to mature into women of substance and integrity.

The Columbia College Campaign for Leadership was completed with a grand celebration. When the Columbia College Campaign for Leadership began, our $10.5 million, five year goal seemed very ambitious. Instead, the campaign raised $17.2 million, exceeding the goal by 63% and providing a powerful tribute to the heritage, current mission, and strategic plan for the future of this noble college.

The goal of Columbia College is to be a major force for women, for leadership, for values, for spirituality, and for progressive change in our state and region. The Leadership Institute, the close ties with the Annual Conference, the dedication of faculty and staff, the loyalty of alumnae and friends, and the enthusiasm of students will make our goal a dynamic and meaningful reality.

Peter T. Mitchell, President

WOFFORD COLLEGE

Building upon momentum that has developed since the adoption of a 1987 Master Plan "To Improve Quality," Wofford continues to enjoy increasing recognition as one of the nation's truly outstanding liberal arts colleges. The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching lists 633 institutions as "primarily undergraduate with major emphasis on bachelor's degree programs." A total of only 163 of these (including Amherst, Williams, Swarthmore, Davidson, Washington & Lee and Wofford) qualify for BA-I status, based primarily on the qualifications of their faculties and student bodies. The BA-I colleges and universities are called "national liberal arts colleges" by U.S. News & World Report, which ranks Wofford in the top half of this very selective category and among the most efficiently managed colleges and universities of its kind. Most of the important higher education "best buys" lists also recognize Wofford's combination of exceptional academic quality with national-average tuition and fees, including the ones published by the Fiske Guide to the Colleges and Money magazine.

Another new national recognition for Wofford has come this year with its selection by Peterson's Guides as one of the nation's outstanding 190 colleges for the study of the biological, chemical, geological, mathematical and physical sciences. Several large grants from national foundations this year have validated this judgment. A four-year grant from the Howard Hughes Medical Institute has provided funds with which Wofford has initiated several efforts for the improvement of science education, not only on campus but throughout the state. In December, Wofford coordinated an effort with the Hughes Institute and South Carolina ETV to make a series of Nobel Prize lectures widely available via satellite. The Andrew Mellon Foundation of New York has awarded Wofford and Furman University a grant to expand and share library resources and to offer workshops to educate faculty in the use of emerging teaching technologies.

Outside of the classroom, a new dean and associate dean of students were appointed in August. They already have increased the amount and quality of student life programming, and have initiated planning task forces to consider other changes. Perhaps the outstanding feature of student life at Wofford in the mid-1990's is the work of the campus ministry and other offices in helping students "learn to serve and serve to learn." While the college is in session, Wofford students provide about 1500 free hours per week in volunteer support to the various human service agencies of Spartanburg. A particularly valuable relationship is the one that the college enjoys with the Bethlehem Center, another agency of the United Methodist Church. In fact, Wofford has offered to provide more than $11,000 in used Nautilus equipment so that the Bethlehem Center can work toward opening a new gymnasium in Spartanburg's inner city.

The major addition to the campus this year has been the Richardson Physical Activities Building. It adds a fitness center, racquetball courts, weight room, offices and meeting spaces, and frees much-needed space in the Campus Life Building for better use by students and occasional users like the Annual Conference. The Richardson Building has allowed the college to bring its campus into more efficient year-round use, through hosting such summer programs as Palmetto Boys' State, the Wofford Summer Program for Academically Talented Students, several other academic camps and activities, and the annual training camp of the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League.

Several years ago, Wofford began a gradual program of upgrading its intercollegiate athletics program to NCAA Division I status. This process moved ahead of schedule late in 1996, when the college accepted an invitation to join the historic Southern Conference. Through this step, old rivalries will be renewed with outstanding academic institutions like Davidson and Furman, expenses can be carefully controlled, and the athletics program will continue to be an integral and appropriate part of the Wofford experience.

Wofford's fiscal health continues to be excellent. The 1994-95 fiscal year was completed with a small surplus. Enrollment remained consistent with projections at an average of 1050 for the fall and spring terms. Men make up about 55 percent of the student body, and minorities about 9 percent. About two-thirds of the students come from the State of South Carolina, and United Methodist enrollment remains at 26 percent. Particularly important to this fiscal stability are exceptional student retention and graduation rates. About 90 percent of Wofford freshmen typically return for their sophomore year, and almost 80 percent earn bachelor's degrees in the traditional four years.

Again in 1995, Wofford alumni, parents, the United Methodist Church and other friends were generous with their financial support. Total gifts for the year amounted to $9.2 million from some 6,500 contributors. Gifts for endowed scholarships exceeded $5 million, which will enable greater support for deserving students of the future. The Senior College fund experienced its first increase in several years, providing critical scholarship aid for United Methodist students.

Wofford is blessed to have such generous support from a broad constituency, but the campus's physical needs and the demand for scholarship assistance for worthy students will require continued unselfish support for the future. Most of the dollars needed for Wofford's $20.9 million annual operating budget still come from tuition and fees as partially supported through various programs of college, government, and private financial aid. The percent of students who are receiving financial assistance has now risen above 76percent. An ever-increasing percentage of this aid is coming in the form of loans, which place a heavy burden on young graduates entering the work force. Affordability of a Wofford education is one of the greatest fiscal challenges for our families today. We do not want costs to prevent a student from attending our church-related college.

The Board of Trustees is committed to Wofford achieving the college's Long Range Goals. The college's priorities include strengthening its relationship with the United Methodist Church, creating a campus-wide technology network, increasing the diversity of the student body, funding curriculum initiatives, acquiring property, and improving the campus facilities and grounds. The faculty and staff strive to meet these goals and prove worthy of the church's support.

THE CITADEL WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Citadel Wesley Foundation continues to offer a United Methodist presence on the campus, providing a source for Christian growth and fellowship. We try to be a link between the cadets and their home churches as well as United Methodist Churches in the Charleston area.

The 1995-96 year was stressful and difficult in many ways, yet wonderful things happened. One of our cadets took part in the Sea island Work Camp. The Monday evening meeting continued to be a strong ministry. As a joint effort with the College of Charleston, the average attendance was 64. Students met for a variety of programs, Bible study, worship and fellowship. Area churches provided refreshments.

A joint fall retreat was held with 22 persons attending. Nine attended the state Convocation. Other activities included a July planning day, an officers' dinner, and work on a house for the United Methodist Relief Center.

The Campus Minister accompanied a group of cadets to the National Student Leadership Forum on Faith and Values in Washington in September. Pastoral opportunities included counseling, grief support and two weddings.

Campus ministers at The Citadel work in cooperation with the corps chaplain. The cooperative effort includes an August religious orientation, a freshman banquet and the annual religious emphasis.

At least 108 cadets took part in the Wesley Foundation in some way during the year.

Appreciation goes to our capable officers and to Mrs. Jenny Goodman and the District Committee on Campus Ministry for their work guidance and encouragement. It has been a pleasure to work jointly with Rev. Kay Adams Best and Rev. Mike Henderson of the College of Charleston Wesley Foundation. Gratitude also goes to Asbury-St. James Church for their patience and support in sharing their pastor in campus ministry.

James H. Williams, Campus Minister

THE COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON WESLEY FOUNDATION

The College of Charleston Wesley Foundation strives to meet the needs of and encourage the faith development of United Methodist students and their friends.

The primary fellowship group is the Monday evening meetings, which is held jointly with The Citadel Wesley Foundation. Student leadership for this group is divided equally between the two campuses. The combined gathering continues to be important to our students, providing them with a forum for discussion of faith issues as well as support and friendships. During the year we have experienced a significant increase in the number of College of Charleston students participating and providing leadership for Wesley Foundation.

The United Methodist presence continues to be known by our participation in the College of Charleston Religious Life Council. Besides regular meetings of student representatives and the campus ministers, we have participated in activity fairs, ecumenical worship services and national state gatherings. The United Methodist representative has served as secretary to the Interfaith Council and the campus minister has served as faculty/staff advisor. One of the most significant events the group has sponsored and planned is the Baccalaureate service of worship held during the spring commencement weekend.

Additionally, we have started four other group meetings: there is now a "Lunch Bunch" that meets on Tuesday; a Wednesday morning "Young Men's Support Group"; a "Wednesday Night Bible Study" held in conjunction with the Presbyterian Campus Ministry; and a "Thursday Mid-Morning Discussion Group" centered around current issues.

CLEMSON WESLEY FOUNDATION

"A stream in the wilderness..." The Clemson Wesley Foundation continues its mission of making the life-giving, life-changing water of Jesus Christ available and accessible to the young travelers journeying through the college wilderness at Clemson. In a major renovation effort currently underway we are ensuring that our thirty year old physical facilities are attractive, inviting, welcoming, and accessible to all students who may be seeking to develop and/or strengthen their relationship with God during their studies at Clemson.

During the past year we have continued our long tradition of offering regular spiritual development and growth opportunities to students through our weekly, student-led worship experience, discussion groups on Tuesdays and Thursdays (led by our inspiring friend - Dr. Louis Henry), and Sunday School and Worship at Clemson UMC. We sponsored Clemson University's second annual Holocaust Awareness Month, (a program that we developed and established), the events of which were featured weekly in the school newspaper during the month of September. We also cosponsored the framing of a Habitat for Humanity house during CUs Homecoming Week, and participated in other missions via the annual Sea Islands Mission Project, and weekly visits to a local shelter for abused children.

As the United Methodist Campus Minister to Clemson University, I felt it necessary this past year to take a stand on behalf of the young people I have been called to shepherd and serve. A move to sell alcohol in the university football stadium on Sundays, in open defiance of state law, I felt clearly encouraged the problems of alcohol misuse and abuse among young people that we experience regularly in college communities. I led the opposition to a local referendum, as well as the court battle, in an effort to demonstrate to the young people in Clemson that someone in the Church understands the dilemma with which they are faced - laws that say one thing, and examples that say another. I am confident that God was present in the effort and I am grateful for the support and encouragement I received.

The ministry of the Clemson Wesley Foundation would not be possible without the support of the congregations of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the guidance and support of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry and our local Board of Directors, and for that we are most grateful. We are thankful for the participation in this ministry of the good folks at St. Mark-Seneca, Mt. Zion-Central, and Friendship-Seneca. We remain especially grateful for the generous local support of Clemson UMC and for the good relationship we enjoy with them.

Ron Singleton, Campus Minister

COLUMBIA WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Columbia Wesley Foundation in partnership with Lutheran Campus Ministry is known as PALM (Partnership Among Lutheran and Methodists) on the campuses of the University of South Carolina and Columbia College. We seek to witness to the "good news" of Jesus Christ by providing opportunities for ministry and mission to, with, and by students, staff and faculty.

The Wesley Foundation continues to provide a place of hospitality for a variety of people and groups. The community is enriched and strengthened by the sharing that goes on among the people of diverse denominational, racial, cultural, and national backgrounds. We have two campus ministry associates who are African-American preministerial students. They are particularly helpful in keeping us tuned in to the needs and perspectives of African-American and other minority students. They led a Bible study and support group particularly for African-American students. Arkwork, our multi-cultural, multi-racial action and study group, works to raise awareness and create dialogue on campus and with local church youth groups regarding issues of race, culture, and gender. We have also hosted the leaders of a diverse assortment of groups on campus for dinner/discussion meetings designed to promote understanding and reconciliation.

The weekly Body and Soul (a meal, devotion, and program) and Sunday morning worship and dinner are our most popular activities. The worship experience regularly involves student leadership: preaching, reading, music, drama, etc. The service always includes the Eucharist and yet varies in styles: contemporary, traditional, contemplative and "black church."

Students have been outstanding in serving others this year through nursing home visitation, work with children at the Columbia Bethlehem Center every weekday afternoon in an after-school program established by one of our students, and regular work at a soup kitchen and Oliver Gospel Mission. Additionally, we again organized a campus-wide hunger banquet, fast, and inter-faith Thanksgiving service. Students raised some $1,200 for Oxfam America. They were also involved in the AIDS Walk and CROP Walk.

A drama group and music group were begun to enhance our worship and to offer programs at local churches. Students have gone out to tell the story of campus ministry to create greater awareness in our local churches.

The small group experience has also become an important part of our campus ministry. Four Covenant Discipleship groups have been organized for a more intentional, disciplined spiritual growth. A weekly Mid-day Prayer service is also core to PALM. We also have had a Thursday night Coffee House with live Christian entertainment in a relaxed atmosphere, attracting students from all over campus.

We have participated in various national, jurisdictional, and state-wide meetings: Southeast Jurisdictional Student Leadership Conference, United Methodist Student Forum, S.C. United Methodist Student Gathering, and the annual Sea Islands Work Camp.

Methodism began on a college campus, and it is still true today that the future direction of both church and world is in great measure determined by experiences of students in the formative university setting. It is vital to continue to offer the hope of Jesus Christ to this searching generation of students. Deep gratitude is offered to the students, board members, and local churches who give their support to make campus ministry a vital witness.

Tom Wall, Director

THE FRANCIS MARION UNIVERSITY WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation at FMU again became a close group of friends and disciples during the 1995-96 school year. Some of our most active members graduated last spring, leaving the positions of leadership to younger members. By losing some members to graduation and some to transferral, our meeting size has decreased, but the new participants have added much to the atmosphere. Our average attendance at the Tuesday night meeting is six students.

On an evaluation form, one member wrote that he wished we could meet more than just once each week. That feeling reflects the relevance of the Wesley Foundation setting in these students' lives.

We have fun. We laugh a lot. We discuss very serious aspects of Jesus' teachings about life. We share meals and Bible study insights. We occasionally hear a guest speaker talk about their particular area of Christian work. We participate in the February student convocation with United Methodist and Presbyterian campus groups from across South Carolina. The group led a deeply meaningful Sunday morning worship service at my two churches in Mars Bluff.

Being able to interact with these students at such a deeply spiritual level is truly rewarding. I wish I could be there for them (and many others on campus who could benefit from a pastor-friend) on a daily basis.

Steve A. Patterson, Jr., Campus Minister

THE FRANCIS MARION UNIVERSITY WESLEY FOUNDATION

The 1994-95 school year for our group was characterized by...

...the relaxed fun of Christian togetherness.

...the penetrating relevance of Jesus' teachings in our lives.

...the responsibility of serving others.

...the opportunity for ecumenical encounter, claiming what we have in common, respecting what makes us different, questioning what we do not understand.

These emphases shaped the Wesley Foundation into an informal but real congregation of the Body of Christ. I have been a pastor and brother to the students who attend our weekly meetings. My wife and I have become their friends.

Highlight activities included local laity and clergy occasionally becoming involved in the weekly fellowship times, home-cooked meals sponsored by local churches, and, most recently, a joint meeting/meal with the Baptist Student Union. Some students were involved in special worship services at a local United Methodist Church. Seven students attended the Student Convocation in Columbia, and several participated in volunteer service work in the community. The yearly average attendance at our meetings was eight students.

Most of the financial support for programming at the FMU Wesley Foundation comes from the donations of local churches in the Florence area. Their love gifts are appreciated and have been essential to the success of our work.

A frustration I have felt involves the extremely part-time nature of this appointment. While serving two thriving congregations full-time, my presence on campus with the students is necessarily relegated to an hour-and-a-half "visits" each week. There is much more that could be done. It is both a dream and a recommendation that the campus minister position at Francis Marion be seriously considered for a half-, if not full-time appointment in the near future. If there is an advantage to being a part-time pastor to these college students, it is that I can more naturally relate them to local church life than perhaps could a campus minister who did not pastor a congregation.

Being involved in the lives of these college students has been a joy, and I appreciate the chance to minister with them.

Steve A. Patterson, Jr., Campus Minister

FURMAN UNIVERSITY WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation at Furman University seeks to provide a context for spiritual growth and support for United Methodist students and their friends. The Wesley Foundation strives to offer a setting in which students can share and discuss issues of faith and life. Through study, service, worship and play, we encourage faithful living within the United Methodist tradition.

Wednesday evening continues to be the primary gathering night for the Wesley Foundation. A fellowship meal begins at 5:45 with the program following at 6:30. During the fall term, our programming was guided by the theme "Building a Bridge of Faith." It proved to be an exciting series as we sought to identify the sacred in music, in movies, in comics, in children's literature, and in creation. For the spring term, the officers have taken a somewhat different approach, with the starting point being a person rather than a topic. Making a list of those whose life and faith they respect – professors, community leaders, pastors – the officers have invited these people to come and share about "What matters most?"

In addition to the richness of programming, there is also a strong commitment to missions. These young adults long to put their faith into action. This year's Wesley Foundation supports two on-going missions. One is the adoption of a compassion child whose name is Tariku Hailenicael from Ethiopia. Support for this child takes the form of weekly prayers and offering. The second is the hands-on support which many Wesley Foundation students give to The Clubhouse Gang, an afterschool ministry that happens two days a week in a local church. Faith in action has become more central to the life of the Wesley Foundation this year, binding our students together in new and exciting ways.

Not only do many of our students participate in missions on Monday and Tuesday afternoons and in Wesley Foundation meetings on Wednesday evenings, but many of them also worship together on Sunday mornings at Monaghan United Methodist Church. What a joy it is to see 25 to 30 college students join a local congregation for worship each week!

We are grateful to the United Methodists of South Carolina for providing these and other opportunities for significant ministries within the Furman community.

Susan Leonard-Ray, Campus Minister

LANDER UNIVERSITY WESLEY FOUNDATION

Goals of Agency

1. To help coordinate religious activities on campus and campus-wide religious programming.
2. To be a resource person to campus religious organizations.
3. To serve as advisor to three on-campus Christian organizations.
4. To serve as a liaison between students and on-campus religious organizations and local churches.
5. To tell the Lander University campus ministry story to area churches.
6. To be available for pastoral counseling to students, faculty, and staff.
7. To intentionally identify students from liturgical backgrounds and seek to be in ministry with and for them.
8. To carry out general pastoral duties as needs arise.
9. To work in partnership with the Lander Council of Cooperative Ministries.
10. To promote the Students offering Unconditional Love (SOUL) program.

During 1995, Lander University enjoyed several important ministry accomplishments. The following paragraphs will describe some of the overall accomplishments of the ministry.

Lander Council of Cooperative Ministries

The LCCM consists of two campus ministers, and several clergy from the Greenwood area, who are interested in the educational and spiritual aspects of the Lander University community of faith. In April, the LCCM met with the student presidents of Christian oriented organizations to share programming ideas for the fall semester. During September, the LCCM held a five part series which focused upon relationships. These seminars were FALS approved.

Christian Life Council

The Christian Life Council advises the chaplain concerning campus ministry program activities. During the spring semester, two activities were sponsored by the CLC and the Lander University Campus Ministries. On February 28, a "unity walk" was held to promote racial unity and understanding. During Holy Week, a service of worship was held in CC 250. This service was well received.

During the fall semester, the Christian Life Council made preliminary plans to host a contemporary Christian music concert during the spring semester of 1996. Also, on Friday evening November 17th, a pizza party was held at Trinity Church, and this was followed by bowling at Emerald Lanes. Some 25 students participated in this social. On Monday evening December 4th, some 33 students and Lander University staff celebrated an Advent-Christmas worship service together.

Christian Organizations

As chaplain to Lander University, I relate to several student Christian oriented organizations. For example, on Tuesday August 29th, the Lander University Campus Ministries and various Christian organization, sponsored a welcome back cook out. This event was quite successful. Well over 100 persons attended this fulfilled gathering. I serve as advisor to three distinct student organizations. They are as follows: Chi Sigma, a Christian sorority; Chi Alpha Omega, a Christian fraternity; and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Also, as campus chaplain, I have often participated in the Minorities on the Move Bible study. In fact, I led this particular study on a number of different occasions during 1995.

Glenn McCoy, Campus Chaplain

ORANGEBURG WESLEY FOUNDATION

In the book Conjuring Culture, Dr. Theophus H. Smith quotes from the historian Carl Becker that, "The history of any event is never precisely the same to two different persons, and it is well known that every generation writes the same history in a new way, and puts upon it a new construction". Thus, the reporting of the history, events and ministries that our Campus Ministry was blessed with during the 1995-1996 Conference year may not be viewed by others the same as viewed by me. However, the events in this report are my perspective.

It is with abiding and Christian love that I communicate much thanks to God's people who make up the churches of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church for their support through their prayers, presence, financial gifts and services that have enabled and sustained campus ministry to be the church to persons involved in higher education at our institutions of higher learning.

We were blessed to be in ministry to the college community through our weekly Bible Study, Power Hour Worship experiences and Dialogue/Fellowship meal. Some of the gifted and talented leadership from the colleges and community were solicited to Converse with our students at our Dialogue/Fellowship meal sharing significantly their scholarship and expertises from their respective disciplines. Monthly, students entered into ministry with the local community by providing worship service at a Nursing Home and the County Jail. Students shared their religious faith with persons at these institutions through song, prayer, scripture and proclamation of the Word; followed by visitation with the residents.

Additionally, our students expressed love through mission to the local community by providing and taking Halloween treats to resident children of a housing project; provided food for a family during Thanksgiving; solicited, collected and contributed clothing for persons in need. A group of students eagerly, of their own volition, spent a week, without monetary gain, participated in our Sea Island Rural Mission Work Project, repairing homes in the Charleston area.

Retreats and travel were offered for students learning and exposure. Student Retreats involved participation in the Ecumenical Student Conference sponsored by the Presbyterian and United Methodists; Student Forum sponsored by the General Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry; Southeastern Jurisdiction Student Conference, St. Simmons Island.

Jimmy J. Montgomery, Campus Minister

WINTHROP WESLEY FOUNDATION

The United Methodists of South Carolina continue to provide a community which nurtures the faith journeys of students at Winthrop University by confronting them with a Gospel which is inclusive of all races and genders; that is hospitable to an ecumenical celebration of life and faith; and that seeks to discover authentic expressions of Christian love by expressing that love to and with the oppressed and dispossessed.

In partnership with the Presbyterians (USA) we provided programs on Wednesday evenings that reflected our commitment to spiritual nurture and our commitment to social justice issues; a weekly vesper service was held on Sundays; two discussion and growth groups were held each week; and the Action For Food student group met each week. We continued our vital participation and sponsorship of the York County CROP Walk, the Alyce T. Guettler Hunger Run, The Oxfam Fast, a campus wide Hunger Banquet, the homeless simulation "Home, Sweet Homeless," the Bread for the World letter writing campaign, and the sale of Guatemalan crafts from a women's cooperative. More than $24,400 was raised for hunger causes from these events as well as involving hundreds of students and community persons in becoming more sensitive to those who live on the margins of life both in our own communities and across the world. Our involvement with the children who have lived or are currently living in the Homeless Shelter next to Wesley continued to expand and grow. With the aid of Pilgrims' Inn we provided a site for elementary school children and a site for those in middle and high school where they could meet with Winthrop students for two hours each day after school. We also provided scholarships for 24 of these kids to attend a week of camp during the summer which proved to be a high point of their lives. We will continue to provide this opportunity for camping in a Christian environment for the coming summer.

Seven of our students were able to participate in a Witness for Peace Delegation to Guatemala during the break between semesters. Their experience in living with the indigenous people, listening to their stories of suffering and joy, visiting memorial sites of massacres and courage, reflecting upon the martyrs of the Church in Guatemala, and witnessing the accomplishments of the women of UPAVIM (the craft cooperative in a squatter settlement) was powerful and life changing. Since their return they have been busily engaged in sharing their experiences with their local churches, Sunday school classes, Winthrop classes and organizations, missionary circles, local Sierra Club, and Congressman John Spratt. The faith community which meets at the Winthrop Wesley Foundation has discovered God's grace in many unlikely places and through many ordinary persons. We continue to marvel at the mystery of faith which expresses itself through little children and old men and women, as well as through the energy and vitality of young adults. We are grateful to God and the South Carolina United Methodists for making all of this possible.

THE BOARD OF LAITY Report No. 1

By our baptism we are all initiated into the Christian fellowship of the United Methodist Church. We are also given our marching orders to do ministry. All Christians are called to ministry and discipleship by our baptism. The Board of Laity endeavors to build a strong laity in the United Methodist Church. Programs offered in the conference point toward a stronger spiritually, with skills for leadership and a yearning to be stewards of God's creation and resources.

Program of the Board of Laity include: Lay Speaking, Laity Convocation and Giving in the Local Church. The Lay Speaking Programs continues to be one of the most effective programs for lay training and spiritual growth in the conference. Currently over 1,000 persons are certified lay speakers and many others are local church lay speakers. In 1995, sixty-five people attended the Lay Speaker Instructor School, an event that trains persons to lead District Lay Speaking Schools. In 1995 the Basic Course, Lay Speakers Lead in Stewardship, Each One a Minister, Teaching the Basic Course to Youth, and A Ministry of Caring were offered at the school held at Ashland United Methodist Church in Columbia. There was also a special emphasis on teaching skills for adults.

The Laity Convocation was held at Lake Junaluska on August 11-13, 1995. One-thousand-three persons attended. Dr. Reginald Mallet was the keynote speaker for the weekend. Albert Aymer and Mary Francis Lynch offered workshops. The children's convocation continues to grow and has become a vital part of the weekend.

Local church consultations were held six congregations as part of the Giving in the Local Church program. A workshop with Ms. Helen Bell was also held. Over 200 persons participated in the seven events.

The Shirley Bethea Volunteer Award was given for the second time. Fifteen persons were nominated and Mrs. Lula Rouse was given the award presented at the 1995 session of Annual Conference.

Since lay leadership development is a major goal of the Conference Board of Laity a task force has been appointed to establish a program that will train and motivate lay persons across the state. The goal is to train 25% of all members in the United Methodist Church. This endeavor will be in cooperation with other training currently offered from other conference boards, commissions and committees. Other plans are for the Board of Laity to have a weekend event for spiritual growth. This weekend event is designed to enhance the spiritual lives of persons that attend so that they may become spiritual leaven for the congregations with which they relate.

Report No. 2

The nominating committee, as designated by Standing Rule 28(h), nominates Mrs. Carolyne Rogerson to serve as Conference Lay Leader for the 1997-2000 Quadrennium.

THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

The Board of Missions places great emphasis on mission ministry in the conference. Members are encouraged to take mission responsibility seriously, and to continue emphasizing mission education, service, and mission giving in our churches.

In 1995, we were inspired by the vital ministries of our 17 Conference Advance Specials that are partially funded by the Board of Missions. This Board continues to be an important channel through which the work of these agencies are supported.

We are particularly pleased with the leadership Reverend Janice Frederick-Watts in developing Cooperative Parish Ministry Guidelines. These guidelines were approved by this Board and referred to the appropriate Committee of the CCOM. This Board urges the conference to make adequate funds available in support of our Cooperative Parish Ministry.

We are pleased with the commitment of The Phoebe Taylor Clinic in continuing to provide for the medical needs of its patients through the arrival of a new doctor on staff. We applaud the efforts of Reverend Major Brown in providing assistance in facilitating the needs of the staff and board of The Phoebe Taylor Clinic.

Under the leadership of Catherine Bodison, we enthusiastically undertook working with the CCCD and the Joint Funding Committee under the new guideline that went into effect.

The Board of Missions remains concerned that the needs of small member churches are appropriately addressed by the CCCD and the Joint Funding Committee.

We stress the importance of the Shalom Ministry and its mission of "peace".

We continue to enthusiastically support the work of the "Task Force of Ministry With the Poor". The Board of Missions is represented on this task force. We applaud the conference's wisdom in the formation of this needed effort and encourage other agencies to participate more fully.

The Board of Missions acknowledge the glorious efforts of our worldwide program and connectionalism in support of Mission. We, however, encourage more mission involvement on the local church and conference level if we are to make the difference that we can make.

"Mission is not simply a program but the very nature of the church." – General Board of Global Ministries, "Decade For Difference"

SPARTANBURG METHODIST COLLEGE

During 1995 Spartanburg Methodist College, operating beneath the Annual Conference Board of Missions, helped develop the lives of 2,182 individual persons through its educational ministry. Strong missional links between the college, local churches, and the Conference offices helped provide a variety of educational programs to serve these persons. Our students, faculty, staff, and trustees join me in thanking United Methodists for SMC's place in the mission of the church and for the resources that the Churches provide for serving students.

Spartanburg Methodist College continues its proud heritage since 1911 of serving the disadvantaged by providing last year over $4.7 million dollars of financial aid to needy and worthy persons. Over 30% of all students came from families with incomes below the federal poverty level. Over 95% of the students received some form of financial aid. In addition to the South Carolina Tuition Grants and federal aid, the college provided over $2.1 million dollars of institutional funds to students.

As a two-year college, SMC continues to have strong enrollment. The enrollment in 1995 was 1064 in college credit curriculum, 110 in vocational and job training programs, and 1008 in summer workshops and conferences. The college's practice of maintaining the lowest fees among its peer accredited colleges in South Carolina enables a wide variety of students to get the excellent education offered in a church college. As a missional institution, this institution is unique in the independent sector by maintaining a flexible schedule for college degree programs for over 300 working adults. The high quality of the college program is measured by the success of its graduates when 83% transfer to a senior college or university, and 93% of those earn a baccalaureate degree. SMC is one of the nation's largest two-year independent colleges. In the two-year college community, SMC has become a national leader.

For a second straight year, church support of the college's ministry increased from $340,696 in 1993, $364,830 in 1994 to $367,985 in 1995. In fact, 71% of the $518,000 apportioned to the churches in 1995 was paid compared to a 70% average payment of lower apportionments during the three previous years. This increase in support strengthened the missional programs helping needy students. Each dollar contributed by United Methodists was spent in the following way: 43 cents for financial aid to needy students, 6 cents for pre-ministerial scholarships, 32 cents for scholarships to United Methodists, 10 cents for prison classes serving 69 inmates, and 9 cents for special learning equipment to help disadvantaged students. Church support becomes more vital each year as federal funds for student aid

The college is a learning community based on reason, faith, work, and service. The percentage of college students involved in jobs and service positions both off and on campus was over 90% in 1995. The college has a 1998 goal for all full time students to participate in a job or a community service project.

In our ministry together in missional higher education, we are challenged to build even stronger programs to help persons develop abundant lives. The college appeals to each local church to strengthen three missional links with us: 1) encouragement of United Methodist students to study at a United Methodist college; 2) full payment of the SMC apportionment; 3) development of mission specials from local church groups to take the place of Federal Pell Grants lost by students in two prison centers. The college has both staff and students eager to visit churches to explain college programs when invited. Let us know how we might serve you in a special way.

THE COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

Our commission is charged with the responsibility to "take initiative in ecumenical and interreligious concerns...." (11398.4). Jesus' life was one of love and respect for all persons. All too often, those who attempt to bridge the gaps of fear and isolationism pay a high price, yet God's spirit compels them to do so.

Christian Unity is a priority for the United Methodist Church. In the 2nd paragraph of our constitution we read: "The church of Jesus Christ exists in and for the world and its very dividedness is a hindrance to its mission in that world." one of our ongoing programs is LARCUM (Lutheran, Anglican, Roman Catholics, United Methodists), a forum each spring for interested persons to gather for dialogue and work towards ways to strengthen our relationships and bridge divisions. The historic signing of the LARCUM covenant in 1995 demonstrated the hunger for community, as our Bishops pledged to honor and support each other in faith.

Already, the Document's 10 points are being implemented. A common baptismal certificate is already available for distribution for those desiring it. You may contact the chairperson for information on securing them. An annual service of repentance and prayer was held Jan. 18 at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Columbia. In the ensuing years, this service will be hosted by our LARCUM churches, at various locations across the state. Persons interested in participating in the annual LARCUM dialogue may contact the chairperson, commission members, or read about it in the Advocate, late winter.

Another one of the United Methodist Church's legislative mandates is to "encourage dialogue and cooperation with persons of other living faiths." Our Ecumenical Breakfast during Annual Conference gave participants the opportunity to hear Tod Ewing, of the Baha'i faith, share their beliefs. Such opportunities give us all the chance to learn mutual respect.

In February, 1995, our commission co-sponsored "Partners in Dialogue" along with the Department of Religious Studies at USC, And Partners in Dialogue, a coalition of interfaith groups. Guest speaker Dr. Diane Eck, made it clear through her presentation "Mapping the Religious Landscape" there is a growing number of world religions represented in the U. S. population.

We must continue to discover ways for the church to grow in its understanding of Christian Unity and Interfaith life. The Commission will continue to lift up these mandates from Christ and our church.

Joel Jones, Chairperson

THE COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

The Commission on Religion and Race needs to be made aware of efforts toward inclusiveness so that we may provide the support needed with our resources.

The Barbara Boultinghouse Bridge Builder Award recipient for 1995 was the late Bishop Joseph B. Bethea. It was awarded posthumously and received by his daughter Josefa. Bishop Bethea's commitment to promoting inclusiveness has made an impact on the South Carolina Conference that will be remembered for a long time. Thanks to Reverend Dan Batson and his committee for their efforts.

The number of minority children and youth attending Asbury Hills the summer of 1995 increased because of the efforts of Anderson Mack, the Commission members on his committee and Wesley Voight, the camp director. We will continue to encourage churches to send the children and youth and assist with transportation.

Several Minority Self-Determination Grants from the General Commission on Religion and Race, have been awarded to projects in South Carolina. The current grant recipients are: 1) Bennettsville-Cheraw Area Cooperative Ministry Tutorial Program, Bennettsville; 2) Project Vocation Phase II, Emmanuel UMC, Camden; and 3) Wesley Community Outreach Services, Wesley UMC, Johns Island. Information about the Minority Self Determination Grants may be secured by contacting the Reverend Jack C. Washington in the CCOM Outreach Office.

The "Combatting Racism" workshop is available for interested churches, groups, districts or clusters. It is designed to enable Christians to break down barriers and work toward eliminating racism. Mrs. Carleathea Benson, assisted by Henrietta Jones-Carrigan, conducts these workshops when they are requested.

Seventeen "Stop-the-Violence, Juvenile Delinquency Prevention" mini-grants we awarded in 1995. Applications for 1996 mini-grants are being sent to district superintendents, district COM chairpersons and CORR members as I write this report. Proposal resumes for grants awarded will be available at Annual Conference.

My term on the Commission ends June 30, 1996. I wish to thank all persons who supported my four (4) years as Chairperson. May God bless you all in a special way.

Henrietta Jones-Carrigan

THE COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

The Commission on the Status and Role of Women is mandated to "challenge The United Methodist Church, including its general agencies, institutions, and connexional structures, to a continuing commitment to the full and equal responsibility and participation of women in the total life and mission of the Church, sharing fully in the power and in the policy making at all levels of the Church's life." (1992 Discipline, Para. 2202). "We serve as advocate, catalyst, and monitor to empower women and to transform the church so that an inclusive people of God might be in ministry and mission to a hungry and hurting world." (General Commission on the Status and Role of Women). The South Carolina Conference Commission on the Status and Role of Women has as its mission the advocacy for and monitoring of the needs of women both in our local churches and throughout the state. This commission also resolves to be instrumental in bringing about an increased awareness of women's gifts and leadership in all areas of the church. In 1995, this commission was involved in one program and one award.

1. Women in the Pulpit Sunday: Resource materials were prepared and distributed to each charge to aid churches in observing Women in the Pulpit Sunday, the third Sunday of March. These resources are designed to encourage and promote equity and inclusiveness for women by setting aside a Sunday where local churches are encouraged to have a woman preach. Information on the Bessie Parker Memorial Scholarship Fund and offerings taken on this Sunday for this fund provide opportunities for women in South Carolina to prepare for the ordained ministry.
2. The Barbara Boultinghouse Bridge Builder Award: This award, jointly sponsored by COSROW and the Commission on Religion and Race, recognizes persons or organizations who have built bridges of understanding by promoting equity and inclusiveness for all persons without regard to race, gender, age, handicap or economic condition. In 1995 this honor was awarded posthumously to Bishop Joseph B. Bethea.

COSROW continues to monitor women's participation on the floor of Annual conference as well as the makeup of Conference boards and agencies. Systematic efforts toward equity continue to be in place within the Conference Nominating Committee. Salary issues concerning women clergy are being addressed through the current salary study.

COSROW advocates the continuation of the sexual ethics workshops with new clergy each year at the Pastor's School. We support the development of an advocacy system within each district to assist victims of clergy sexual harassment.

COSROW continues to explore ways of disseminating information and resources throughout the Conference. In 1995 this commission sponsored Stephanie Hixon, from General COSROW, as a speaker for the Bishop's School of Ministry. This commission also disseminated information about the Elizabeth Cady Stanton Conference held at Columbia College. In addition, a display about COSROW was exhibited at the Bishop's BASH and during Annual Conference. Finally, COSROW is in the process of purchasing video resources about women for the Conference Communications Resource Center.

Di Litwer, Chairperson

THE COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

One of the major responsibilities of the Commission on Worship is to plan and carry out the worship opportunities at the Annual Conference. Opportunities for new creative forms of worship are included in the week's events. Leadership in these services reflects the rich diversity of the United Methodist Church. Among the services in 1995 were communion services and a love feast. In the opening memorial service diaconal ministers joined the cabinet in serving the communion.

A major emphasis of the Commission on Worship continues to be District Worship Workshops. The idea of the program is to get more worship training closer to the local church. Areas of emphasis are Book of Worship, Hymnal Training, Advent and Lent Services, and Worship Nuts and Bolts. Five districts offered worship workshops with the assistance of the Commission on Worship. The total attendance of the five workshops was 110 people. The commission also assisted the Bishop's School of Ministry's emphasis on worship in 1995 (175 people attended). Districts were allowed to choose a workshop from one of the currently listed or to pilot new innovative worship training projects.

The partnership with the Fellowship of United Methodists in Worship, Music, and Other Arts continues to be another strong program emphasis of the commission. Training for professional and lay persons related to music and other worship arts is provided in three settings: the Annual Fellowship Workshop (106 people attended); the Youth Choir Festival (260 youth and adults participated); and the Children's Choir Festival (45 children's choir directors attended). Top clinicians are brought in from across the country to lead these workshops.

One of the major goals of the commission is to offer worship in settings where disenfranchised and marginalized persons may be helped. Three worship opportunities in "tent type" settings are to be offered. These "open air" services will be offered in the Charleston Area, the Columbia Area, and the Greenville-Spartanburg Area.

Along with the training events the commission makes printed material available to help educate local congregations in worship issues. These materials are available throughout the year. Worship Nuts and Bolts, a directory of speakers and other worship leaders, advent and lent services are among the printed resources available.

THE COMMITTEE ON CAREER PLANNING AND COUNSELING

The South Carolina Conference Committee on Career Planning and Counseling is pleased to present the following report of its activities since last Annual Conference.

The committee is focused upon the encouragement of persons toward choosing careers in ordained ministry, diaconal ministry and other Christian vocations. One of the most important enlistment means has been the Office of Christian Vocations. This Office is composed of part-time Christian Vocational Counselors assigned within each District in the South Carolina

Annual Conference. These Counselors were refreshed through training by staff of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry of Nashville in November 1995.

The Vocational Counselors are available to meet with conference and district groups of clergy and laypersons, local churches and individuals who are interested in the encouragement of persons for full time Christian service. These Counselors are available to meet and advise persons who are contemplating entrance into a field of ordained or diaconal ministry before such persons consult with the District Superintendent. Our Committee continues to be very excited and supportive of the special work of the Office of Christian Vocations and its significance for the future of ministry in this Annual Conference.

The Christian Vocations Counselors for the South Carolina Annual Conference are as follows: Anderson - Mrs. Carleathea Benson; Charleston - The Rev. Jim Williams; Columbia - Mrs. Jacqueline Carter-Harris; Florence - The Rev. Larry McCutcheon; Greenville - The Rev. C.E. "Smoke" Kanipe; Greenwood - The Rev. Carol Peppers Wray; Hartsville - The Rev. Roger Dodds; Marion - The Rev. Lloyd White; Rock Hill - The Rev. Ben Barrett; Spartanburg - The Rev. Theron Smith; and Walterboro - The Rev. Donald F. Funderburk.

The Committee on Career Planning and Counseling continues to be extensively involved in the Comprehensive Plan for Christian Vocations. This is an intensive and long-term program sponsored by the Office of the Resident Bishop, Columbia College, Spartanburg Methodist College, Claflin College, Wofford College and our Committee. The plan has been supported financially by the Conference Council on Ministries budget and by grants from the National Methodist Foundation, the Youth Service Fund, the Atkinson Foundation of California and Shandon Church, Columbia. We appreciate the efforts of Columbia, Spartanburg Methodist and Claflin Colleges in securing these grants.

The Comprehensive Plan consists of three components: 1) Bishop's Retreat for Persons Exploring Ministry (to be held annually in May and rotated between the various South Carolina United Methodist colleges), 2) Tri-District Gatherings About Christian Vocations (to be held in 1997) and 3) District Workshops on Christian Vocations (held in 1994 and tentatively scheduled again for 1988). The Bishop's Retreat in 1996 was held at Claflin College in Orangeburg. In 1995 nearly 50 persons exploring ministry participated in this event.

Plans are forming now for the active participation from the South Carolina Annual Conference in "Exploration '96," a national convocation on ministry for persons age 16-25 to be held in Dallas, Texas from November 1-3, 1996. Again our Committee will provide coordination of registration and travel plans for participants from this Annual Conference.

"Discovering Careers" is a general career/life planning experience for persons of all ages. It is adaptable in length and content to suit the needs of intended audiences. The participants also have follow-up career counseling available to them after the workshop. The workshop can be a wonderful program for part or all of a meeting of many groups in local churches and Annual Conference organizations and institutions. During 1997 a workshop will be held to train additional persons to lead "Discovering Careers" workshop as requests are received for these events and in their local congregations. The late Dr. Florie J. Frederick of the Career Planning Committee was instrumental in the recent development of this program. Her expertise and energetic leadership will be greatly missed in the "Discovering Careers" program.

The South Carolina Annual Conference Committee on Career Planning and Counseling is most excited about our efforts in career planning. We are consistently appreciative for the support of Bishop Robert H. Spain and his Administrative Assistant, Hazel Colcock, the Conference Council on Ministries staff, especially Mrs. Sharron Pickle and Mr. James Arant of the Nurture Section and the Print Media Center staff of the Office of Communications.

At Annual Conference 1996 the Committee on Career Planning and Counseling will become a standing subcommittee of the Boards of Diaconal and Ordained Ministry. This action is intended to: 1) simplify Annual Conference structure, 2) bring our recruitment efforts under proper agencies according to the Book of Discipline, and 3) hopefully offer stronger support and publicity for these efforts at enlistment and recruitment by being active parts of these two high profile Boards.

I have appreciated the opportunity to serve the South Carolina Annual Conference through this Committee for eight years and as Chairperson for six. It is my prayer that these efforts will continue to be carried forth in the future with our new structure and committee. All United Methodists in this state are invited to become significantly involved in these enlistment and career planning efforts which are offered to help persons more clearly hear God's call in their lives and to provide great leadership for the church in the next century.

David C. Surret, Chairperson

THE COMMITTEE ON PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING

History

The Conference Committee on Pastoral Care & Counseling traces its beginnings to the 1967 Annual Conference when a standing committee was established. In the 1984 Conference Journal this committee's mandate centered around the need for healing and included the following responsibilities:

1. Communicating with Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, Office of Ministerial Affairs, and the Cabinet regarding clergy care systems.
2. Strategic planning regarding pastoral care and counseling needs in the conference.
3. Recommending goals and the programs for meeting goals.
4. Providing policy guidelines, connectional linkage, and evaluation of conference programs of pastoral care and counseling.

Mission Statement

With the vision, "Caring for the Caregiver," the Pastoral Care and Counseling Committee understands that clergy, diaconal ministers, and laity sometimes experience pain while attempting to be in ministry. on behalf of (and through the resources of) the S.C. Conference we wish to offer a healing presence by:

1. Supplementing counseling fees for clergy, diaconal ministers, and their families in the widest geographical area possible and in strict confidentiality. (see Report 1)
2. Providing preventive wellness programs that contribute to the mental health of the caregivers and their families. (see Report 2)
3. Being available to offer signs of reconciliation, healing, and care to both laity and clergy/diaconal ministers in times of crises within the local church. (see Report 3)

 4. Children who for mental or physical reasons are legal dependents of clergy/diaconal minister family.
 5. Divorced spouses for a period of six months from date of divorce.
 6. Premarital counseling of engaged clergy/diaconal ministers and their dependent children in case of re-marriage.

IV. 1995 activity: Fee supplement was provided for over 100 participants at a cost of $30,615.

Report 2 Wellness Programs

The Pastoral Care and Counseling Committee is turning toward providing more preventive, wellness type programs and gradually steering away from Fee Supplement. This shift is in light of an insurance program that provides funds for counseling services. One preventive program that is already in existence is "A Time to Celebrate", a biannual retreat for clergy, diaconal ministers, and spouses. This weekend away is designed to strengthen relationships. The next one will be in 1998. The last one was held at Springmaid Beach, March 15-17, with Minerva Carcano as the speaker.

Some funds previously used for Fee Supplement will go in 1997 toward other preventive/wellness programs.

Report 3 The Care Team

The Committee is on-call with a CARE team (Connecting And Responding Expressions). At the invitation of the Bishop this team becomes a listening ear to churches undergoing Crises. The team might suggest ways the conference can assist the church and/or pastor. Activity is confidential.

Other Involvement

The Pastoral Care and Counseling Committee has representation on the Committee on Ethnic Minority Concerns and the Disaster Response Committee.

THE NATIVE AMERICAN COMMITTEE

The Native American Committee was organized in March, 1992. The NAC has the following goals; promoting inclusion of Native Americans in this Conference, exploring and implementing ministry opportunities, raising awareness of Native American issues, promoting Native American Awareness Sunday, and dispensing funds contributed on Native American Awareness Sunday (one-half of funds collected remain in the Conference; the other half goes to the General Conference).

The parent organization for the NAC is the Southeastern Jurisdiction Agency for Native American Ministries housed at Lake Junaluska. SEJANAM provides training and support for this committee; we contribute $2000 per year to the SEJANAM budget.

The NAC received funding from the ELCC for administrative expenses and for the support of SEJANAM. Moneys collected on Native American Awareness Sunday are used exclusively for mission projects.

The NAC met three times in 1995. The committee members attempt to maintain dialogue with various Native American communities in this Conference. Our primary efforts have focused on the Edisto tribe in the Summerville area. We contributed money for the Edisto Indian Health Care Initiative and were invited to the opening ceremony for the community building on February 25, 1995. Bishop Bethea attended as well as several Committee members. A committee member coordinated bringing 12 United Methodist work teams to work in the Edisto community on substandard housing. We contributed $2500 to the Santee tribe (Holly Hill area) for renovations on an old Indian school to be used as a community center. We also try to encourage Native American participation in events sponsored by SEJANAM such as the annual family conference in Junaluska.

The NAC publishes a Native American Newsletter two times a year. The newsletter is sent to all pastors and to all Native Americans who have been identified to the committee in the Conference. The newsletter gives ideas for promoting Native American Sunday and prints articles on topics related to our goal.

In 1996 we hope to send several Native American youth to a NA camp experience in order to begin building leadership. We also hope to develop our own leadership experience in the future. We plan to continue to interact with Native American communities in this Conference and to continue support for ministries.

THE UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

United Methodist Women of the South Carolina Conference were actively involved in fulfilling the purpose and continuing their many programs on the local, district and conference levels. Women across our conference are seeking to know God through Bible Study, Prayer and through participation in workshops and retreats. They have experienced a High level of mission knowledge as well as dedication to the task.

Growth toward being "a whole person" is never complete, but our programs, studies and people provide the stimulus and the challenge to make us willing to risk new ideas and paths, free to be the people God wants us to be.

The organization is a creative, supportive fellowship and we support each other in local units and also lend support to women in difficult situations in the community and beyond.

In order to expand concepts of mission we participate in the global ministries of the church through pledges to mission. In 1995 $462,2230.70 was sent to Women's Division and $88,915.20 given to our five mission projects in South Carolina. We also participate through studying issues and broadening our world view through the Reading Program and Prayer Calendar.

In 1995 many local units and districts sponsored trips to mission projects and our conference sponsored an Appalachian Mission Trip. Scholarships were offered for this trip as well as the Under 40 Event, Southeastern Jurisdictional Meeting, Spring Retreat and two scholarships were given for youth to attend the Youth-In-Mission Event at Lake Junaluska.

We try to educate our women as we know education can move them into more mature expressions of faith. learning takes place when learners are living what they say they believe and are involved in education and spiritual growth experiences.

The Campaign for Children has also encouraged local units to begin tutoring programs and many women have become mentor for children. Many units help with soup kitchens and food pantries for the needy, visit prisons, and help fund shelters for the homeless.

The Theme for our Legislative Event was "Changing the World ... for Children." Because women were involved with this campaign, many gathered at the Holiday Inn Coliseum in Columbia to hear experts talk on children's issues.

Our Spring Retreat at Lake Junaluska continue to be the event which attracts more participants. In 1995 Rev. Rosemary Brown lead our retreat, and we had a record attendance of more than 1800. We also had our Under 40 and our first Single and Single Again Event with good attendance at both.

Ecclesiastes, United Nations and Europe were our studies for the School of Christian Mission at Spartanburg Methodist College, over 300 attended.

Each district planned and implemented a program on inclusiveness. The Theme was "It Takes All Our Hands." Participation was not as good as we hoped for, but this was also a good program.

In 1995 we completed our S.C. Methodist Women's History Book, "Daring Hearts and Spirits Free". This book will help members of UMW reclaim some of the Heritage and history not known to the present generation.

I am happy to report that membership increased in 1995. Younger women and youth are joining the organization. We have much energy and enthusiasm and we will continue to enlist other women and youth to join us in this ongoing process of growth.

THE UNITED METHODIST MEN

The United Methodist Men have increased its involvement in a variety of activities throughout the twelve districts during the past year. This has occurred as a result of an extension of structural organization from Sub-District to the Cluster Units in several Districts. This method appears to be most effective in involving men in the local church and outreach ministry.

In order to meet the challenge and focus on mission and ministry, the districts are involved in the following activities: Wheelchair ministry, fund raisers for Sewee Retreat Center and Asbury Hills Camp, the prayerline ministry, built buildings at Asbury Hills Camp, promotion of Golfing Tournaments to raise funds for the Camps and Retreats Centers, continual emphasis on the statewide Boy Scout program sponsored by the United Methodist Men, and for spiritual development; the Annual Spiritual Retreat which is held at Springmaid Beach.

The scouting organization provides an opportunity for men in the local church to be mentors for young boys and girls. It is also an opportunity for Evangelism in reaching the parents of the boys and girls to establish a Church membership relation.

Several districts have developed training events and week-end Spiritual Retreats to enhance spiritual growth and development among the men in the district.

One of our most effective ministries is the prayerline ministry. This ministry has been adopted by several local church units. This ministry involves the men in the local church and helps them to understand the needs, hurts, and desperate conditions of people throughout the Country.

The financial support of our camps and retreats is still one of our major programs. We hope to become more effective as each district increases its efforts in reaching the proposed goal of $10 per church member through fund raising projects.

As we embrace the future, we pray for spiritual growth and personal commitment among the men of the church, that we will be able to strengthen our families, nation and the world.

THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRY

Again in 1995, over 7,000 youth participated in the eight programs sponsored by the Conference Council on Youth Ministry. These programs were Spiritual Life Retreats, Basketball Tournaments, Youth Festival, Youth Choir, Youth Annual Conference, Leadership Week, Mission Possible and Adult Workers Training. All of these programs continue to be a strong and vital part of the total program for the South Carolina Conference.

In addition, 96 youth from South Carolina attended youth '95 in Salt Lake City, Utah. Ninety-one of these youth took a 16 day tour across the United States as a part of the Youth '95 tour. The five additional persons were a part of the National Youth Ministry Organization Meeting following the Youth '95 event. Representing the South Carolina Conference were: Lanecia Rouse - NYMO member; Kristi Kaiser - SEJ Youth Council Chair; Rebecca McCorkle, Jenarda Robinson and June Willson. Lanecia Rouse serves as the Vice-Chair of the National Youth Ministry Steering Committee.

Elected to serve as the Conference Council on Youth Ministry Officers for 1995/96 are: Lanecia Rouse - Chair, Robby Rebeck - Vice Chair, Rebecca McCorkle - Secretary, Jenarda Robinson - Project Review Chair.

Youth Service Fund grew in the South Carolina Conference for 1995. Youth raised $20,740.00 for Youth Service Fund. This fund is raised by youth, administered by youth, and supports projects that benefit youth. The United Methodist Church is the only denomination that has a Mission Fund supported by youth. Youth in South Carolina were in the top five for giving to Youth Service Fund across the United States. They had the largest increase in giving of any Conference in the United Methodist Church.

The Conference Youth Council gives of their time, talents and gifts to the on going Ministry of the United Methodist Church. These teenagers continue to strengthen Youth Ministry throughout the South Carolina Conference.

Lanecia Rouse, Chairperson

THE S.C. CONFERENCE DISASTER RESPONSE COMMITTEE

"The South Carolina Conference Disaster Response Committee has been assisting in the effort of weathering the storms of recent months."

A Summary of Involvement

Lee C. Bines, Chairperson of the S.C. Disaster Response Committee, has served as consultant and counselor to caregivers in Oklahoma City. Lee spent several days in Oklahoma City leading workshops in helping children through crises of disaster, and in working with pastors and other caregivers. Lee continues to be in consultation with caregivers in the Oklahoma City area. Persons wanting to assist with the continued recovery efforts in Oklahoma City may call the Reverend Guy Ames, 2420 Blackwelder Street, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma (405) 525-2252.

Lee and Charles Johnson (S.C. Conference Council on Ministries Director) toured the Spartanburg area in the wake of the floods which resulted from rains of tropical depression "Jerry". George Watson, Superintendent of the Spartanburg district, directed us to several churches affected by those storms.

Lee and Charles were in constant dialogue with the Red Cross in Orangeburg, Columbia, Greenville, Cherokee, and Laurens counties, in an effort to keep abreast with conditions resulting from tropical depression "Jerry" as well.

Nick Elliott has gone into the Florida area to do damage assessment in the wake of hurricane "Opal".

Nick Elliott, Noble and Debbie Miller have completed the course at Lake Junaluska, hosting volunteers during disasters.

Lee and Nick Elliott were part of the first International Training Response event on October 5-7, 1995 at the Sager Brown Center in Baldwin, Louisiana. Lee gave the closing message at this event.

Lee was called in to the Baltimore-Washington Conference area to assist with recovery efforts after the flooding which occurred on January 19, 1996.

The Committee has awarded the Spartanburg District a grant in the amount of $10,000, and the Florence District a grant of $3,000 to assist with damages as a result of recent storms.

Preparation is a continuous process. We in South Carolina have learned this lesson well as a result of hurricane "Hugo". Therefore, we are constantly working and training with other recovery agencies such as UMWIM (United Methodist Volunteers in Mission), the RED CROSS, FEMA (Federal Emergency Management Agency), VOAD (Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster), and UMCOR (United Methodist Committee on Relief). Consultation has enabled us to more intentionally organize to foster and provide more effective service in times of disaster.

Each District Disaster Response Coordinator should be in contact with all local disaster agencies to continue in the preparation process for disasters which may strike local areas in the future.

Lee C. Bines, Chairperson

THE COMMITTEE FOR CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The Committee continues its work through its three task forces: New Church Development, Re-formation, and Consultation.

The New Church Development task force has proposed to the Cabinet seven new church starts in order of priority. Local circumstances may influence the timing of each and a re-ordering of priority may be necessary, but we are convinced that we must be more aggressive in new church development. A study of the most recent new churches (there have only been 18 new church starts in the last twenty years) reveals that most of them are paying 100% of their Conference Apportionments. They paid $331,504 in 1995 Apportionments. The total membership of these 18 churches is 5,121. Their combined worship attendance is over 2,700, with combined Sunday School attendance over 1,300.

The Re-formation task force developed a pilot program utilizing the Percept ReVision instrument to be implemented in 1996. This group also plans a series of special workshops for churches, with the emphasis in special categories. The first of these workshops will take place on September 20, 1996 for textile community churches with Tex Sample serving as the keynote speaker.

The Consultation task force has trained 19 lay and clergy as Facilitators to work with local churches in re-visioning their ministry. These persons may use one of several planning procedures with congregations and are available through arrangements with the Congregational Development office of the Council on Ministries. Additional training for utilization of the latest Percept materials will have been provided by the time this report is made at Annual Conference.

The procedure adopted at the 1995 session of Annual Conference has worked well. The following grants were made to churches in 1995:

New Light, Orangeburg	Orangeburg District	$ 85,000
St. Luke, Spartanburg	Spartanburg District	$ 70,000
Bethlehem, John's Island	Charleston District	$ 12,000
Central Circuit, Allendale	Walterboro District	$ 50,000
St. John, Sumter	Hartsville District	$ 15,000
Clark, Sumter	Hartsville District	$100,000
Walnut Grove, Spartanburg	Spartanburg District	$ 50,000
Allen Chapel, Spartanburg	Spartanburg District	$125,000
Zion, Prosperity	Greenwood District	$ 50,000
Mt. Carmel, Charleston	Charleston District	$ 30,400
Grace, Lancaster	Rock Hill District	$ 93,000
TOTAL		$680,400

The membership declines of the past four years mean that the Conference membership has fallen by 3,657 since 1991. Membership is now slightly less than it was at the end of 1981. However, approximately half a million more people live in the state now than in 1981. In Annual Conferences that are experiencing membership growth it is coming primarily through new church starts. While CCCD remains committed to helping existing churches re-vision their ministry, and to help churches with meager resources equip themselves for growth, we feel that we must be faithful to our mandate to enable new congregations. We call for a priority on new church starts and ask that each District give strong consideration to planting new congregations in their district plans.

Harlan E. Wilson, Jr., Chairperson

THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE SHALOM ZONE MINISTRY

The Steering Committee of Shalom Zone Ministry shares this report with great joy and appreciation. Joy, because we continue to make significant progress in developing zones where the shalom of God is realized. Appreciation because without your enthusiastic support and encouragement the progress would not have been possible.

The heart of the Shalom initiative is the defining of a zone. A Shalom Zone is a defined geographic area where the church and community target resources to change the negative forces within a community to positive actions for shalom. With an urban community, this may be a one to four square block area. In a rural community, it may be a small town. It is necessary to target resources to achieve impact and make visible the practice of shalom. The zone approach has a visible impact and will inspire others in the community to work toward shalom.

The community of Shalom strategy empowers church members, community leaders and community residents to develop and carry out a plan that will achieve shalom. Since every community is different, every Shalom Community will be different, addressing a variety of issues and developing distinct strategies to achieve shalom. One community may develop affordable housing, another community may create jobs for young people and in another community a health clinic for children. It is the church and community working together to develop a shalom plan for community and congregational transformation. What is consistent among Shalom Communities is that they use a mission-evangelism strategy to work toward the same four goals. The goals are:

1. Strengthening race, class and cultural relationships.
2. Improving community health care and the coordination of social service.

3. Developing communities economically, including job training and placement, housing and business development.
4. Developing congregations as effective witness for the Gospel of Jesus Christ and as strategic base for ministry in the community.

The Shalom Zone initiative is coordinated through the General Board of Global Ministries. There is also a National Shalom Committee, comprised of fifteen United Methodist laity and clergy from across the United States. The National Shalom Committee guides the work of the initiative and assists with raising and leveraging funds to insure resources are available for congregations to work on Shalom in their community.

A training series has been developed to assist congregations with the communities of Shalom strategy. The training program is designed to organize and mobilize people and resources to carry out the strategies which they have selected and on which they are willing to act. Those who live and work in the community and church are valued as the experts who provide the information, design the plan, and carry out the activities.

The training sessions are conducted on five Saturdays over a six month period of time. Training is done in South Carolina and involves three to five communities of Shalom from across the Annual Conference. The training program covers a variety of subjects which provides sufficient information for participants to plan for their Shalom Zones. Some of the topics include planning, economic development, congregational development, developing and utilizing resources, working collaboratively, and public relations.

Tasks and assignments between the training sessions and follow-up technical assistance identify and provide more specific training. In South Carolina there are five communities of Shalom already in progress and they are making great strides in bringing about hope and healing and wholeness to the life of their community. The North Charleston/Charleston Shalom Community operates under the guidance of New Francis Brown and Washington United Methodist Church, Chicora/Cherokee Shalom Community under the guidance of Cherokee Place United Methodist Church, Eau Claire Community of Shalom under the guidance of College Place United Methodist Church, Bluff Road Shalom Community under the guidance of Bluff Road United Methodist Church, Bennettsville-Cheraw Shalom Community under the guidance of Bennettsville-Cheraw Area Cooperative Ministry.

Opportunities for new areas of Shalom are now on the loose. The South Sumter Community under the guidance of Emmanuel United Methodist Church has been approved for training. The Bamberg Shalom Community under the guidance of Trinity and Mt. Carmel United Methodist Churches is ready for training pending approval by the National Committee.

On February 9-10 at Francis Burns United Methodist Church, Columbia, the first Shalom Zone Celebration was held. There were 180 participants at the banquet and over 200 for the helpshop session.

We share this report with you in the anticipation that the joy and hope we experience will continue to factor and grow so that churches and communities may experience the grace and power of God's Shalom. We look forward to our continued positive working relationship and hope that we can count on your continued support of this vital ministry.

THE ETHNIC LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS COMMITTEE

The Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee continues to seek, explore and plot new strategies for the empowerment of the Ethnic Minority Church in South Carolina. Last year demographics were attached to the Comprehensive Plan to show the ethnic make-up in the cities of South Carolina. The ELCC will continue to review and update this plan on an annual basis and report its findings to members of this Annual Conference. Three sub-committees assist with program concerns and ministries with ethnic groups in South Carolina are up and running. Those three sub-committees are African-American, Korean-American and Native American. They plan programmatic strategies for their groups.

Hebrews 11: 1-12

I was raised a preacher's kid in the Western North Carolina Conference, where I was involved in lots of district and conference youth activities. As soon as I turned 16, I started driving all over the conference all by myself. There were three things that gave me the security and confidence I needed to strike out on my own so often. The first is my faith in God, and I almost didn't say that tonight because it's assumed, it's a given, it's a big part of who I am.

The second thing that helped to give me a sense of security was my Visa card. I asked my father to help me get a credit card. I assured him I wouldn't use it except in case of emergency if I was out of town. So I got the card, and had it for I don't know how many years before I finally used it.

The third thing was the connectional system of the United Methodist Church. I knew that no matter where I went in North Carolina – big city or small town – there would be a United Methodist Church there. And I knew that if I had car trouble, or was involved in an accident, or got sick, that all I had to do was call a United Methodist preacher, tell him who my father was, and I'd get all the help I needed. I don't remember anybody telling me that; I just KNEW it. I knew about that bond, that connectedness when I was a little girl. I knew that bond, and I trusted that bond. That's a pretty remarkable way to grow up.

Tonight we pause to give thanks to God for that bond that continues even after death. We are still bound, in some inexplicable ways to all of the people we remember tonight, surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses. And we gather here in gratitude for their faithful service.

And so we turn to the eleventh chapter of Hebrews, which I think is one of the most beautiful chapters in the Bible. Here some of the great saints are listed. Abel, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Sarah, Moses, Rahab, for starters. I marvel as I read the many things they were able to accomplish through their faith. Great wonders that God performed through them. Events that helped shape the lives of every one of us.

As we read that great list of names, the thing that strikes me is, that in spite of the many things each individual accomplished through faith, each one is remembered in this chapter by one thing. Abel offered an acceptable sacrifice; Enoch was taken so that he did not experience death; Noah built an ark and condemned the world; Abraham and Sarah went out when they were called to go to an unknown land; Moses led his people to the promised land; Rahab protected Joshua's spies. And the list goes on.

And this evening, I turn to another list. The list of the souls who, since our last Annual Conference, our last time here together, have left this life and gone on to another one. And when I consider these precious souls, touch these printed names, I am awestruck. These are people of remarkable courage and faith, people of integrity and commitment.

I see a name here, the name of a woman who fought a terrible disease. And fought it with such courage and determination that her story will always be a part of me. The way she chose to live her life had a profound impact on those of us who knew her and loved her and will forever carry her in our hearts.

And I see a preacher's name here, a man who showed up on our door step one day right after Scott and I had finished seminary and moved to our first appointment. Moving from Atlanta to a small town in the Lowcountry, we felt rather isolated and alone. And somehow this man must've sensed that, because he made it a habit of stopping by after his Monday morning visits to the ministers' coffee at Epworth, and he'd tell us what went on there and who was there, and in a very intentional way, helped us feel connected to the bond of the Conference.

Here's another preacher's name, the name of a man who gave me guidance and support as I transferred into this Conference and began my ministry here. He taught me how to do funerals and how to prepare for Charge Conference – the things they don't teach you in seminary! He was my sounding board, someone I knew I could call in any situation and he would share his good common sense with me.

And I see the name of another clergy member of this Conference. A man I don't believe I ever met. But I have sat around the table with other preachers and listened to them tell their stories about him and the way he touched their ministry. And in that way, he has touched and helped shape my ministry.

As I look at all of these names and remember the people who carried these names, I remember also their lives. Every single one of these dear brothers and sisters has something to teach us, something to share with us, something that will help us as we attempt, in our inadequate, human way, to follow the One who demands our all.

We remember not just their names, but the impressions they made on a grateful Annual Conference.

If we go back to Genesis, we read the names of the descendants of Noah. All those "begets". Someone plopped a story right down in the middle of all those names. The story of the Tower of Babel. Do you remember what their sin was? Their sin was they wanted to make a name for themselves. They wanted to be remembered not for their deeds, but for their name. They forgot they already had a name – Children of God.

Those whose memory we honor tonight are remembered not by their names so much as by all that they accomplished through faith. Even though we know these people lived their lives in service to God, they are each remembered most often for ONE THING. If someone were to mention one of these names to you, what would be the first thing to come to mind? If you were to describe one of these persons, how would you begin? How are they remembered?

We remember countless things about these individuals, but isn't there almost always one thing in particular that comes to mind when we remember any one of these people?

That's not to discount the rest of their lives; it's just that in nearly every case, there's one thing that stands out in our memories of them. Just as there's one thing that the writer of Hebrews remembered about each person as he wrote the great role call of the heroes and heroines of the faith.

These two lists – the one in the 11th chapter of Hebrews and the one printed in our order of worship – have much in common. Most likely, there is one way in particular each person is remembered.

The same is even true as we celebrate the life of our Lord. Jesus is remembered for many things: he healed the sick, fed the hungry, performed countless signs and wonders. We remember many different things about Jesus, but the reason we've all come together tonight is to celebrate the Resurrection. The Resurrection is that one thing that outweighs all the rest, that one thing which we remember and celebrate above all else. Through the Resurrection of Christ our Lord, we are redeemed, given new life, and gathered together here tonight in his name.

Yes, even as we remember the life of Christ, there's one thing we remember above all else. One thing.

And like it or not, there's one way we'll be remembered. What is the impression people have of us? Despite the many facets of our lives and personalities, we'll be remembered for one thing. What's it going to be?

I want to invite you, challenge you, to let this list of names confront us with our own lives. How do we want to be remembered? As one who kept the faith in times of trial? As one who was a connecting force in the Annual Conference? As one who gave guidance and support to others in ministry? As one who, through faith, touched others whom you've never even met?

In speaking of Abel, the writer of Hebrews says, "He died, but through his faith he still speaks." Death is never the last word in the life of those who are righteous. When we leave this world, we leave something in it. We may leave something which will grow and spread like a weed or like a poison through life. Or we may leave something beautiful which blossoms and flourishes.

We leave an influence of good or ill; we leave an example of righteousness or of sin. Every one of us, when we die, still speaks. May God grant to us to leave behind, not just our name, but something that will become a blessing to others, deeds we've done because we're children of God.

When the people who come after us tell our story, they'll remember one thing about us. What's it going to be?

SAMMIE EDWARD JACKSON
March 16, 1948 - October 10, 1995

Sammie Edward Jackson was born March 16, 1948 in Darlington, S.C. He was the son of Sammie Lee Jackson and the late Clara Mae Wingate Jackson. In addition to his father he is survived by a son, Samuel B. Jackson; four sisters, five brothers and many other relatives who loved him dearly.

Sam graduated as an honor student from Mayo High School in Darlington. He held many positions of leadership at Mayo. He was awarded a national trip by the 4-H Club and had the privilege of presenting an official 4-H gift to President Lyndon B. Johnson. Paine College awarded him the B.A. degree in Social Sciences. He did his seminary work at Candler School of Theology, Emory University, and received the Master of Divinity degree from Erskine Theological Seminary. The Basic Clinical Pastoral Education work was completed at the S.C. Department of Mental Health.

People of all ages were blessed by Sammie's beautiful openness and genuine concern. As a very young person he made his commitment to Christ and joined Macedonia Baptist Church. While serving as a social worker with the Comprehensive Child Development Center in Anderson, School District Five, he joined Trinity United Methodist Church of Anderson. Here he taught a young adult class and here he answered the call to the pastoral Ministry. In 1972 Sammie was recommended to the Conference Board of Ministry by his pastor, Rev. William W. McNeill and the Trinity Charge Conference.

Sammie was always a "people" person with a great desire to serve those who were suffering. He was a bridge builder in human relations. Appointments served were Seneca Circuit, York-St. James and the Cheraw Parish. The love that his churches and friends along with his devoted family held for him was made evident on Saturday, October 14, 1995, when hundreds filled the sanctuary, the chapel, the education building and flowed out on the grounds of First United Methodist Church of Cheraw for a service of Death and Resurrection. Persons from all of his appointments, along with friends from several organizations he held membership in, joined representatives from church, community, and government in paying tribute to one who died all too young. Dr. Timothy Bowman, Sr., Rev. Kenneth Bobo, D.S., and Rev. William McNeill, led the service.

"He who is kind to the poor lends to the Lord." Proverbs 19:17.

Father, who hast made all person in thy likeness and loves all whom you have made, permit us not to separate ourselves from Thee by building barriers of race and color. As Thy Son, Our Savior, was born of a Hebrew mother, but rejoiced in the faith of a Syrian woman and of a Roman soldier, welcomed the Greeks who came seeking him, and suffered a man from Africa to carry his cross, so teach us to regard the members of all races as fellow-heirs of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen!

"In our end is our beginning; in our time, infinity; in our doubt there is believing; in our life, eternity. In our death, resurrection; at the last a victory, unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see." -Natalie Sleeth.

KENNETH JOEL KOVAS
September 17, 1952 - November 2, 1995

The shocking loss of Kenneth Joel Kovas affected all who knew him. Within a six week span, the life of Ken's family and church went through dramatic changes. On September 24, 1995 twin sons were born to Ken and Susan and they were on the mountain top of emotions with a great joy and excitement. Six weeks later they were in the valley of the shadow with his stunning death due to a ruptured brain aneurysm.

Ken was born in South Bend, Indiana and graduated from Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana. He earned his Master of Divinity degree from the University of the South, Sewanee, Tennessee. He was serving as pastor of Good Samaritan United Methodist Church in Lake

Wylie and had previously served the Lodge Charge in the Walterboro District. He was ordained elder in the United Methodist Church in 1994.

Family survivors include his wife Susan Grant (Hasty) Kovas; twin sons Joseph Daniel Kovas and Grant Walker Kovas; his mother, Anne L. Kovas of South Bend, Indiana; three brothers, John Kovas of Austin, Texas, Timothy Kovas and Daniel Kovas of South Bend, Indiana; and one sister, Dianne Papandria of South Bend, Indiana.

A Service of Death and Resurrection was observed at Bethel UMC in Chester, S.C. on Sunday, November 5, 1995 conducted by The Rev. Will Brown, The Rev. Milton McGuirt, The Rev. Ted Brazil and The Rev. Frank Griffith. This service celebrated the gift of the life of The Rev. Kovas and his ministry in the S.C. Conference. Interment was in Evergreen Cemetery in Chester. A memorial Mass for family and friends was observed at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in South Bend, Indiana on November 11, 1995.

Through this unexpected grief God's spirit was present in the support of the people of Good Samaritan United Methodist Church and the community of clergy in our conference. His ministry lives on through the lives he touched and congregations he served. God has blessed us even in Ken's untimely death. His spirit lives on.

WYMAN WAYNE BALLENTINE

Wayne Ballentine was sharing some thoughts about his experiences as a military chaplain with a group of young people. The occasion was the meeting of a candidacy group that was exploring ordained ministry as a vocation. As a member of that group, I remember the pride with which he spoke of his service. Particularly, he spoke of the many people with whom he had contact as they faced combat situations. He said, "you know, when you look into someone's eyes as they face the possibility of death, it's a privilege to stand for the church and to say 'God is with you in that Shadow and will see you through it.'"

During his ministry, Wayne stood for Christ and His church. Throughout his distinguished tenure as Chaplain, Wayne acted in Christ's name and expressed God's grace and mercy in Christ. He was blessed by the years he and his family served in the military. Here, he was given an opportunity to express the love he had for his country, and to stand for the church.

Wayne's years as a United Methodist minister in South Carolina were marked by faithful service and gentle compassion. As a pastor, he looked into the eyes of folk facing any number of desperate situations and spoke words of hope and through the testimony of his character, stood for the church. In all, twelve separate church communities have benefited from his pastoral leadership in the South Carolina Annual Conference. Wayne took great pride in the love he had for his family. Martha and his children Cary, Barry, Ann Marie and Dennis continue to be blessed by his memory and the stands he took for faith, family and country. On October 2, 1995, Wyman Wayne Ballentine walked through death's shadow and was received into the full light of the presence of God who stood with him all the moments of his life.

GEORGE DEWEY BRAZILL
March 15, 1925 - January 14, 1996

George W. Brazill married Lillie Vanderford following the death of his first wife. Their first child, George Dewey Brazill, was born in the Renno community near Whitmire, South Carolina. Dewey was known as the oldest of the second bunch. The family moved to Clinton in 1937 and Dewey left school during World War II to work at Clinton Mills.

The Lord had enlistment plans for brother Brazill. Dewey said that he received his call to preach before he became a Christian. At the age of 28 he went back to school and, after completing high school, received his A.A. from North Greenville Junior College, attended Presbyterian College and was certified by Southeastern Baptist Seminary in 1963.

Alice Henderson and her sister vowed never to marry preachers. She met Dewey Brazill on a blind date and broke one vow and made another on August 31, 1958. Her sister also married a preacher. They both helped their husbands further their educations.

The Rev. Creighton O'Dell Dorn and Dr. James Foster Lupo were friends of Dewey and Alice Brazill. Their friendship and mentoring led to Dewey's appointment to Newberry Circuit in 1964 and to Townville in 1967. After Dewey became an Associate Member in 1969, he also served the Orange Circuit, Bethlehem-Cokesbury, Rehobeth-Bethel, Bethlehem-Prospect and Blenheim prior to his formal retirement in 1985.

Dewey and Alice Brazill moved to their retirement home near Clinton and became active participants in Trinity Church, Enoree, SC. Their son Mark lived next door. Dewey spent the last months of his life as a patient/resident in the Greenwood Methodist Home. He was not far from his grandson, Matthew, his daughter, Lisa, and his son-in-law. In any circumstance Dewey Brazill was never away from the love and care of family and friends. Bishop Spain's visit on October 12, 1995 confirmed that. Alice Brazill was at her husband's side when he died on January 14, 1996.

The Rev. April Hall and William Bynum officiated at the service of death and resurrection at Trinity Church, Enoree. Interment was in the Rosemont Gardens Cemetery, Clinton, SC. Alice Brazill has wondered how any minister can function alone. Dewey Brazill's life demonstrates that in life or in death we are not alone - and we do not have to be.

EDGAR WILLIAM COLE, SR.
March 10, 1918 - February 27, 1996

Edgar Cole was born in Lincolnton, South Carolina. Having accepted Christ at an early age, he was not content to simply revel in his own blessings. Determined to exemplify the presence of God in his life and to let his light shine, he went about befriending and inspiring others in church, school, and every aspect of his life.

After having graduated from Austin High School of Summerville and then going on to Allen University of Columbia, he taught in the Charleston Public School system and later became a principal. He taught veteran's school as well.

Still, despite all his efforts to touch and inspire in his daily life, he remained somehow spiritually unfilled. Hungering to be even more closer to God and to walk more and more in His path and preach His word, he joined the Methodist Conference in 1943, and later completed his religious studies at Gammon Theological Seminary in Atlanta, thus becoming an ordained minister.

His spiritual life became even more enhanced when he was introduced by the late Rev. L.A. Gelzer to a young woman who was equally committed to God. Clara Bright, a teacher and church pianist of Bennettsville, became his wife and faithful companion of 52 years, assisting him in whatever capacity possible in the churches he served.

Even after retirement, vowing to "serve until I die," Edgar, in the midst of illness and often extreme pain, served as relief pastor in both Darlington and Cross for very long periods of time. He is survived by his wife, Clara; son and daughter-in-law, Edgar W. Cole, Jr. and Elsie Cole; daughter and son-in-law, Gardenia and Kjell Palsson; two sisters, Edna Cole Lee and Thelma Cole Reid; one brother, Horace Cole; four grandchildren; four great-grandchildren, one sister-in-law, two brothers-in-law, and a number of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

GEORGE R. "Sam" COOPER
August 31, 1915 - August 8, 1995

George Reid "Sam" Cooper received a call to enter the ministry early in life, but fought that call until after he had attained full maturity. He was already a successful businessman at the time of World War II, in which he served as an Army paratrooper. He could have returned from service hardened from his combat experiences; instead, it was with a renewed determination to follow God's call.

(Some ministers' wives doubtless can appreciate the dilemma of his wife, Louise. "I didn't help Sam a bit" she confessed in later years. "I didn't want to be a preacher's wife!")

Sam was 33 years old when he entered Wofford, and he and Louise lived in the old army barracks apartments during his four years of college. It was not a easy life; on one occasion, friends who visited at supper time noted that the Coopers' entire meal consisted of sandwiches made from tomatoes from a neighboring produce stand, and a glass of iced tea. That was it; there was nothing else in the kitchen.

At another time, Sam accepted an invitation to fill the pulpit for a series of Sunday night services at El Bethel Church, about two miles from the college. He preached several Sunday nights before El Bethel's members discovered, to their chagrin, that Sam had been walking the entire distance, to and from the church, to the college. (City transit busses didn't operate on Sunday nights!) Sam was licensed to preach in 1950, and appointed to Plum Branch charge that same year. In 1952, at the age of 37, he graduated from Wofford; and, from Emory in 1954 - the same year in which he was appointed to Ruffin-Yemassee. Other appointments followed: Duncan Memorial, Spartanburg, 1959; St. Andrews, Orangeburg, 1963; St. Mark, Columbia, 1967; Hibben, 1973; Brookland, 1979; retired 1982.

Sam was never appointed as a district superintendent and never wanted such an assignment. He may have made a good "D.S.", but would have disliked its administrative duties. He loved people too much; and was never happier than when bringing God's word directly to some parishioner.

On one occasion, he was told that an older man who had been attending services had an interest in becoming a member but hesitated because, at his age, it might be embarrassing to kneel at the altar.

"Tell him," Sam responded, "that I'll be glad to baptize him at his kitchen sink, if it would help!" Sam is also remembered, at any of the churches he served, for his delightful sense of humor.

He once had a standing "engagement," with one of his lay leaders, to play golf on a Saturday morning of each month. On one appointed Saturday, it was snowing heavily, and Louise was certain the game would be canceled that morning.

Instead, they borrowed her fingernail polish, to mark the white golf balls so they'd be more readily visible against a white background - and the match was played on schedule.

Sam was born in Columbia on August 31, 1915. He and Louise Hembree were married on Christmas Day, 1937. They were preceded in death by an only son, Stephen Leroy Cooper.

Louise also preceded Sam in death, dying on August 9, 1994, after 57 years of loving Christian companionship.

Sam died August 9, 1995, at the Orangeburg Methodist Home. Funeral Services were conducted on Saturday, August 12, 1995, at St. Mark Church, Columbia, by the Rev. Joe Cal Watson, the Rev. Don Funderburk, and the Rev. Dr. Ted H. Walter. Burial followed in Greenlawn Cemetery, Columbia. A brother-in-law and two nieces of the Hembree family are the only known survivors.

JOHN WESLEY CURRY
January 10, 1908 - August 6, 1995

To John Wesley Curry, the son of the late Reverend James A. and Zilla Curry, life was one of service to God and the church of Jesus Christ. He was a stalwart Methodist in every way. He certainly was a Christian and a great spirit. He and Willa Ogletree were married in 1934. He served as a pastor, three times as a District Superintendent (Presiding Elder); Treasurer of the South Carolina Conference; Claflin College Trustee; and, in many capacities within the church.

His was a life of service under God to his fellowman. He was unselfish, wise, frugal and true. The world was his parish. He served as a counselor to bishops and whoever needed him. He contributed greatly to the merger of the Black and White Methodist Conferences in South Carolina.

Reverend Curry is the author of Passionate Journey, a history of African-American Methodist in South Carolina. He graduated from Claflin College and Gammon Theological Seminary, which institutions awarded him the Doctor of Divinity degrees.

He was elected delegate to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences from 1948 through 1976. He was chosen a delegate to the Methodist General and Jurisdictional Conferences from 1948 through 1976. He was chosen a delegate to the Ecumenical Methodist Conference in Oxford, England in 1951, the World Methodist Conference in Oslo, Norway in 1961, and, in Dublin, Ireland in 1976.

Reverend Curry was a life member of the NAACP and Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity and served on the Southeastern Jurisdictional Council overseeing the work of the bishops and the jurisdiction.

He leaves to mourn his two sons: John Wesley Curry, Jr. and James A. Curry; one daughter-in-law: Mrs. Vera B. Curry; a beloved cousin: Mrs. Eloise Pauling of New York; two grandsons: John W. Curry, III and Eric B. Curry; two granddaughters: Jayne Willa and Willa Marie; and a great host of relatives and friends.

*"The Strife is o'er, the battle done,
The victory of life is won;
The song of triumph has begun: Alleluia!"*

REMBERT BRYCE HERBERT
April 8, 1903-April 20, 1996

R. Bryce Herbert was born in Greenville, the son of the Rev. Dr. Thomas Grigsby and Marjie Hill Herbert. He died in Charleston shortly after his 93rd birthday. During his growing-up years and during his years in the itinerant ministry, he lived in Methodist parsonages. On October 10, 1936, he married Mary Motte Anderson. Following his retirement in 1971, they made their home in Greenwood.

The Herberts have three children: Marjorie Herbert Lucas of St. Petersburg, Florida; Frances Herbert LaRoche of John's Island; and Rembert Bryce Herbert, Jr., of Yonkers, New York. They also have 5 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren.

His appointments include: Heath Springs, Georgetown (Duncan Memorial), Bishopville, Camden (Lyttleton Street), Charleston (Asbury Memorial), Sumter (Trinity), Greenville (Buncombe Street), Superintendent of the Greenwood District, Florence (Central), and Laurens (First Church). Following his retirement, he served Panola-Mt. Carmel in Greenwood, and did interim appointments at Bethel in Spartanburg and Lowell Street in Greenwood. For many years he assisted the pastor of Main Street Church in pastoral care ministry visitation.

He received his A.B. degree from Wofford College in 1923, and received the B.D. degree from the Candler School of Theology at Emory University in 1926. He was awarded an honorary D.D. by Wofford in 1948, and in 1961 Lander College conferred on him the Litt. D. degree.

In the Annual Conference, he served on the Boards of Mission, Education, and Evangelism, and was a trustee of Wofford, Columbia, and Lander Colleges. In 1952 he was elected a delegate to the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, and in 1956, 1960, and 1964 he was elected by his peers as delegate to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

He was widely respected in the Annual Conference by people who recognized his scholarship and sound reasoning, as well as his integrity. His son suggested that Proverbs 20:7 be read at the service celebrating his life: "The just man walketh in his integrity; his children are blessed after him." The words seemed so appropriate for Bryce Herbert. The service was held April 23, 1996 at Main Street Church in Greenwood, conducted by the Revs. James Gilliam, Mike Smith, Paul Frey, and C. J. Lupo, Jr.

In retirement he became a very special friend to many young persons entering the ministry, supporting them by his prayers, and listening to them and giving them encouragement. One minister who had been blessed by his friendship wrote following the service celebrating his life:

"I began my ministry at . . . in 1968. I went to visit and share with Bryce on at least one occasion at his cabin in the country. He served me hot apple cider, and was a good listener and counselor." Another told me how Bryce had called him before his first sermon and said, "I just wanted you to know I will be praying for you this morning."

Bryce Herbert was an avid gardener and lover of nature, a constant student with a keen mind, and he lived a disciplined life of love and service, ever faithful to God's call to which he responded with a glad "Yes!"

JAMES CARLTON HOLDEN
February 19, 1918 - December 2, 1995

James Carlton Holden loved God and the church and was devoted to his family. That love and devotion were evident in his eyes, his smile, and the daily conduct of his life.

Born to O. Hollis and Ada Lea Davis Holden, Jim grew into a young man who knew the call of God to minister in the name of Christ. He responded to that call by preparing for the ministry at Spartanburg Methodist College, the University of South Carolina, Lutheran Seminary, and the Conference Course of Study through Emory University. Jim was ordained a deacon in 1956 and was ordained an elder and received into full connection in 1957.

On August 20, 1950, Jim married Louise Clements of Lynchburg, South Carolina. One child, Elizabeth Louise, was born to them. Through the years they would serve the following churches in the South Carolina Annual Conference: Gilbert, Edgewood, Woodside-Berea Friendship, Berea Friendship, St. John (Sumter), St. John (Columbia), First - Isle of Palms, Bethany (James Island), and Asbury-St. James (Charleston).

In 1983, after taking disability leave, Jim and Louise returned to Columbia to live. He retired in 1988. Jim placed his charge conference affiliation with the St. James United Methodist Church which previously had been known as the Edgewood Methodist Church. While pastor at Edgewood, Jim led the church into a strong period of growth which called for relocation and the choice of a name change. The impact of Jim's ministry upon Edgewood/St. James was so appreciated that St. James designated him as Pastor Emeritus during a service of honor on July 9, 1995.

It was my privilege and pleasure to get to know Jim, Louise, and Elizabeth when I was assigned as their pastor at St. James. Quickly, it became evident how much the church loved and appreciated the Holdens, and how Jim, as a former pastor, was endeared to their hearts.

Jim embraced life with a cheerful sense of humor, and was always ready to share this through a story from his life, a joke, or a poem. In fact, Jim loved poetry. He found joy both in reading and quoting poetry.

The hallmark of Jim's life was his faithful service as a United Methodist minister. Simply put, he answered the call to serve. His discipleship and stewardship articulated his devotion to God and his life in the church. I observed this during his retired years at St. James, where he was a wise influence, a calming presence, and a respected leader.

On December 2, 1995, Jim answered the call to serve God in God's heavenly kingdom. The words of the sixth verse of that great hymn "O God, Our Help in Ages Past" come to mind:

*"O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come;
be thou our guide while life shall last, and our eternal home."*

A Service of Death and Resurrection for James Carlton Holden was held at the St. James United Methodist Church in Columbia, South Carolina, December 5, 1995. The service was conducted by the Reverend Nellie Cloninger, the Reverend Jack McNair, and the Reverend Marty Nason. Jim was laid to rest at the Elmwood Cemetery in Columbia. The void that remains in our hearts pales with the richness of having known a pastor as beloved as James Carlton Holden who is in the home that Christ has promised to all who love and serve Him.

EDWARD EMMANUEL JENKINS, SR
December 4, 1923 - August 6, 1995

Edward Emmanuel Jenkins, Sr., son of the late Dr. James E. and Maggie Walker Jenkins, was born December 4, 1923. He was educated at Claflin College and Gammon Theological Seminary. Claflin College awarded him an honorary D.D. for his years of service to the church and community.

On August 24, 1948, he married Margaret Miller and they served together in the South Carolina United Methodist Conference for 40 years. To this union three children were born: Patricia, Edward, Jr. and Clark.

"Ed," as he was affectionately known, was past superintendent of both Florence and Columbia United Methodist Districts and served on the board of trustees at Wofford College. He retired in 1988.

Edward E. Jenkins died at Magnolia Manor Nursing Home in Greenville, South Carolina after an extended illness.

The funeral service for "Ed" was held on Wednesday, August 9, 1995 at John Wesley UMC in Greenville. The service was conducted by Dr. Thomas Bowman and the Revs. Willie Wilson, George Strait, Albert Shuler and Oliver Greer with burial in Hillcrest Memorial Gardens in Greer.

*"When all is done, and my last word is said,
And ye who loved me murmur, "He is dead;"
Let no one weep, for fear that I should know,
And sorrow too that ye should sorrow so.*

*When all is done, say not my day is o'er,
And thro' night I seek a dimmer shore:
Say rather that my morn has just begun -
I greet the dawn and not a setting sun."*

- Paul Laurence Dunbar

I saw in my daddy the greatest potentials for humankind. I'll always love him.

THOMAS WASHINGTON KEMMERLIN
October 12, 1909 - December 9, 1995

From the Grover Charge to the Jamestown Circuit, with stops along the way, for sixty-four years Thomas Washington Kemmerlin faithfully served his Lord and the people called Methodists. Thomas Kemmerlin went where he was sent, preached the Word faithfully, and tended the sheep entrusted to his care. Serving the church as local pastor, district superintendent, and on numerous boards and agencies of the Conference, Thomas never saw himself as anything more than a "country preacher." With a unique sense of humor, an incisive wit, and an insightful way of viewing life, Tom Kemmerlin shared experiences from real life situations that enlivened his sermons and endeared him to everyone who heard him speak.

After receiving his BA degree from the University of South Carolina, Thomas enrolled in the law school there, but upon successful completion of the first year he answered his call to the Ministry of Jesus Christ. On May 5, 1931, Thomas Kemmerlin was licensed to preach and received his Elder's Orders in 1935. He entered the retired relationship in 1978 but continued to serve in the South Carolina Conference as a retired supply preacher until his death.

As a local pastor, he was instrumental in establishing building programs at a number of churches in the conference, but Thomas was proudest of the fact that he and his wife of sixty-five years, Eunice Baker, enabled dozens of young people to obtain a college education that might have otherwise escaped them.

On December 9, 1995, with a quiet dignity and elegance, Thomas Washington Kemmerlin slipped from the frail bonds of earth to embrace his God in heaven.

*"Love doesn't die
People do
So when all that is left of me is love

SOLOMAN THEODORE ROOSEVELT PORTER

Soloman T.R. Porter was born on July 15, 1906 in Bishopville, Lee County, South Carolina, he was the youngest of twenty-one children born to the late Mr. Thomas and Nellie Porter.

He was educated in the public schools of Lee County. He attended Gammon Pastor's School and Morris College.

He was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Olivia Richard Porter of Sumter, South Carolina on February 3, 1926. This union of sixty-two years was blessed with three children and one adopted daughter.

Rev. Porter served for thirty-five years in the South Carolina Conference, after retirement in 1988 he located his membership at Mt. Zion United Methodist Church in Kingstree, South Carolina.

He was a strong and outspoken man, he loved to farm and see things grow. This love for growth and nurturing was transferred in his church work in numerous rural congregations in South Carolina.

In December, 1988, due to failing health, he relocated to the Washington, D.C. area to be near his children. While in the Washington area, he attended Asbury UMC.

The Service of Death and Resurrection for Rev. Soloman T.R. Porter was held on Friday, December 1, 1995 at Mt. Zion United Methodist Church, Kingstree, South Carolina.

*"No moaning of the bar; sail forth, strong ship,
Into that gloom which has God's face for a far light.
Not a dirge, but a proud farewell from each lip,
And praise, abounding praise, and fame's faint star light.*

*No moaning of the bar; musical drifting of time's waves, turning to the eternal sea,
Death's soft wing all thy gallant canvas lifting,
And Christ thy Pilot to the peace to be."*

EDWARD HIPP RODGERS
JULY 23, 1915 - JUNE 26, 1995

Edward Hipp (Dick) Rodgers, born in Spartanburg County, died suddenly and peacefully at his home in Columbia in the company of his wife of sixty-two years, Mamie Guy Rodgers. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Loretta R. Burnett, one brother and three sisters. He has now entered into that rest to which he long aspired.

Dickie, as he was known to many, worked as a young man in the textile plant at Startex, S.C. It was during these youthful years he secretly married his young sweetheart, Mamie. A few years after he was strongly converted and later made a full surrender of his life to Christ. Being called to the ministry he overcame many obstacles to continue in it for thirty-eight years.

The early years of ministry were in the Wesleyan Methodist Church, serving in Moore, Easley, and the Carlisle Church in Spartanburg County. In 1964 he transferred to the Methodist Church and served first at Ebenezer-Bethel at Bennettsville for two years. His next and last appointment was at Pond Branch-Shiloh in the Columbia District, which he served for seventeen years. Upon retirement he held the distinction - at that time - of having served the longest tenure in the same appointment of any retiree in S. C. Methodism.

Mr. Rodgers distinguished himself as a pastor. Though an able preacher, his greatest love was to pastor his flock. He was committed to visiting his people on a regular basis, and was promptly available at crisis times in their lives. The fact that he was reappointed to his last charge for seventeen years, and the esteem and honor in which he was held, is testimony of his faithfulness to the people.

Another distinguishing mark of the man was his life of prayer and deep longing and love for the conscious presence of God. I know of no other pastor who depended as much upon prayer for the performance of his ministry as he did. Well aware of his personal limitations, he prevailed upon God to do the work that was needed. He loved the overflowing Presence of His Lord. Though not given to excesses, none-the-less at times he was so overcome with joy that he found himself unable to preach, and simply worshipped before his people, inviting them to come and pray, which they did in large numbers.

He was to me my pastor as a young man, my father-in-law, and my encourager. But most of all I shall remember him as one who wished to please His Lord, and whose greatest delight was to enjoy the blessed Presence. We have confidence he is forever delighting in the One Whom he lived to serve and worship.

RUFUS MATTHEW ROWE
December 7, 1913 - August 10, 1995

The Reverend Rufus Rowe, son of Abner B. and Nancy Palmer Rowe, was born in Saluda on December 7, 1913. When he was seven years of age, his family moved to Newberry and it was in Newberry that he attended school. While attending high school, his father suffered a stroke and Rufus dropped out of school for awhile and worked in the textile mill in Newberry to help support his family. After finishing high school, he attended Spartanburg Methodist College (then known as TII) on the work program. He attended classes for two weeks and then worked in the mill two weeks to finance his college education. After graduation from SMC, he entered Wofford College. His education at Wofford was interrupted by military service in the Army Air Force. He was sent to Fresno, California and while there he also worked with the youth program at First United Methodist Church and he actually was licensed to preach by the California-Arizona Conference in 1943. After his discharge, he re-entered Wofford College and graduated with a B.S. degree in preparation for the ministry.

In 1946 he married Pauline Stone of Inman. Polly was working at Smith Wholesale Drug Company of Spartanburg when they met. Rufus had been ordained Deacon in 1949 and was ordained elder in 1951. In October of 1947 Rufus accepted his first pastoral appointment to Pacolet Circuit and served there six years. His other appointments were Arcadia, Startex, Monaghan, Concord, Bramlett-Owings, El Bethel, and Aldersgate in Inman, where he retired. During his ministry he excelled at youth work and ministry to the sick and shut-ins. Rufus spent his entire ministry in the Spartanburg-Greenville area and retired at 291 Ballenger Road in Inman on Polly's original home site.

Rufus and Polly have three sons: David L., James Stephen, and Joseph Randy. Rufus' hobbies were gardening, bowling and golf. He retired in 1978 and played golf every week until he suffered a massive stroke in 1990. Rufus was called home to God on August 10, 1995. His funeral service was held on Sunday, August 13, 1995 at Seawright Funeral Home in Inman conducted by Reverend Ashley Brunson. Polly, who still resides at 291 Ballenger Road, has aply described Rufus as "a very gentle, kind, affectionate person."

"one approved, a workman who has no need to be ashamed, rightly handling the word of truth."

WILBERT TYNDALL WATERS
December 14, 1910 - August 20, 1995

A certain minister and his wife decided to have a lawyer draw up their Will. The appropriate papers were assembled and delivered to the lawyer's office. After examining the papers, the lawyer told the minister, "It's obvious where your priorities have been throughout your life." The minister quipped to his wife, "That's a nice way of saying that we are poor."

After an examination of Wilbert's life, it is apparent that he was not destitute or poor. His lifetime of service represents his priorities. His concentration in life was to carry out the "Will" of the Heavenly Father.

Wilbert Waters, son of the late Wilbert Hillary and Sara Virginia Cutler Waters, was born in Pinetown, N.C. Wilbert enjoyed sharing memories from his childhood days in the rural areas of North Carolina. His stories about the Great Depression and how families survived through loving and caring for one another were particularly interesting.

Wilbert was a graduate of Atlantic Christian College and attended Emory University, Duke University, and the University of Indiana. While attending college, Wilbert developed a love for history and theology. Friends and family agree that Wilbert could have been a history professor, but Wilbert's call was toward the ordained ministry.

Wilbert married Lucille Carolyn Kelly on June 23, 1938. They had two sons, Wilbert T. Waters, Jr. and Thomas C. Waters. Lucille died in March of 1970. He later married Nancy Lynn Smith, daughter of Rev. F. Carlisle Smith.

Wilbert was licensed to preach, June 2, 1935, by the Disciples of Christ Church. He served First Christian Church in Sumter from 1935-1939. In 1939 Wilbert transferred to the S.C. Conference of The United Methodist Church in full connection. From 1939 until his retirement in 1980, Wilbert served in various appointments throughout South Carolina: Pinewood, 1939; Lynchburg, 1940; Ellore, 1944; Johnsonville, 1949; Cameron, 1964; Olanta, 1957; Butler Charge, 1961; Stallville, 1966; Nichols, 1967; St. Stephen, 1971; Ridge Spring, 1972; St. Matthew Circuit (Bishopville), 1976; Ebenezer-Old Johnsonville, 1978-1980; Following his retirement, Wilbert continued to serve faithfully as a Retired Supply Minister on the Loris Circuit, 1981-1982; Spring Branch (Marion), 1983; Bucksville Circuit (Conway), 1983-1984; Main Street UMC and Pine Grove UMC (McColl), 1985.

Following his retirement Wilbert and his wife, Nancy Lynn Smith Waters, resided at Whiteford Hall in Mullins, S.C. Nancy Lynn continues to live at Whiteford Hall, her family's "home place." When she speaks of Wilbert, a smile adorns her face as she remembers their years of travel and service as a parsonage family in South Carolina.

Wilbert Waters never wrote a book. He never traveled around the world or became famous for some great invention. However, Wilbert did give a great gift to humanity. He gave of himself through service and love.

On August 23, 1996 at Nichols UMC, friends and family of Wilbert Tyndall Waters gathered for his funeral service. Wilbert was granted a long life. He lived a good life. His underlying philosophy of life was that a person should develop their faith and always remember, "No matter what happens, God is in the shadows keeping watch over his own."

Wilbert is remembered with fondness, praise and love by his friends and family. Surviving are his wife, Nancy Lynn Smith Waters; sons, Wilbert Waters, Jr. of Charleston and Thomas Waters of Wake Forest, N.C.; a stepson, Randy Heisley-Cato of Newville, Pa.; stepdaughters, Connie McLeod of Camden, Debbie Wilkinson of Summerville and Susan LeCesse of Rochester, N.Y.; brothers, Herman and Hallet Waters, both of Pinetown, N.C.; and nine step-grandchildren.

BARBARA JACOBS CAMPBELL
November 2, 1933 - February 14, 1996

Barbara Jacobs Campbell was born and reared in the Pleasant Grove community near Cheraw, a daughter of Spofford and Essie Lee Jacobs. She married Robert Benjamin ("R.B.") Campbell on September 20, 1953 and shared ministry with him in all their appointments. Three children blessed this marriage: Wanda (Harper) in 1954, Brenda (Martin) and Glenda (Clayton), twins, the following year.

Many adjectives come to mind when we think of Barbara: friendly, outgoing, gracious, appreciative are some. She was interested in others and gave freely of herself for family, friends, and church. When serious sickness came she remained optimistic, uncomplaining, not bitter and even in her times of suffering kept thinking of others. In spite of her own weakness she still took care of her husband when his health failed.

We will miss her cheerful greetings and her exuberant embrace of life but we give thanks for those parts of her that will always remain with us because her life touched ours.

She is survived by her husband, three children, six grandchildren, and three brothers.

A service of Death and Resurrection, celebrating and giving thanks for her life was held at Pleasant Grove UMC, Cheraw on February 16, 1996 with interment in the Sandy Plains UMC Cemetery, Morven, N.C. by her pastor, Glenn Davis, and Edward L. Davidson.

In this peaceful place, with a wind driven snow silently providing a blanket of white, we left her worn out body but the warmth of her spirit and personality continues with those who knew and loved her.

IRIS CLARDY ELLIS
March 13, 1936 - January 25, 1996

I am pleased to write a word of witness to the life of Iris Clardy Ellis. She was born on March 13, 1936, in Wampee, S.C. Iris was the wife of the Rev. Dr. Edgar H. Ellis, whom she met while attending Spartanburg Methodist College. They were blessed with one daughter, Patricia Loraine Ellis.

Iris served faithfully with her beloved Ed for over thirty years, always displaying her gentle charm and gracious manner to everyone. She was a warm, friendly lady with true Southern charm who just drew people to her. She lived her life in service to others, not only in her church related activities, but in her career as an insurance adjuster, and in her community. She was involved for many years in the United Methodist Women, as a leader on the local, district and conference levels.

My wife, Faye, and I will always cherish the fond memories we have of the great times we spent in fun and fellowship with Ed and Iris. These are memories of true friends.

I don't think I have ever known another person with a stronger faith in God than Iris, or one more determined to live life to the fullest. Even on the day she was told she had terminal cancer and only had a few months to live, she managed to smile and offer comfort to those of us around her. She assured us that God's will would be done. She showed considerable strength through many months of surgery, chemotherapy, pain and sickness as she valiantly fought against cancer. Cancer could conquer her body but it could never conquer her spirit.

Iris died in Lexington County Hospital on January 25, 1996. The Service of Death and Resurrection was held at 3 p.m. on Sunday, January 28, 1996, at Cayce United Methodist Church, with interment at Cannon Memorial Park, in Simpsonville, S.C. I officiated at the service along with the Rev. Allen Wolfe, the Rev. Needham Williamson and the Rev. Ted Walter.

Iris Ellis was a blessing to all of us. Thanks be to God for one who lived her life believing in the goodness of God!

SARA SHANNON GRAY
April 4, 1908 - August 27, 1995

Sara Shannon was born in New Albany, MS. She graduated from Erskine College, and then returned to New Albany where her life's path crossed Andy Gray's. On June 6, 1940 Andy and Sara were married, and entered a life together in the Wildlife and Forestry Service in Texas and Georgia and then in the Navy to California and Maine. Sara learned to be an independent wife and a stable mother to Jim, Ed, and Paul while Andy's work often carried him away.

Paul's health problems at birth caused Andy to reconsider his life's work and do something that was "more significant." Sara followed Andy back to Erskine seminary and eventually into Methodism when Andy decided he could not sign the Westminster Confession. They returned to Andy's home South Carolina Conference and ministered together for twenty-eight years serving eleven appointments. In 1981 they retired to their cabin on Lake Hartwell where they lived together until her death.

Those who knew Sara experienced her as a quiet and stable influence in a loud and turbulent world. She was reliable and understated, yet substantial. Sara never forced herself on anyone, but she had much to offer to those who took the time to engage her. She lived life faithfully as long as energy permitted. Then she greeted death readily as "another friend."

The daughter of Ada Hugine and the late Reverend Freddie Hugine of Green Pond, South Carolina, Sandra was born August 30, 1952. She spent her whole life in Colleton County where she graduated from Colleton high School in 1970 and was continuing her education at USC Salkehatchie even to her death.

BARBARA SMITH MASSEY

October 22, 1932 - December 21, 1995

A native of Johnston, South Carolina, Barbara Smith Massey lived her earthly days in quiet service and with gentle courage. That gentle courage, born of a deep and powerful faith, carried her through a private battle with cancer and to her eternal rest, entered December 21, 1996 at St. Joseph Hospital in Augusta, Georgia. She was the beloved wife and best friend of her husband, Rev. Reese M. Massey, Jr., with whom she made her home in Johnston, S.C. She was mother to Sarah K. Massey, Julia M. Hays, and R. Martin Massey III. She was Sister to Dr. David Walter Smith, Jr., and grandmother to seven.

A Service of Death and Resurrection was held at Johnston United Methodist Church on December 23, 1995 with Rev. Paul D. Frey officiating. Her earthly vessel was committed to the ground at Ebenezer Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church in Rock Hill, South Carolina.

Barbara's family and community remember her as a loving and dedicated teacher at Johnston Elementary School. Her Christian discipleship left an enduring mark at Johnston United Methodist Church where she served in many ways, most recently as the Chair of the Outreach Committee, leading the church in a project of home repair for a member in a time of struggle. She gave birth to the idea of "Flowers of Hope," a Christmas-time ministry to needy children in the community. Her humble spirit of loving and serving showed the meaning of living faith. Her life of giving emulated her Savior and embodied the closing words of a poem, The Legacy. "Love does not die, people do. So when all that is left of me is love ... Give me away..."

JUANITA ABRAMS MCKINNEY

June 28, 1926 - July 17, 1995

Juanita Abrams became the wife of Edward Donald McKinney on August 18, 1946, and I first came to know her in 1951 when I became her pastor in Ware Shoals.

Juanita was a warm, caring, person who actively worked in the Church and in the Community - wherever she was needed. Don was on the Administrative Board; sang in the choir; served as Treasurer of the Church's Building and Remodeling Program; and taught a Sunday School Class; and together, he and Juanita worked with the young people in the Church.

After I moved to Woodland (Rock Hill), and on to Central (Spartanburg), I received a call one morning asking if he could come to Spartanburg to talk with me about something, which he did.

It was about his feeling that God wanted him to enter the Ministry. If he answered it meant that at 34 years of age he would be giving up a good job with Riegal Textile Corporation - moving out of the home they owned - going back to school (college and seminary) - being sent to a small appointment and then facing an uncertain future with a wife and two children who were totally dependent on him for their livelihood.

What troubled him most was how Juanita would react to this complete turn-around from one life-style to another. He did enter the ministry, and after receiving his license to preach in 1958, he attended Spartanburg Methodist College, and received an A.A. Degree in 1959 - an A.B. Degree from Wofford in 1961 - took the Duke University Conference Course of Study, and was received into the Conference in Full Connection in 1964.

During all this time, Don was serving as a Student Pastor, and doing what was necessary to prepare and qualify himself for fulfilling his Call!

On June 4, 1995 I preached the "Homecoming Sermon" at Ware Shoals UMC where I had first met Don and Juanita. Don was present for the Service (Juanita was not able to attend), and after the Service he asked me if I remembered what I said to him when he came to talk with me about entering the ministry and expressed his concern about Juanita's reaction to what he felt led to do. I had to be honest, and tell him that after 37 years, I did not remember. He then said to me, and I quote: "You said, if God has really called you, He will also call Juanita; AND HE MOST CERTAINLY DID!"

She was already a loving wife and mother, and what a wonderful minister's wife she was - much beloved by every congregation they served! Proverbs 31:28 [NIV] says it all: "Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her".

On July 17th, Juanita went Home to be with God, and I'm sure she was greeted by Our Heavenly Father with these words: "Well done thou good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of Thy Lord". Matt. 25:21 [KJV]

BETTY HIGHTOWER THOMAS

March 6, 1927 - October 30, 1995

The timing of the Almighty is perfection. This fact was born out in that the service of celebration of the life of Betty Thomas came on All Saints Day. Sainthood was not something that Betty would ever claim for herself, yet her striving was a model for all of us in shaping our lives for discipleship and service.

From the first days on the Olar Charge until her all too brief retirement, Betty and Herb were a team. Always her interest in people and music dominated her healthy attitude toward life. In so many ways Betty demonstrated her great talent for balance and perfection in tone. When Betty Herbert and Jamie came along, Betty had already perfected the capability she had to do all things well.

For a number of years she served as a company representative and demonstration organist for the Case Brothers Music Co. of Spartanburg. Her job took her often outside of the area where she was living, yet that great sense of equilibrium in attitude was always there. Betty inspired universal respect for her technical ability and her devotion to musical pursuits.

Betty would volunteer the fact in a split second that her greatest joys were her family and her music. She was especially devoted to her grandchildren. Her last days were brightened significantly with the birth of J. Herbert Thomas, III. Hope and expectations for his future played a vital role in Betty's participation in family life during the last weeks of her earthly life.

During student days at Converse College, Betty grew in confidence and ability to deal with the issues of living. For the remainder of her life she maintained her avid performance of the role of student in the school of life. Yet for the rest of us, she was a teacher of superb skill. She taught us how to discriminate in achievement of the goal of personal growth and development while manifesting the essence of a non-discriminating love of all God's people.

All praise to our timely Creator for sending someone like Betty our way in this time. May her gifts and graces remain a constant teacher to us for years to come. May her loving example be a witness to all of what can come of life with God.

Betty died in the midst of the people that she loved early on the morning of October 30, 1995. A service of worship to the glory of God and in loving memory of Betty's life was held in the sanctuary of Bamberg's Main Street United Methodist Church on Wednesday afternoon, All Saint's Day. Burial was in the church yard of the Green Pond United Methodist Church at Smoaks, S.C.

MARY JANE TALLEY TULLIS
November 12, 1917 - January 27, 1996

There goes a lady God can use! Of course God can use all of us, and does, but God used Mary Jane Tullis in exceptional ways!

From early life it was clear that she would be superior in whatever service she would render. Educated in the public schools of Caldwell County, Kentucky and Kentucky Wesleyan College, Mary Jane had an inquiring mind, a strong personality and a lovely spirit. A lady full of grace and beauty.

Supporting her husband, Edward L. Tullis, across 58 years, this Godly lady was always a loving, caring wife, mother, and grandmother. In pastorates of Kentucky, and in Columbia and Nashville Episcopal Areas, she presided with charm and dignity as First Lady. Though the wife of a distinguished leader, minister and bishop, Mary Jane had her own identity, and was never overshadowed. She was admired always as a gifted speaker, wise counselor, and designer of urgently needed projects in church and society. As Bishop Earl Hunt, Jr. put it, "She managed to synthesize her career with his without obscuring the grandeur of either."

In Frankfort and Ashland, Kentucky, she planned schools for children with cerebral palsy and other special needs. In Columbia she was Chair of Killingsworth, a home for women emerging from crisis. For that work she was recognized by Noteworthy Americans and the Dictionary of International Biography. In South Carolina she organized the Annual Retreat for Clergy Spouses. The 1996 session is dedicated to her.

Mary Jane taught us how to suffer triumphantly! In her long, difficult illness she lived above self-pity, secure in her Christian faith, expressed in a favorite passage: "I know whom I have believed, and am sure that He is able to guard until that day what has been entrusted to me." (II Timothy 1:12)

Her inclusive love reached out to all people, whatever their station in life. A faithful caregiver, Mrs. Mildred Randall, remarked, "There never has been a dearer, sweeter lady than Mrs. Tullis; she was always thinking of others."

There goes a lady God can use! Her continuing influences in home, church, and society evoke our prayer: "Thank God for the life and life eternal of Mary Jane Tullis, Amen."

BLANCHE MAGDALENE HUMPHREYS ASHLEY
April 14, 1917 - April 25, 1998

Blanch Ashley, wife of the late Rev. James Larry Ashley passed quietly at Laurel Hill Nursing Center in Pickens where she had been a resident for approximately three months.

Blanche was born and raised in Greenville County. She completed a teaching degree from the University of S.C. graduating cum laude. Blanche married Rev. James Ashley Sept. 7, 1940. She and James loved the up-state of South Carolina and served up-state charges for most of James' ministry. A public school teacher and a minister's wife, Blanche Ashley was a minister in her own right. Her faith Influenced many children in the Anderson and Greenville Districts of the UMC and her home was open to all in need as was her heart. Blanche was a dedicated and active member of St. Andrew UMC in Easley for as long as her health would allow her to be and sometimes even when her health dictated that she stay home, she was present. Not only would she be present on Sunday mornings but Sunday evenings and Wednesday evenings as well. Throughout her life, Blanche Ashley overcame obstacles that would have devastated a person of lesser faith...every difficulty she faced only served to make her stronger. Her faithful witness has been an inspiration to many especially the people of St. Andrew UMC. We shall miss her but we know we will meet again. To her, with God, we say; "well done good and faithful servant."

Blanche is survived by two daughters, Dee and Jeanette, one son, Larry Ashley Jr. seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

LENORA CALDWELL BRYANT
June 26, 1933 - December 25, 1995

Lenora Jean Caldwell Bryant, widow of The Reverend John Earle Bryant, was born in Anderson, S. C. on June 26, 1933. She was the daughter of Inez Hendricks Caldwell and the late Broadus Eugene Caldwell. Lenora and John were married February 23, 1952. To this lovely union were born three children, John Philip of Deland, Florida, Bruce Caldwell of Oak Ridge, Tennessee, and Lisa Mason of Greer, South Carolina.

Lenora was a devoted minister's wife who loved the United Methodist Church and especially her local church, Few's Chapel United Methodist Church. When the Conference assigned John to Few's Chapel Church in 1972, Lenora became Choir Director of the church. In this position, she brought quality music in praise and adoration to her God for the next twenty three years until her death. Music was an important aspect of Lenora's ministry, not only through her church but also as she taught the children and youth of the community.

Lenora also applied her talents in every phase of the church's life, as church school teacher, on the Administrative Board, counseling with young people, etc. She always had a burden for the concerns and health of others. One of the most uplifting experiences was at the close of choir practice each week when she, in her loving spirit, would lead the choir in prayer, bringing the needs of others before the throne of God's grace for strength, healing and His guidance.

"Some people come into our lives and quickly go,
Some stay awhile, leave footprints on our hearts,
And we are never, ever the same."

So it was with Lenora Bryant. There was a gracefulness about her life, a tenderness to her generosity, but above all, an integrity about her belief.

There is a verse in Isaiah where God told his people, "For you shall go out in joy, and be led forth in peace; the mountains and the hills before you shall break forth in singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands." How symbolic for one so versed in voice and music. On Christmas Day, 1995, God reached down and Lenora went forth in angelic singing as another faithful servant was welcomed home to her eternal rest.

MINNIE RUTH FAULKENBERRY CHANDLER

August 8, 1905 - October 5, 1995

Ruth Chandler, widow of the Reverend John Adolphus Chandler, was his helpmate and companion in the latter years of his ministry. Born in Cherokee County and the daughter of John Blackmon Cooper and Mamie Etters Cooper, she was first married to James Thomas Faulkenberry to whom she bore two children, Gilda and Kenneth. After the death of Mr. Faulkenberry she married Rev. Chandler, who was also widowed, on July 19, 1948. With her two children (his children were grown) she left her home in Chester and moved into the parsonages where he served: Harleyville, Greenwood, Enoree and Abbeville. Upon his retirement they lived in Chester where he continued to serve as retired supply to the Bethlehem Church for a number of years. Rev. Chandler died in 1975.

Ruth enjoyed being a pastor's wife. With him she visited in the homes of church members. She always taught love and living by the golden rule. For his colleagues in ministry she loved to cook and baked cakes and pies for them as they came to hold revivals. She and Rev. Chandler always worked together in the yard where they had flowers named for the parishioners who had given them.

A woman of determination, Ruth Chandler lived out her life with grace and faith in God. Graveside services were held for her on October 7, 1995 at Evergreen Cemetery in Chester. She is survived by her daughter, Gilda Holley, three grandchildren and one great grandson.

IRENE JONES ELLENBERG

March 12, 1911 - January 6, 1996

The scriptures speak of how God calls persons to various experiences and paths. After the Lord called Samuel several times one night, Eli, his mentor states "It is the Lord. Let him do what seems good to him." Irene Jones Ellenberg was called to serve beside and with her beloved husband, Robert, upon his hearing the call to ministry.

Irene Ellenberg sought to faithfully answer the call of Christ upon her life in a variety of roles: friend, mother, wife, sister, pastor's wife and most importantly as a disciple of her Lord and Savior. As a disciple, she was a devoted member of Harris Church serving as a Sunday School teacher, youth counselor, and on the Vacation Bible School staff. She was later in life a member of the Daisy Harris Sunday School Class. Irene was a real "people" person and a wonderful conversationalist.

One of the most cherished of Irene's callings was a pastor's wife. When Robert felt the call to ministry as Eli told Samuel, she stated if that's what the Lord wants you to do, then let's do it! Irene went with Robert to Warrenton, Ware Place and McCormick County even late in life leaving behind their home in Greenwood.

A Service of Death and Resurrection was held on January 11, 1996 at the Harvey Funeral Home in Greenwood and interment was in Greenwood Memorial Gardens with her pastor, The Reverend David C. Surrent, officiating. A son, Robert, Jr. and a daughter, Mildred Martin survive. We rejoice over the special calling of God for Irene Ellenberg and the faithful way she responded.

MARGARET HARVEY GRIFFIS

July 27, 1928 - March 23, 1996

Sixty-seven years ago, a lady entered into the world in the person of Margaret Harvey Griffis. Her destiny would be intertwined with one of the men created by God, the Reverend Alderman L. Griffis, to serve both God and man. Two children would come from this union, James Hal, and Donna Lynn (Griffis) Etheredge.

Margaret did not seem to have any little dark corners of her life. She seemed to live her life in a most open manner. And in talking with the people who knew her best, she left us a legacy that would be difficult for many of us to surpass.

Margaret was this special person who loved her God; brought up her children with His precepts; and did His work as she was led by the Holy Spirit. She did not spend her time in idle gossip, but saying only positive things about those of whom she spoke.

It is said of Margaret, that she was a "good person." She took care of her husband in his last days, without comment. She shared with those less fortunate. She would help out when and where she was needed. She loved her God and she loved His church.

Margaret was a person who loved children, especially those she taught. And that love was returned to her. It is said that the parents loved Margaret as much as her students.

Margaret taught us all how to live this life. This person, of whom we shall never see the likes again, has left us her life, by which to live. Should we need a guide, then Margaret has set for us a good example. God in all of His wisdom has given us Margaret Harvey Griffis. All Glory, Praise and Honor be to His Holy Name, Our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Margaret Elmore Kingman was born in Knoxville Tennessee on August 18, 1904. On June 14, 1928 she was married to the late Henry Loster Kingman. This was the beginning of a long road of ministry throughout South Carolina. I. Annual Conference Rules of Order & Parliamentary Procedure	1-27
II. Annual Conference Rules of Organization	28-76
III. District Rules & Organization	77-87
IV. Miscellaneous Rules	88-96

I. ANNUAL CONFERENCE RULES OF ORDER AND PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

1. The procedure of the Annual Conference shall be governed by the following in the order listed: The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church, The Standing Rules of the Annual Conference, The Rules of Order of the preceding General Conference and the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised. For the purpose of transacting business, the quorum shall be those present and eligible to vote.
2. The official roll call of the Annual Conference shall be the roll signed by the clerical and lay members present. The record of attendance shall be made from this roll.
3. Lay members of boards, councils, commissions and committees; lay members of the Conference Staff; and lay persons who are heads of Conference institutions supported by the Conference, who are not members of the Annual Conference, shall have the privilege of the floor without vote.
4. In order to secure the floor a member desiring to speak to the Conference shall stand at his or her seat, if able, with one arm raised, but shall not move to a microphone until recognized by the chair. At the microphone the member shall first state his or her name and the charge or appointment represented.
5. No member who has the floor may be interrupted except for a point of order, a misrepresentation, a parliamentary inquiry, a point of information, or to call attention that the time has arrived for a special order.
6. A member of the Conference may not speak more than once on a question before the Conference until every member who wishes to speak has spoken, subject to rules limiting debate. A member shall not speak for more than three (3) minutes at any time, except by permission of the Conference.

7. When the report of a board, council, commission, or committee is under consideration, the chair shall ascertain, when recognizing a member of the Conference, to which side the member desires to speak: the chair shall not give the floor to any member to speak on the same side of the pending question as the speaker immediately preceding if any member desires to speak to the other side. Except for undebatable motions, no report shall be acted upon or question relating to the same decided without opportunity having been given for at least two speeches for and two speeches against the said proposal. After three speeches for and three against, the question shall be put automatically. However, the chairperson or designated member presenting the report shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken. This right shall prevail in like manner to a limit of three minutes when a vote is about to be taken on a motion to amend, to substitute, to postpone, to refer, to lay on the table, or any other motion whose adoption is pertinent to the report under consideration.
8. A copy of any motion made on the Conference floor shall be sent to the secretary's desk as soon as the person making the motion returns to his or her seat.
9. The report of a board, council, commission or committee duly presented to the Conference for its action shall be deemed properly before the Conference without the necessity of a motion to adopt and a second thereto.
10. A member rising to a point of order shall state the point as briefly and concisely as possible citing the rule or disciplinary provision invoked in the point of order. A point of order shall be decided by the chair without debate unless the chair submits the question to the body for advice or decision. When the chair rules on a point, debate is closed; but the decision may be appealed to a vote of the body.
11. When a motion is made and seconded and stated by the chair, or a resolution is introduced and seconded, or an agency report is made or is published in the Pre-Conference report(s), it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference and may not be altered except by action of the Conference.
12. The main question may be opened to debate under the following motions: to adopt, to commit, to substitute, to postpone, and to reconsider.
13. If any one or more of the following motions shall be made when one or more other motions are pending, the order of their precedence in relation to one another shall be the same as the order of their listing below:
 1. To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn. (This motion is subject to amendment, or it may be laid on the table.)
 2. To adjourn.
 3. To take a recess.
 4. To raise a question of privilege.
 5. To call for the orders of the day.
 6. To lay on the table.
 7. To order the previous question.
 8. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
 9. To postpone to a given time.
 10. To refer.
 11. To amend or substitute (one amendment being allowed to an amendment.)
14. Motions that are to be acted upon without debate:
 1. To adjourn, when unqualified, except to adjourn the Conference finally.
 2. To suspend a rule or rules or any provision of the Standing Rules.

3. To lay on the table.
 4. To take from the table.
 5. To call for the previous question.
 6. To reconsider a non-debatable motion.
 7. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
 8. To call for the orders of the day.
15. When a member moves the previous question, it shall be regarded as applying only to the immediate pending question. This motion shall be taken without debate, and a two-thirds vote of those present and voting shall be required for its adoption. If adopted, the vote shall be taken on the motion to which it applies without further debate.
 16. After discussing a pending question and before relinquishing the floor, a member may make a motion, but not one whose adoption would limit or stop debate.
 17. A motion to reconsider an action of the Conference shall be in order at any time if offered by a member who voted with the prevailing side. If the motion proposed for reconsideration is non-debatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

18. The report of the Committee on Standing Rules shall be made as a part of the organization of the Conference and as often during the session as necessary.

19. It shall be an Order of the Day at the morning session of the first full day of Annual Conference that the floor shall be opened for additional nominations to all boards, councils, commissions and committees to which the Committee on Nominations and parent boards are prepared to make nominations.

21. The report of the Council on Finance and Administration shall be placed on the Conference Program for information on the first full day of the Conference and for action on the last day of the Conference. When a motion for an increase in World Service and Conference Benevolence arises from anyone other than the Council on Finance and Administration and is approved by the Annual Conference, that motion shall be held a minimum of twelve (12) hours and shall require an affirmative vote at a second reading for final approval. If such a motion arises from the Conference floor on the last day of Annual Conference, a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote shall be required for approval.
22. There shall be a Consent Calendar for the session of the Annual Conference composed of items to be "moved to the record without reading" and such other items which do not necessarily require deliberation by the Conference in open session. The Executive Committee of the Committee on Annual Conference shall determine items to be placed on the Consent Calendar and shall distribute a list of those items in the pre-conference materials. Items placed on the Consent Calendar shall be limited to items requiring no more than a simple majority vote for adoption. Prior to the adoption of the Consent Calendar by the session, any five members of the Conference may request that an item be removed from the Consent Calendar, and it shall be removed and considered at an appropriate time as determined by the President and the Secretary. The Consent Calendar shall be adopted by a majority vote of the session.

The voting area of the Conference shall be distinguished from other areas of the meeting site. Voting shall be by official badge only. NOTES

SECTION XI

HISTORICAL RECORD OF SESSIONS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

A detailed history of the South Carolina Conference has been published in The History of South Carolina Methodism by Albert D. Betts (Columbia: The Advocate Press, 1982), and the following chronology is based on the information contained in Dr. Betts' history. When John Wesley called his lay preachers together in London on June 25, 1744, to "confer" on the work of the growing Methodist Societies, the die for the annual Conference was cast. The practice was brought to the American shore as the Methodist Societies grew in the Colonies.

In colonial times Conferences were not neatly divided by the geographic divisions we find today, and, correspondingly, it is difficult to trace precisely a lineage that would make it possible to identify "the first Conference." Dr. Betts refers to the "first American 'Annual Conference'" (p. 34) as the one held in George's Church, Philadelphia, July 14, 1773, on the call of John Rankin who had been sent to America by John Wesley. The South Carolina Conference was organized in 1785, when a "section" of the Annual Conference was called at Louisburg, North Carolina, on April 20, 1785, the first Annual Conference at which Francis Asbury presided. About two years later, on March 22, 1787, the first session of the South Carolina Conference was held in Charleston, with both Bishops Francis Asbury and Thomas Coke sharing responsibilities as presiding officers. Sessions of the 1785 Conference are delineated as shown in the tables below.

The 1866 South Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was organized on April 2, 1866, in Charleston, South Carolina, following disagreement between blacks and whites about simultaneous but segregated worship of the two races.* (Detailed history of the 1866 Conference may be found in Passionate Journey, by John W. Curry, St. Matthews: Bill Wise Printers, 1980.) Pursuant to the 1964 General Conference action which dissolved the Central Jurisdiction to achieve "racial inclusiveness at all levels of the church," the 181st Session of the South Carolina Conference (1785) passed a resolution requesting bishops of the two South Carolina conferences to appoint a committee to work out a plan of merger. The two conferences became one again in 1972. Sessions of the 1866 Conference are shown in tables below.

In 1914, General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, voted to divide the South Carolina Annual Conference (1785) and instructed the conference to fix a line of division. At its 129th Session the South Carolina Conference (1785) created the Upper South Carolina Conference. The two were combined again in 1948. Sessions of the Upper South Carolina Conference are shown in tables below.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 1995

1. Nature of Activities and Significant Accounting Policies:

Nature of Activities:

- 1.1 The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church governs the various boards, commissions, committees and agencies whose purpose is to carry out the programs of the United Methodist Church. The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church is a nonprofit religious organization and is exempt from paying income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. These financial statements report only those transactions maintained by the Treasurer of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

1.2 Accounting Method:

The accompanying financial statements are based on the accrual method of accounting reflecting income earned regardless of when received and expenses incurred regardless of when paid.

The Conference has adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 116, "Accounting for Contributions Received and Made", and SFAS No. 117, "Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Organizations". SFAS No. 117 establishes standards for external financial reporting by not-for-profit organizations and requires that resources be classified for accounting and reporting purposes into three net asset categories according to externally (donor) imposed restrictions. SFAS No. 116 requires that unconditional promises to give (pledges) be recorded as receivables and revenues and requires the organization to distinguish between contributions received for each net asset category in accordance with donor-imposed restrictions. The effect of this change on net assets at December 31, 1995 was the separation of $ 4,261,296 fund balance into the following accounts:

Funds Held for Others	$ 868.989
Unrestricted Net Assets	349.305
Temporary Net Assets	3,024.661
Permanently Restricted Assets	18,341
	$ 4,261,296

A description of the three net asset categories follows:

Unrestricted Net Assets - Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions.

YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 1995

1. Nature of Activities and Significant Accounting Policies (Continued):

Temporary Restricted Net Assets - Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that they may or will be met either by actions of the Conference and/or the passage of time.

Permanently Restricted Assets - Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may be maintained permanently by the Conference. Generally, the donors of these assets permit the Conference to use all or part of the income earned on related investments for program operations.

1.3 Cash and Cash Equivalents:

For purposes of reporting the statement of cash flows, the Conference considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

1.4 Investments:

Investments are carried at market value and realized and unrealized gains and losses are recorded in the statement of activities. Investments are carried in a single pool for allocation of earned income. Earned income received on investments by the Conference Treasurer is allocated on the last business day of the year to the Conference Boards and Agencies and to certain district funds on the basis of month-end average balances held by the Treasurer.

1.5 Property and Equipment:

Property and Equipment are recorded as expenditures at the time of purchase. These purchases are not reflected in a property and equipment fund.

1.6 Contributions:

Gifts of cash and other assets are presented as restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 1995

6. Ministerial Pension Plan and Comprehensive Protection Plan (MPP/CPP) and Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund (CPBF):

The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church participates in a defined benefit multi-employer pension plan administered by the General Board of Pensions of the United Methodist Church. The plan provides pension benefits to retiring members in addition to providing disability income benefits and guaranteed minimum benefits for widows and dependent children of deceased members.

The Conference contributes to the fund an amount equivalent to twelve percent (12%) of each minister's annual plan compensation (cash salary, tax-deferred contributions made, and housing allowance). For lay employees, the Conference contributes nine percent (9%) and the lay employee contributes three percent (3%). CPP contributions for eligible full-time ministers are the equivalent of 4.4% of the minister's plan compensation. MPP and CPP contributions are limited by the current denominational average compensation. Past service defined benefit funding is an annual actuarially determined amount approved by the Annual Conference. Each participant's contributions are fully vested. The Conference Treasurer remitted $ 3,305,000 in 1995 to the General Board of Pensions. The Conference is not liable for any unfunded liabilities.

Past service expenses charged to the Annual Conference are $ 492,323 in 1995. The Individual Annuity Mortality Table adjusted with a six percent (6%) interest assumption was used in the determination of these amounts.

Ministers' pension payments received by the Conference Treasurer are remitted to the General Board of Pensions of the United Methodist Church.

7. Accounting for Post-Retirement Benefits Other Than Pensions:

The Annual Conference requires no payment from retirees for retiree or dependents and does not plan to change this policy.

The Annual Conference sponsors a defined benefit post-retirement medical plan that covers substantially all of its statutory and common-law employees. The Plan is non-contributory and no change is anticipated in the future. The Plan is unfunded.

The Annual Conference also sponsors a defined benefit post-retirement death benefit plan that covers substantially all of its retired clergy members. This plan is non-contributory, is fully funded, and no change from this policy is anticipated in the future.

Other than the plans identified above, the Annual Conference sponsors no other post-retirement benefit plans.

As of January 1, 1993, the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standard (SFAS) No. 106, "Employer's Accounting for Post-Retirement Benefits Other Than Pensions", were adopted. Legal opinion has been obtained that the plans described above are multi-employer plans as that term is defined in Paragraph 79 of SFAS No. 106. Accordingly, the post-retirement benefit costs are recognized on a current period basis and were as follows for the period January 1, 1995 to December 31, 1995:

Post-Retirement Medical Benefit	$ 394,532
Post-Retirement Death Benefit	$ -0-
